

Flipboard - What is it?

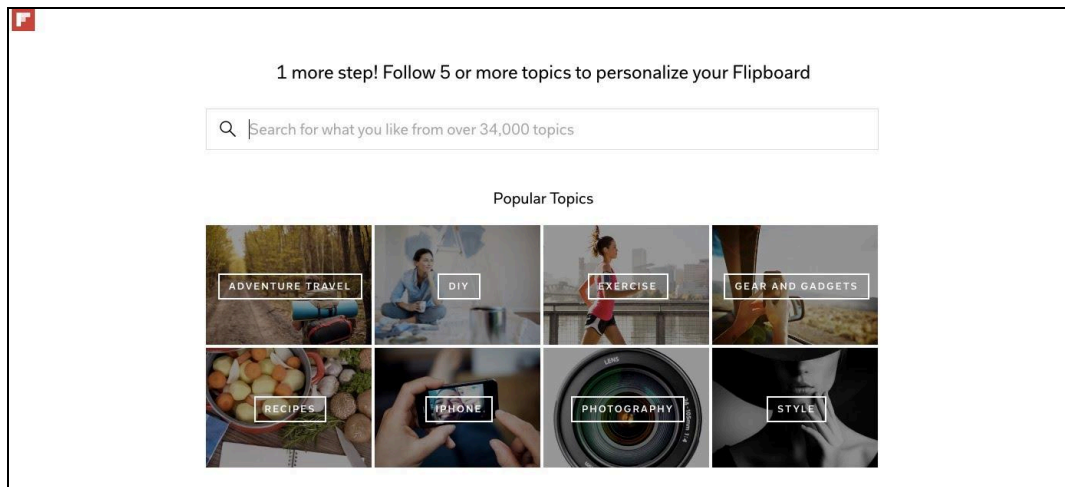

Flipboard is a way to share articles that we read related to Geography. The articles can be from a variety of magazines or newspapers. The important thing is that the 'DP Geography 2016-2018' magazine is ours and therefore reflects what we are interested in as a team.

How to set flipboard up?

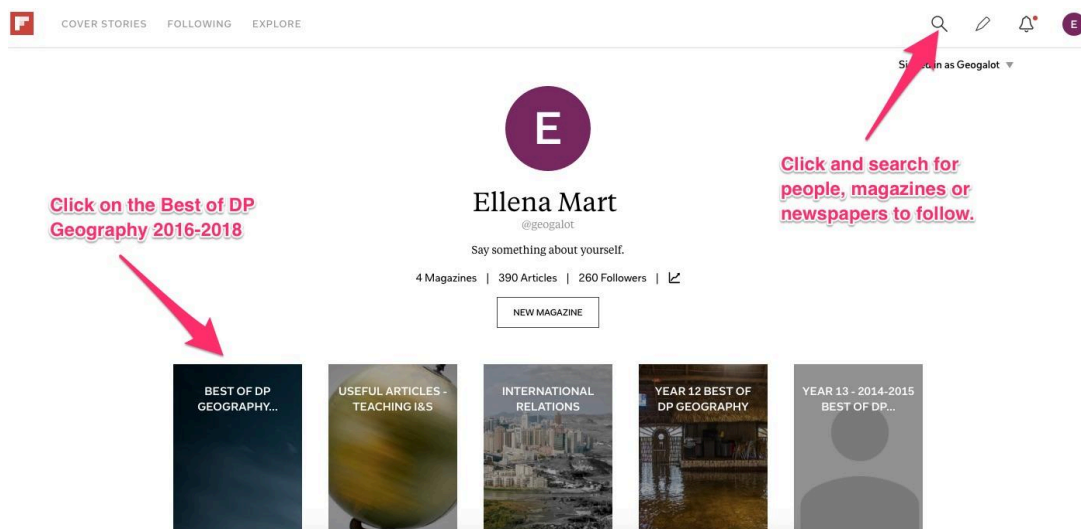

1. Go to www.flipboard.com
2. Click on the 'Sign Up' button and sign up using your school gmail account. Email me your email address so that I can add you as a contributor to the 'Best of DP Geography 2016-2018' magazine.

