

Driven to Insanity: Collab TF Fic

Rules: Add info about your character and how they TF here if you'd please! (I am not good at memory so make sure you PLEASE add it here if you're in my fic!!!) + All characters must be at least 18 yrs old. :3

1. Harper(Protagonist): They/Them, agender-pansexual. Appearance: Has long-medium sky-blue hair, with cobalt-colored horns and a flexible, sharp tail. They have vitiligo(tanned skin with light splotches), and icy light blue eyes. They also wear a dark gray hoodie(with a pink and blue diamond logo) and a pair of dark jeans with purple sneakers. Harper also has ADHD and magic powers. They also have interest in the OSC, mazie, TV Girl, Jack Stauber, and indie/decora. (Portrayed by Piko_pikohere)
Personality: A sadist with dominance and omnipotence. Chaotic and unpredictable as well... better watch out for them.

Cause of TF: Harper had watched all of them transform, in quite interest in their pain. However, they still knew it was wrong and got to the bottom of what happened, and it was down to them and IL. However, IL didn't even hesitate to isolate Harper from the others and put her in a sort of glass-like cube on display for the other victims(which are transformed) to just slowly watch. And then, IL presses a lever, watching as electrical wires begin to make their way inside the cube, electrocuting Harper into the TF process. [PMC, but also difficult to tell if Harper is still remembering anything.]

2. Sarku/Taco (Victim): They/her, Transgender and pansexual. Appearance: Has pastel blue fluffy hair, has creamy white skin (skin color), eye color is red and green, wears a black long-sleeved sweater with 3 blue stars on it along with gray shorts, legs have bandaids/bandages, wears black boots, finally, she has a bright blue shark tail (along with a fin on their back that is the same color.)(Portrayed by _sakana_waters_).
Personality: Sarku is a caring and sweet person, she is pretty accident-prone yet is oblivious to it. They love swimming a lot, and possibly have autism. She likes Synth-pop music, and the osc. She usually gets mistaken for a male. They kinda are insecure about being themselves, so, she just mask her feelings because of a fear of being disliked. Cause of TF: Sarku was just in her cozy little home, eating her lunch (which is a Taco mehehe).. But then, they thought it tasted a little weird, like something was put in it.. Then, she genuinely starts feeling strange overall. Then, the TF happens. (PMC)

3. Kinzie/Paintbrush (Victim): Age - In her early 20s. Gender - Female (She/They), Heteroromantic Ace. Physical Description: Dark Purple Hair, Light Purple Eyes, Tan Skin, Wears Black, White and Light Purples in her clothes, has horns and tail that she can hide at will, is around 5'7". (Portrayed by SoulBFKinz). Personality: Is a nice person who will get suspicious of anything when things get wrong, likes rock music, video game osts, reading and writing transformation stories and art, playing videogames, and hanging out with her friends. She also is really big on the Object Show Community. Lead up/Cause of TF: After a few transformations, Kinzie started to get concerned about all these disappearances and know what is really up. Kinzie knew that she had to act fast or she'll end up like those who have fallen before her. The Antagonist then shuts her up by tfinf Kinzie by injecting her with some kind of fluid. (TF, FTX, MC)

