Cover Letter

I am writing to express my interest in joining your team. My name is Blake Wentz, and I am a junior at Biola University, where I balance my time as a committed student-athlete and team captain on the baseball team. My experiences both in the classroom and on the field have helped shape me into a person who values hard work, consistency, and integrity in everything I do.

I have always believed that "how you do anything is how you do everything," and I make it a point to carry this approach into all areas of my life. As a team captain, I've developed my leadership abilities by motivating my teammates, building trust, and setting high standards through my actions. These experiences have taught me resilience, adaptability, and the importance of working together to achieve a common goal. I apply these same principles in my academics, where I strive to excel and demonstrate a strong work ethic.

Beyond the field and classroom, I am passionate about building meaningful relationships and connecting with others. My soft skills, which I have developed through leading and supporting my teammates, have given me the ability to communicate effectively, empathize with others, and navigate challenges with a positive attitude. I take pride in being dependable and in setting an example that others can rely on.

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my dedication, leadership, and commitment to excellence to your team. Thank you for considering my application, and I look forward to the chance to discuss how my background and skills align with your organization's goals.

Sincerely,
Blake Wentz