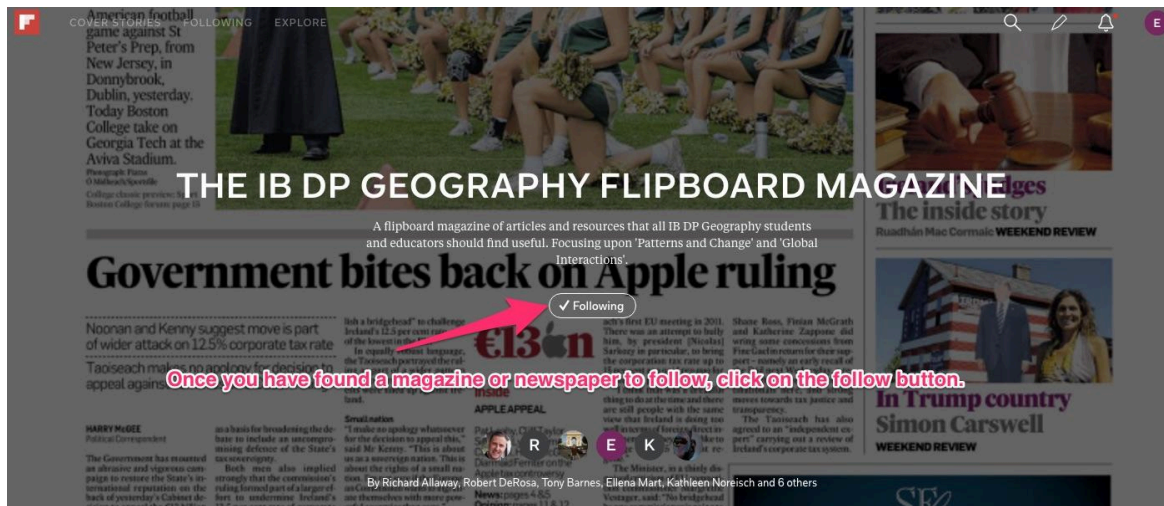

3. It will then ask you to follow 5 or more topics that you are interested in. It doesn't matter what you follow as you can change it.

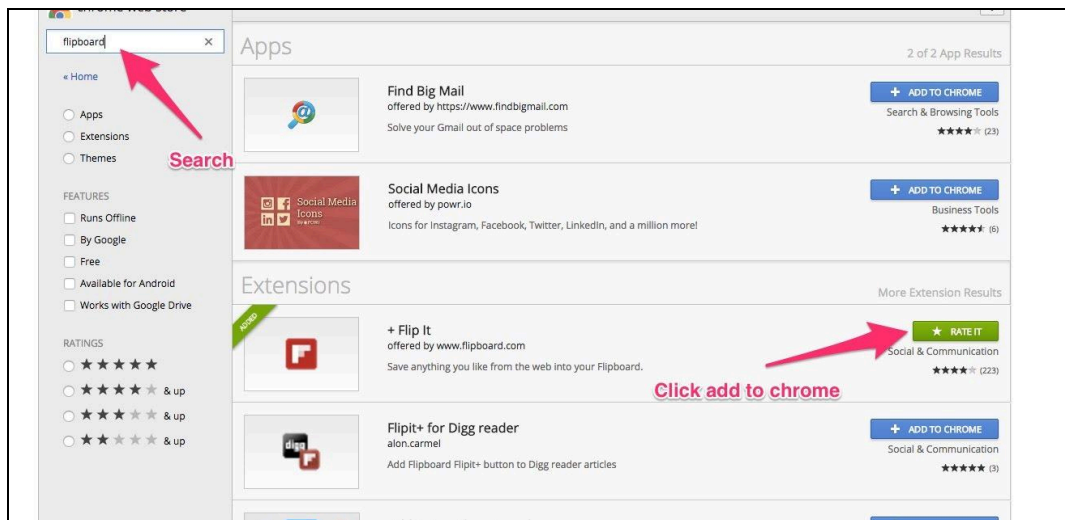

4. Using the magnifying glass search for geogalot and this will show you the magazines that I contribute to. You will be contributing to the 'DP Geography 2016-2018' magazine.

5. Now search for newspapers and magazines that you regularly or would like to read that could be relevant to the DP Geography course.

6. Now you will need to install an extension to 'flip' the articles into our magazine.
 - Search for chrome web store. Or click on this link <https://chrome.google.com/webstore/category/extensions>
 - In the 'search the store' search box type in 'flipboard'. It is the first app under Extensions - + Flip It. Click the blue 'Add to Chrome'.

- The flip it icon will now appear to the left of your search bar. Click on it and it will ask you to sign in.
 - You are now ready to 'flip' articles into Flipboard.
7. While you have been searching for and following different newspapers. I have been inviting you to contribute to the 'Best of DP Geography 2016-2018' magazine. Find three