4. Alexis/Marshmallow (Victim): She/her, trans lesbian. Appearance: Dark brown hair, concerningly pale, wire-frame glasses, wears a white jacket, some kind of black band shirt (usually Radiohead, System of a Down, or Lingua Ignota), and a pastel skirt. She also has Pillow-esque ears that are functional (she's lacking the Pillow spirit or w/e in this) Is 5'10" and 19 years old. (Portrayed by fournx) Personality: Alexis is very morbid (thanks to being a bit too into horror media), eccentric yet laid back (if she's comfy around you, she'll let herself relax a bit less), defensive towards close friends, and is on the autism spectrum. She's aware of OSC TFs, but isn't as into it - moreso TF in general done as a way to mask her gender dysphoria (despite entirely passing). Cause of TF: Vex gets Alexis to follow them into some sort of shop (specifically envisioning a knockoff walmart for this but you do you!). When they enter, Vex locks the door behind them, and explains to her why she was invited. The shop is meant to be an 'escape room' for her to distract herself. The entire room is full of Marshmallow-related items, though none of them are obvious enough to stick out. (For example, the stick Knife used to make smores out of her, the MePhone decoy used to trick 4S, or the bottle cap collection she allegedly has.) Alexis could easily leave using one of the movable shelves, but she opts to use the items that are given. This creativity of hers is her downfall. Every item she picks up slowly TFs and MCs her more and more into Marshmallow. Once she MCs, Vex frees the new object from the escape room and acts as if nothing happened. Full MC, go ham.
5. Dee/Knife (Victim): He/it, early 20s. Tallish guy with brown hair that reaches down to his shoulders. He wears a brown trenchcoat with a random band tee (usually from Green Day, MCR, SlipKnot, or any other emo/punk/metal bands) and black dress pants. He has black worn down converses. Personality: Usually a pretty chill guy, has a bad RBF. If you get him to start talking, he'll never stop. Though, he fiercely defends the people he cares about. TF: Vex fuckin. Makes some deranged cooking show. Think pokopokoshopping almost? Like it's a fake livestream, cardboard audience, laugh tracks, maybe foreshadowing with the amounts of ingredients needed (things like 45 or 2; numeric lettering and the placement of Knife in IL2), etc. As it goes on, it becomes less abt the cooking but basically maiming dee until he TFs lmao. Pmc lol
6. Vex/MePhone4S (Antagonist's Co-Host): he/they/it, 21.
 - a. Appearance: Short, dark blonde hair with dyed-purple tips. Sort of tall, but definitely not going to tower over anybody. (5'9) Pale skin, maybe wears some sort of night vision goggles sometimes?? Yellow eyes. Wears a suit and dress pants in non-casual environments (e.g. TFing somebody or meeting with IL and Kittree). Wears a grey-and-blue flannel, a black T-shirt that has a cat saying

"pawesome" on it, and navy blue leggings in casual ones. Wears brown boots in both.

- b. Personality: Friendly. Tries to be approachable. Gives people stupid nicknames out of affection. Says things like "okayzers" and "swearsies" (I don't know how to describe it outside of that). Feels a bit of regret over the TFs, but has no real intention to stop. A bit of a control freak. Secretly, they plot to usurp IL and take over the trio.
 - c. TF: In a plan to get rid of IL, he utilizes one of the guns they were given to TF everybody and shoots at him. One of the projectiles (maybe that purple thing that 4s shot at MePhone once? really hope i didnt make that up) gets stuck in the barrel, though Vex fails to notice and continues shooting anyway. This squib load causes the gun to explode in their hands, kickstarting the TF. (PMC, but in such a way that it's hard to tell if the part is even intact. Like 4S would look at Marshmallow with a guilty expression and have no idea why lol. might trick some of the stragglers completely accidentally??)
7. CREATOR/Oj (Victim) : She/her/they, 18, Aro-ace. Black hair that reaches to her shoulders, black glasses, brown tired eyes with eye bags, wears a simple grey t-shirt and jorts while wearing black slip-on shoes, 5'5 with dark-ish skin. Personality : chill, tired asf, kind if you get to know her, realist and quiet most of the time yet intelligent-ish? (not rlly though) uses simple words and gets the point across when talking. How will this mf TF : Gets up half asleep bc thirsty, drinks OJ, goes wrong. (PMC if u can!) Extra : Likes doing nothing most of the time, yet will help if needed.
8. Jairus/Bomb (Victim)- he/him, Male, 23. Blue clothes, light shirt, dark shorts, red shoes. Somewhat dark tan skin, black hair. (Around 6ft) Personality: Usually Nice but snaps easily idk. How will bro die: He loses a game of chess but then all the black pieces turned into a sphere and the white into a long fuse. His shoes turn into literal fire (traumatized from loss of shoes. Those were from his grandparents) and he goes through transformation. His memory change (99% changed, 1% kept) as the chess bomb explodes into nothingness (no physical damage), Removing any memory of Jairus from the others, except for the fact he turned into Bomb.
9. Sleepy/Paper (Victim): She/Them, Demi-girl, 20, Panromantic/Aegosexual. Her medium hair is a very light gray with Bob Cat ears and tail, along with a light blue cross in her hair. She has cold, dark, wintery blue eyes with light skin. She wears a full suit with flat heels and a dark turquoise scarf. She also wears gloves. Cause of TF: She was slowly writing in her diary, writing about what was happening to everyone, the transformations, lack of escape, etc. Then, she suddenly received a paper cut right through her glove. Confused, she looked at her finger...then her confusion was quickly shifted into fear as soon as she saw her finger darkening. (PMC if you'd please!) Aftermath of TF: Sleepy/Paper would be very confused, wondering how he got a paper cut through his glove. But he knew he needed to act like he was fully mentally changed just so that Crazy Leopard doesn't grow suspicion. But, he gives minor hints to the others that were lucky enough to have part of their minds, just to show that he's still partially himself.

