

Course	Name	Date	Instructor
Civics and Economics

TASK LIST
Must Do	May Do
<input type="checkbox"/> Warm Up: First 5 <input type="checkbox"/> Notes <input type="checkbox"/> Activity <input type="checkbox"/> Exit Pass	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>

MAY DO OPTIONS-can be adapted for content or left as a brain break activity
Quizizz, Blooket, Gimkit	Geography Online -learn states, countries, continents, oceans
Virtual Art Museums	Memory -can use images/graphs/terms that students will see on their end of course tests
Create a Picture Dictionary-could give extra credit and then use for ELL students next year	Newsela
Smithsonian History Explorer News for Kids Time for Kids	Complete one of the writing Prompts below

Sample Free Response Prompts:

FREE RESPONSE PROMPTS
<input type="checkbox"/> Voting Age: Should the voting age be lowered to 16? Why or why not? <input type="checkbox"/> Compulsory Voting: Should voting in elections be mandatory for all eligible citizens? Provide reasons to support your view. <input type="checkbox"/> Electoral College: Is the Electoral College still relevant in modern American politics, or should it be abolished? Explain your position. <input type="checkbox"/> Term Limits for Congress: Should there be term limits for members of Congress? Why or why not? <input type="checkbox"/> Civic Education: Should civics education be a mandatory subject in high school? What impact could this have on society? <input type="checkbox"/> Freedom of Speech: Are there situations where freedom of speech should be limited? Provide examples to support your argument. <input type="checkbox"/> Right to Protest: Should there be restrictions on the right to protest in certain circumstances? Explain your reasoning. <input type="checkbox"/> Social Media Regulation: Should the government regulate social media platforms to prevent the spread of misinformation? Why or why not? <input type="checkbox"/> Public Funding for Elections: Should public funds be used to finance political campaigns? Discuss the pros and cons.

