Ice cream, chocolate, cold

Chocolate ice cream,
vanilla ice cream, I eat ice
cream cone.

I like ice cream. I eat ice cream for dessert. My favorite ice cream is chocolate. It is delicious.

My family always eat ice cream in the summer, but especially when it is hot out. We ride our bikes to the ice cream store to buy it. I usually order a large cone, although sometimes I only get a chocolate shake.

Ice cream is a special treat. It reminds me of the beautiful, hot summer days. However, any day is a good day for ice cream. Even though it brings me many memories of sitting outside by the pool, I also love ice cream in the winter watching movies. Ice cream is a rich, delicious luxury that makes any day better.

No one can live without ice cream. The smooth, cold, delicious taste of sweet, tantalizing ice cream causes us to come back for more. While times have changed and families do not churn their own ice cream, anyone can easily enjoy a wide variety of flavors and types to fulfill their craving for a sugary, mouth-watering treat. First, you only need to drive to a store. Second, and the hardest part, to decide which kind to purchase. Lastly, indulge in whatever location you choose, with whomever you choose, or eat the whole half gallon yourself.
