

HeyDaye is Here

Ever wish it was easier to make connections IRL with people who love the same things you do?

Ever seen an event happening in Sydney and wanted to go but couldn't find any friends who were keen, or free?

At HeyDaye, we believe in meeting people where they're at.

Instead of swiping on apps hoping to meet someone with similar interests, you do you and go where you want to go and find your people when you get there.

Instead of missing out on stuff you want to do because you don't know who to go with, go anyway knowing the right people are already there.

Enjoy the show together, have a great night, and maybe even leave with a new friend, or more.

That's what HeyDaye is all about. Real life connections at events you already want to go to, while doing things you both love.

It's about bringing people together at events for mates, dates and magic.
