

_____ read _____ did not read “The Wife of Bath’s Tale” a Name: _____ Pd: _____

1. What king is ruling during the time of her tale? _____
2. What crime is the knight being punished for?
3. What punishment does the queen dole out to the knight (his errand)?
4. What is the crone’s price for answering the knight’s question?
5. What is the answer to his errand?

EC: define fen

_____ read _____ did not read “The Wife of Bath’s Tale” b Name: _____ Pd: _____

1. What is the king’s original punishment for the knight?
2. What crime is the knight being punished for?
3. In the myth of Midas whom does his wife tell his secret to?
4. What happens to the old crone in the end of the story?
5. What is the answer to the knight’s errand (the question he must answer)?

EC: define peradventure:

_____ read _____ did not read “The Wife of Bath’s Tale” c Name: _____ Pd: _____

1. Who rapes a young maiden at the river?
2. What happens (be specific) when he first tries to get an answer to his question (that he is assigned)?
3. What deformity does King Midas have OR tell me who Ovid is
4. Which Italian poet is mentioned (we’ve talked about him in class as being an influence on Chaucer)
5. What does the old woman say to the Knight to convince him to kiss her (be specific)?

EC: define incubus:

_____ read _____ did not read “The Wife of Bath’s Tale” c Name: _____ Pd: _____

1. Who rapes a young maiden at the river?
2. What happens (be specific) when he first tries to get an answer to his question (that he is assigned)?
3. What deformity does King Midas have OR tell me who Ovid is
4. Which Italian poet is mentioned (we’ve talked about him in class as being an influence on Chaucer)
5. What does the old woman say to the Knight to convince him to kiss her (be specific)?

EC: define incubus: