Purpose

The Capilano Students' Union (CSU) is committed to making its workplace a safe and healthy environment. To achieve this, the CSU will establish and maintain an occupational health and safety program designed to prevent injuries and disease. The employer is responsible for providing workers with adequate instruction in health and safety, and for addressing unsafe situations in a timely, effective manner. All workers and contractors are required to work safely, and to know and follow the CSU's guidelines for safe work procedures.

Scope

This policy applies to all managers, workers, supervisors, directors, and volunteers.

Principles

The Capilano Students' Union shall be guided by the following principles in the development, implementation, and maintenance of a comprehensive occupational health and safety program:

1. Compliance. The CSU shall comply with the Workers Compensation Act, the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation, and applicable health and safety legislation.
2. Resources. The CSU shall ensure the provision of appropriate resources and support suited to the maintenance and delivery of an effective health and safety program.
3. Responsibility. The CSU shall set out core health and safety duties of managers, supervisors, workers, directors, and volunteers, and ensure that workers receive the information, training, instruction, and supervision necessary to ensure the health and safety of employees at the workplace in carrying out the work of the Society.
4. Accountability. Employees found to be in violation of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the CSU, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the collective agreement, if applicable.