10. Liam/Pepper(Victim):He/Him Age:20, Gender:M, Sex:Straight
Appearance:Brown hair, Brown eyes, Slim build, No facial hair, Pale skin, Wears a dark blue hoodie with the hood on;A cyan t-shirt underneath of the hoodie,Grey sweatpants, black gloves, & laceless blue shoes.
Others:Very Curious,Can be considered nosy, Timid,Very talkative after getting to know people(likes to talk a lot & about personal interests,etc.) Makes cheesy dad jokes,Optimistic even in bad situations(That doesn't mean that he unable to lose hope), Quite sarcastic, Can be impatient, Tries to be friendly with everyone, Knows some info about Object shows but not to the level as a fan would, Has anxiety (Anxious about: upsetting people,worsening situations,etc.) suffers from mental breakdowns in very tense situations or being overwhelmed, Is Autistic, It's hard for him to respond,explain & express what on his mind,Has a habit of wandering around for no particular reason, His major interests include: Astronomy; Drawing art; & Playing video games. Transformation:The transformation occurs after the Salt TF, Liam becomes fearful of everyone & what they could do to him. Eventually, he is ambushed by a mysterious figure who he is unable to tell what their identity is.He is able to fight back for a bit but an opening allows the figure to inject a syringe which looks like it's filled pepper into his chest.He then suffers a long,graphic, agonizing transformation into Pepper.
Post-Transformation:Her mental state is partially intact(aka PMC) with her becoming best friends with Salt overnight as well becoming very protective of her.She also has become quite stubborn,vindictive & egocentric.Even though all of that, she knows who she's once was with her retaining of her memories,thoughts,etc. of her past.She also retains her personality to a degree like being curious,timid,talkative, optimistic, & being empathetic to others that aren't Salt with the addition of still being on the Autism spectrum
11. Rebecca/Baseball: She/her, female, 19. She's adorned in an oversized blue hoodie and a pair of long black pants. She's got dyed teal hair and cardboard ears and a tail, the tail having a crudely drawn mouth to represent "R," her idol. She's usually a chaotic, almost hyperactive woman, but there are times where she is able to think straight and make clever decisions on her own whenever she may be in a dangerous situation. The reason why she wears the cardboard ears and tail is because she's trying to imitate "R", who she considers her idol. other than that, she's just the kind of girl to say the most unhinged stuff out of the blue. Transformation: up to you but closest thing is getting hit in the head w/a bat
12. Insane Leopard(Crazy Leopards new name)/Steve Cobs(Main Antagonist) Gender: Demi-Boy. Sex: Pansexual. Nationality: Brazilian-American. Personality: Cool and Chill(On the good side(Fake)) Evil and Insane(true side of him). Age: 17. He wears a red and blue bandana and long gray leg warmers. Has yellow fur. And black spots and blue and red nose . And he's an anthropomorphic leopard. Also he has whiskers and has

Red iris and a black pupil and has a blue eye and a black iris and has Blue and red wing on right arm and Red and Blue Wing on left arm has blue crystals in his back . Cause of the Transformation: he betrayed his co-host and his assistant into Mephone4s and mepad after finding out that they are going to stop him, so he decided to give them a taste of their own medicine, and finding out that the people that were tf'ed were pretending to be like the contestants from ii all along and he was furious and he also decided to give them a taste of their own medicine too by torturing them. After this He noticed the black splotch on his arm and went to the mirror and in the mirror it wasn't his reflection it was an image of steve cobs staring at him,he realized he was possessed by steve cobs all along.

