

your wish is my command, i'm betting on this hand
i won't be going easy yet
love, or hate? love, or hate?
which of those will dominate?

it's boring to play these things safe
all or nothing is the stakes
love, or hate? love, or hate?
just relax, enjoy your fate

why stop when you could go to the top?
go all in a beautiful story of thrills and chaos will live on, live on, live on, live on why not bet all you can use? what's the problem if you lose?

since, after all
if tomorrow's been gambled away, isn't your future always here to stay?
when i'm free to dream again, when the world is not so knowledge-bent i implore you; tell me when the game will end?
I love you, that's my one and only policy
