COVER SHEET

CSAI Title

(Congregational Study Action Issue for 2025)

Submitted by: Name, email, phone number

General Assembly Contact(s): Name, email, phone number

This is who the proposers expect to be able to be at General Assembly (in Baltimore or electronically) to present the CSAI in General Session.

This CSAI is sponsored by:

Congregation Name: Name of congregation, City, State

Contact person: Name, email, phone number

This may be repeated if there is more than one congregation.

INITIAL PROPOSAL

CSAI Title

Issue

Text naming your issue, and why it's important to be studied in our CSAI format. (<50 words)

Need

Text explaining how your CSAI topic meets the requirements for a CSAI. (<50 words)

FINAL DOCUMENT

Grounding in Unitarian Universalism

Name how the issue connects to our UU Values, UU Principles, theology, and/or history. (<50 words)

Topics for Congregational Study

- List smaller subtopics within the overall topic for congregations to study (<10 topics)

Possible Congregational/Regional Actions

- List actions that congregations and other UU bodies (such as regions or state advocacy networks) can take, such as partnering with existing organizations on the issue. (<10 actions)

Related Prior Social Witness Statements

- None of these should exactly mirror your issue, but there may be prior social witness statements (Actions of Immediate Witness, Statements of Conscience, previous CSAIs) that are related. If so, list them here. See https://www.uua.org/action/statements/search.
- Related UUA, Regional or State Action network initiatives, along with previous actions and statements on related issues, with dates (if applicable)

UU and/or Other Organizations Addressing This Issue:

- Please note if there are already connections built between these organizations and UU leaders or congregations

Resource List

List what resources can congregations use for further study. These lists can be collapsed or broken out into groups. At the end you can link to other longer lists. This is meant to be a start, not an exhaustive list.

Online Resources:

-

Bibliography:

- Books, other print resources

Films, Videos and online media:

Other Endorsing Organizations & Individuals

- This isn't necessary, nor does it qualify a CSAI, but if you have additional supporting organizations and individuals, feel free to list them!