

Module designation	The closed assessment is the final stage of student research and is one of the assessment components of the entire dissertation component. The assessment of the final results of the dissertation includes the components of proposal test scores, seminars on the progress of research results of article publications and closed examinations. Students can be declared passed if they meet the competency standards that have been set. The final score of this dissertation will determine the student's GPA and student graduation predicate.
Semester(s) in which the module is taught	Odd/Even
Person responsible for the module	Promoter Team Testing Team
Language	Indonesian
Relation to curriculum	Mandatory
Teaching methods	SCL: Team-based Project
Workload (incl. contact hours, self-study hours)	CLO1	Dissertation exam	3 jam
Credit points	Assessment Techniques	Percentage of Assessment	Criteria/ Indicators
			CLO
	Participatory Activities		Presentation contributions Presentation rubric
	Project Results/ Case Study Results/ PBL Results		Problem analysis PBL assessment rubric
Required and recommended prerequisites for joining the module	Dissertation assessment and feasibility
Module objectives/intended learning outcomes	ELO5	Able to manage geographical research (environmental geography, regional development, geographic information science) that is multi-, inter-, and transdisciplinary and able to communicate it to stakeholders
	CLO1	Able to convey the results of dissertation research and maintain it in front of a team of examiners
Content	CLO1	Dissertation manuscript Test evaluation form
Examination forms	Dissertation Assessment

Study and Examination Requirements
Reading list	-