LO: To improve planning for explanations

Planning well is essential for all types of writing. Doing the right thing in the right place will score plenty of points. Use the revision sheet to plan an explanation of how to write a persuasive text.

Section	Think About	My Planning Ideas
1 - General Statement	What is being explained? Give a context or background?
2 - Specifics	What specific parts will you be explaining?
3 - The actual explanation	Tell the reader how it works or what happens. Explain each specific well using learned language features. Would bullet points or subheadings help?
4 - Summary	Will you give a final killer fact? An opinion? Something else?
5 - Language features I will include	Tense, tone, 1 st or 3 rd person, VCOP, technical vocab. Force yourself to find ways to include your choices!
