Main body: Calibri 11. Paragraphs: justified, before 0 pt, after 6 pt; line spacing: 1.15. The authors are advised to type or paste their text into this document over the general instructions. Please do not change any formatting settings and follow the formatting instructions given in this abstract template. Use square brackets for references [1]. References cited throughout the text should be listed at the end, following the given instructions depending on the type of literature used (journal paper, book chapter, an online source, etc.). A figure, if needed, should be included in the text with an appropriate caption, not sent as a separate file. References are mandatory. The limit for your abstract is one page (including references and pictures) without changing margins or any formatting settings. Abstracts that do not meet these formatting requirements will be returned to the authors.
