

“Clark Engine Company” is a dynamite folk-rock, cosmic-american combo out of Portland, OR tipping their hats to bands that formed the sound decades ago including names such as The Byrds, Gram Parsons, Poco, Buffalo Springfield, and Pure Prairie League. Foreman of the group, Clark, embodies the troubadour lifestyle with tales of road ridden vagabonds, long distance lovers, and western landscape lexicon. Breaking the hearts of country western lovers and warming those of progressive rockers, “Clark Engine Company” runs like a fine tuned motor barreling down the boulevard.