

Dr. Paul Vickers, an Ambassador for Christ, is a licensed educator, author, and retired financial advisor. He holds accreditation from the Transworld Accrediting Commission International and the PTP Partners to the Promise College of Christian Education in Charlotte, North Carolina. Paul earned his Master of Divinity in Pastoral Studies through TACI and received an honorary doctorate from Harvest Outreach Ministry and Bible Institute in 2019.

His mission primarily focuses on empowering young people and the Christian community regarding financial literacy. Paul has authored three impactful books. His first, "Understanding What Just Happened to You," serves as a comprehensive guide to salvation. Drawing from his financial expertise, he wrote "The Accessible Economy of God." His most distinguished work, "The Awesome Kingdom of God" in Plain Sight which encapsulates Matthew 6:33.

As a man of integrity and a dedicated ambassador, Paul aims to help youth grasp financial literacy early in life as well as their identity. He emphasizes that they are not merely here to earn a living but to make a significant impact in their generation. Paul believes this is their time to shine as the "Light of the World," reflecting the message of Matthew 5:16.
