

In six months, my goal is to earn €2500 every month.

- I am generating €2500 per month because I am serving 4 clients.
- I have 4 clients because I managed to convince them that I can help them.
- I convinced them because I thoroughly analyzed what they do and proposed solutions to the identified problem.
- I could identify the problem because I became skilled at analyzing the situation.
- I became skilled because I work hard every day and follow Prof. Andrew's instructions precisely.

Assumptions:

- Consistency in pursuing my goal.
- Learning new skills will lead to better income.
- Adaptability to any new developments.
- Never giving up.

Unknowns:

- Not being able to convince anyone.
- Not having learned enough.
- illness