Fact: He's a North-chinese leopard,and smarter than his co-host and assistant. He has blue and red claws, pupils can Glow and his crystals on back and the tip of the tail too can glow when furious/Mad, he's strong and his attacks can be very brutal and he'll attack you so hard that it was painful enough, and he breathes out Both Red Fire and Blue fire like a godzilla.(i updated my oc btw)

13. Moon/LightBulb: Female, 22, She's a purple gradient colored fox with a clear lantern clipped to her shirt which was a lighter shade of pink, adorned with matching leg warmers. She has a dinosaur pattern on her tail, and a gash in both of her eyes (which means she has anisocoria, but with her entire eye). Moon's nationality consists of Japanese and Korean, Moon also has a very overprotective personality, she has a soft spot for any of her other of her friends (in this case, the bright lights), and her cause is that she basically was too " bright " about a idea which made her have too much self confidence, which in these terms, somehow naturally transforms her in some way. (Make it painful, like to the point of actual insanity, however, she is very flexible and will get used to the body afterwards. (keep in mind after this, she will forget the transformation process even happened in the first place) [PMC, PERSONALITY CHANGE] WOOHOO!!

14. Keisha/Pickle: Female, ageless. Has two-toned pale and tan skin, with luscious chocolate brown hair and bright yellow eyes. Her lighter yellow croptop has a bright smiley design, along with her pants having dark grey camo designs, and she wears darker heels under those. Personality: She is very bold and won't hesitate to stand up for herself or her friends. She WILL snap at anyone who dares to oppress her opinions. Too confident, tbh... Cause of TF: Kittree took her to an enlarged food skinning machine and threw her in as punishment for "misbehaving" and "offending CL". Once Keisha is stuck in, she begins to scream in pain as the machine SKINS HER FUCKING ALIVE, as green begins to show underneath her body, and her limbs began to thin, ensuing the TF process. Aftermath of TF: He would be VERY traumatized especially since his shaved skin is still on the floor of the machine, as Kittree casually lets him out of the machine, with Keisha/Pickle pretending to have gotten MC'd so he doesn't raise suspicion.

15. Levi/Nickel Age: 27 Gender: Male Pronouns: He/they Appearance: Levi has a mullet (gradient) plum hair, black eyes with white pupils, white tight shirt, a black collar, Black flare jeans, Gloves, and shoes. Personality: Levi is a tough, Bold, strong-willed man that could do you a flavour, but he'll LOSE IT if you insult his face. He likes someone he met on rare occupations Cause of the TFs: After getting away from his TF, IL (Insane Leopard) founded him and it was his time to end him for once and for all, IL expected himself to psychically tackle him but Levi ran away to survive himself. Since IL Is a Leopard, (Keep in mind that leopard can run up to 36mph) He easily chases him, as he tackles Levi to the ground, threw him to his own basement for Punching vex in their face just because they called him a "bastard" seeing how vex smirking and watching him transforming at the same like they already had a revenge. When IL Injected Levi with a Copper Blood, He felt his blood almost flowing through his mouth, threw up too much blood, replacing it with a gold copper blood which caused his skin covered in gray iron and slimming his limbs. (TF/MTM/PMC) (what does this mean 🤔) (please rewrite this if possible, it's unreadable)
16. Kittree / MePad (Antagonist's Assistant.) — Kittree is 23 years old, and uses he/they pronouns interchangeably. Appearance — Kittree wears a green oversized jacket over his torso, although sometimes tying it around his waist, wearing blue denim jeans, gloves (only sometimes and in cold situations) and black shoes. Personality — Kittree is usually a kind-hearted person, although he tends to get violent at times. When threatened or told to do something harshly, he will do it. — Cause of Transformation — Kittree wandered into an abandoned tech lab, drawn to a strange, glowing device on a pedestal, as it is rumored to be extremely powerful and could help with TF's. Against his better judgment, he touched the screen. Instantly, a surge of energy engulfed him, disintegrating his jacket into glowing particles. His arms burst and cut off his torso in a bloodied mess as Kittree laughs a bit maniacally, his voice becoming more synthesized, and his legs twisted into black lines with rounded, semi-spherical ends, and his torso flattened into a sleek metallic frame. His head vanished into his body, replaced by a glowing screen that flickered to life, the purplish-gradient screen sounds MePad voice out, although.. As the transformation completed, Kittree's memories faded into static, replaced by the calm, robotic persona of MePad. His old self erased, the lab fell silent, leaving the newly-formed device standing blankly in the glow of the pedestal. Yall this took SO long to write. Please feel free to comment! just color your text if your replying to anything or if I need to change anything !! <|3

Lime keeps the mask on even after the tf!!11

(its gonna be fun seeing how the non-mc'd interact with those less fortunate)
