

Introduction

I can do small parts of the story translation with my limited time and japanese knowledge. Please correct me if I mis-translate anything. Cheers! -TimaeuSS

Prologue

“A long time ago, there was no Heaven nor Earth... Only Chaos. Eventually, the Mother Goddess Orsa (原母神 オルサ) was born and created the world. Out of loneliness, she also created Finis based on her image and had 13 children together. However, the Goddess Orsa passed away when giving birth to the 13th children. Because of her death, Finis wept and wept, for eternity.”

Fast forward to many many years later, a white hooded sage appears and exclaims he has finally found the “chosen one” under the guidance of the God of the Holy Flame. His ring shines and you get your first character (4-5 stars unit). The white sage disappears as you begin your journey.

After a quick movement and combat tutorial, you lose consciousness in the stormy snowfield. The sage reappears and explains that you are chosen by the ring of the gods and asks what you seek at the end of your journey. You are then able to choose between Wealth, Power and Fame. He warns you of the other 3 evil ring holders that terrorize the world through their greed and you should be careful not to repeat their paths.
