Border Crossings of 🇱🇦🇻🇳🇰🇭 Regarding Visa on Arrival and e-Visa Eligibility

The following is correct as of Wednesday 11th of February 2026. For any corrections, please leave a comment below.

For any questions, message inside the Cycling South East Asia Mainland WhatsApp group

🇱🇦 Laos

This is the official list of all international Lao border crossings, incl. the information whether you can get a visa on arrival or enter with an e-visa at the respective border crossing:
https://immigration.gov.la/en/checkpoints/category/category/?limit=40&offset=0&category=international-border-checkpoint

If neither visa on arrival nor e-visa is allowed, you need to get a paper visa at a Lao embassy/consulate beforhands, e.g. in Kunming, Hanoi, Da Nang, Ho Chi Minh City or Bangkok. It is an easy process and takes 24h max. Read the reviews of the embassy/consulate on Google Maps before going there as they can be pretty helpful. With the paper visa you can enter at _all_ international border crossings.

🇻🇳 Vietnam

The following map lists all Vietnamese border crossings that are eligible to enter and leave with a Vietnamese e-visa:
https://goo.gl/maps/qrhtxS4gNhZXQhHn6

Note that, if you have an e-visa, you can only enter _and leave (!)_ at these crossings on that map. At all other international crossings you can only enter and leave visa-free.

🇰🇭 Cambodia

This is the official list of all international Cambodian border crossings, incl. the information whether you can enter with an e-visa at the respective border crossing:
https://www.evisa.gov.kh/information/port_entry/3

Note that you also with an e-visa you can _leave_ at any international border crossing.