

COE 2nd GRADE NEWSLETTER

Week of September 2-5 , 2025

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS AND REMINDERS

Back to School Bash

Next Friday, join us for the PTA Back to School Bash! Grade levels will have some fun activities set up in the cafeteria and outside. It will be a celebration of coming back to school and an opportunity to sign up for the PTA if you haven't already! It will be from 5-6.

Library

Classes enjoyed the library this week! Please help us by encouraging students to be responsible when they bring a library book home, and to return it on their scheduled library day.

Upcoming Dates

September 1- No School

September 5-Back to School Bash

NEXT WEEK'S LEARNING

IB Unit: Who We Are

Central Idea: Identity influences connections in communities.

Line of inquiry: Ways to create relationship (connection)

SEL:

We will begin our second step curriculum next week! These lessons focus on social emotional skills. Our first lesson's objective will be that students can identify things they've done to get better at a skill.

READING AND WRITING:

Next week, we will be working on the reading skills of making predictions and sequencing a text during a retell. Our mentor text will be Chester Nez and the Navajo Code Talkers. It is a narrative nonfiction book.

MATH:

Next week, we will begin our next unit: Addition and subtraction of length units. Students will understand concepts about a ruler. They will also measure and estimate length using different measurement tools.

SOCIAL STUDIES:

Next week we will focus on understanding what it means to be a good citizen. A good citizen will be respectful and cooperative with others in their community. They will also act with integrity and help each other make their community great!
