Register for the Annual Meeting.

On behalf of the Louisiana Chapter of the American College of Cardiology, please find the below information regarding the January 2027 LA-ACC Annual Meeting Research Competition.

Please share this information with those eligible to participate, including students, residents, or fellows in a Louisiana medical school or training program.

In January 2027, accepted posters will be displayed on Friday, January 22, 2027, from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. at the Annual Meeting, which will be held in New Orleans at the New Orleans Marriott Warehouse Arts District located at 859 Convention Center Blvd.

The authors of the three highest-scoring abstracts will present their work orally on the afternoon of Friday, January 22, also in New Orleans at the Annual Meeting. Cash prizes will be awarded for the winners, which will be announced at the closing session of the Annual Meeting on Saturday, January 23.

When submitting an abstract, please ensure that it fits within the guidelines, as follows:

- Must be your original research and/or case presentation
- A maximum of TWO abstracts may be submitted per person
- Presenter must be the first author
- Limit: 2,000 characters for abstract body (spaces, title, and authors not included)
- One (only one!) figure may be submitted with each abstract
- Abstract submission constitutes a commitment by the submitting author to be present for poster discussion on Friday, January 22 if accepted, and on Friday, January 22 for oral presentation (15 minutes) if selected as a Finalist
- Please structure clinical research abstracts using the following headings: Background, Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusion
- Please structure case reports using the following headings: Introduction, Case Presentation, Discussion, Conclusion

Recent data and/or information that has been presented previously at a local or national meeting may also be submitted to LA-ACC, but work that has been published previously in a peer-reviewed journal is ineligible.

Please refer to the important dates below. All submissions must be submitted no later than Monday, December 21, for judging. Oral presentations will take place on Friday, January 22, during the LA-ACC Scientific Meeting. The remaining accepted abstracts' posters will be displayed throughout the LA-ACC meeting, with the authors present for discussion on the evening of Monday, December 21.
