

ISRC Parent University

Just for Dads (And Male Caretakers of Children with Hearing Loss)

A panel of dads and caretakers come together to discuss their families and experiences with raising a child or children with a hearing loss.

Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4E-ZkJf-1Jc>

Quiz

“Just for Dads” (And Male Caretakers of Children with Hearing Loss)

Question 1: Provide two examples of what the “dads” said is the most surprising thing they have learned from their child with hearing loss.

Question 2: Provide two examples of what the “dads” said they are involved with in their child’s journey with hearing loss.

Question 3: Provide two examples of what the “dads” mentioned about their child’s opportunities to spend time with Deaf and Hard of Hearing peers.

Question 4: Provide two examples of what the “dads” said about the sibling’s reaction to their sibling with hearing loss.

Question 5: Provide two examples of what the “dads” said they were scared or unsure about; but looking back was okay.

Question 6: Provide one example of what the dads said that they know now, that they wish they knew then.

Question 7: Provide two examples of advice that the “dads” shared.