

NAMLE 2022: Podcasting in the High School English Curriculum

Presenter bio: Jodi Hwang teaches tenth grade World Literature and Yearbook Publication and Design at Los Altos High School. As a teacher, she finds ways to innovate with media literacy in the classroom through KQED's Media Academy courses and as a PBS certified media literacy educator. Prior to her teaching career, she was the editor in chief of Urban Family, an expat family magazine in Shanghai, China, as well as a web show producer and reference coordinator at Fox News Channel in New York City. Jodi holds an M.A. in Media Ecology from New York University and B.A in Communication from DePauw University where she was also a Media Fellow.

Contact info: jodi.hwang@gmail.com

NAMLE presentation slides

Example Lesson Plans/Assignment Sheets:

- End-of-Year Reflection Podcast Unit Plan
- 9/11 Stories Interview Podcast Assignment
- Personal Narrative Identity Podcast Assignment
- Podcast lesson slides

Example of Rubric Assessment and Feedback:

- Peer feedback examples
- Rubric with assessment and feedback and reflection

Student Podcast Examples (used with permission of students/parents):

- End-of-Year Reflection Podcast 1 and Podcast 2
- 9/11 Interview Podcast (examples in Russian and in English)
- Personal Narrative Identity Podcast (student 1, student 2 and student 2)

Podcasting Resources:

- KQED Teach Audio Storytelling Course -I highly recommend it!
- KQED Media Challenge - free Soundtrap license if you sign up (Email Almetria Vaba - avaba@kqed.org for access).
- PBS Media Literacy Certification by KQED
- Soundtrap for Education
- New York Times Learning Network Student Podcast Contest

