

Highschool DXD Harem Protagonist Jumpchain V1.02

Within the world of High School DxD the many supernatural beings spoken of in myth and religions are all real and remain in hiding from the modern world.

Long ago the Three Factions became intertwined as the Judeo-Christian religion when the Biblical God cast out Angels that opposed his teachings, creating the Fallen Angel and casting them into the Underworld alongside the Devils.

From this forced relocation the Three Factions of Angels, Devils, and Fallen Angels warred against one another under the leaderships of the Biblical God, the Four Great Satans, and the Fallen Angel Azazel.

This conflict later became known as the Great War which continued on for thousands of years until the war was interrupted by the battle of the Two Heavenly Dragons causing them to attack all sides. This resulted in the deaths of untold on all sides causing the three groups to form a truce. After the two souls were sealed into Sacred Gears the battle combined with the continuation of hostilities resulted in the death of the Biblical God and the Four Great Satans. Following the deaths, the Great War finally ended, but left the Three Factions in a state where none of the sides wanted to continue battling resulting in an unspoken truce as though there are occasional conflicts between members who crossed paths for centuries no new war began.

In the modern age important events take place in Japan as Issei Hyoudou, a perverted high school student is reincarnated as a Devil by Rias Gremory after being killed on his first date. In the normal chain of events Issei Hyoudou is the protagonist who seeks to create a harem thanks to the great power he gains from his Sacred Gear containing the Red Heavenly Dragon.
