

What we've watched so far on HorrorWeekly!

Below is a list of all the movies that were listed in each weekly poll, with the winner in bold. We'll continue to update this list to track what we watch.

We love getting suggestions from members, so feel free to give us your input - just be sure to check the list to see if we already watched the movie! If a movie did not yet win, we are open to adding them again into a new poll.

You can also ask to join our subreddit chat room to take part in the conversation, and see random stream listings of shorts, horror, comedy, and more!
