

2 bills recently passed in the NC General Assembly pose serious threats to the sense of safety that all children deserve in their learning environments and communities. Governor Stein now has until June 20 to sign, veto, or allow SB 153 and HB 318 to become law without his signature. Wondering what you can do to help maintain safe spaces in schools for students from immigrant populations?

- Learn more about the rights guaranteed to immigrant students in our schools
- Read about the requirements for states to ensure that multilingual learners have equal access to a high-quality education
- Tell others in your community about what you learn
- Contact Governor Stein's office and share your thoughts
- Contact your state legislators and Congressional representatives and share your thoughts