INTRODUCTION AND DISCLAIMER

Hello everyone, this is surtlehell_, or in short, Surtle. In this document I will be going in depth on the relationship I had with ChromaTSU, formerly known as Kasasphere, along with addressing his community posts on YouTube and his burner Twitter account. For the sake of simplicity, I'll be addressing him as Kasa or Kasasphere. I have made this document to clarify recent accusations and provide my perspective on the situation between me and Kasa's relationship. My goal isn't to attack or blame Kasasphere but to offer a factual and balanced view of events, supported by evidence and context. I hope this explanation sheds light on the truth and allows everyone to understand better what has occurred. I'll also provide screenshots and screen recordings of our private conversations for further authenticity, as Kasa has blurred his username in the screenshots he has shown.

Please check the tabs on the left side of the document (if you are viewing this on a desktop) for quick jumps. You can also collapse some tabs and sections (specifically proof screenshots, as they are long) if you click on the arrow next to their names in the text if things get too crowded.

I am in no way a victim in this situation, both Kasasphere and I have done terrible things that aren't justified in any way. I am here to discuss my side of the story, clear up some misinformation, and add some context regarding this relationship issue that should've been dealt with privately. I do not expect to garner any sympathy or hope to convince others to support me instead. I am also not blaming Kasa for how he acts, this is not an attack on him or his character. I cannot emphasize this enough, I am here to address the situation respectfully and do not wish anyone involved to be harmed, especially Kasasphere. DO NOT harass him or anyone affiliated with him, that goes against the intention of this document. If you are familiar with him, please support and give pieces of advice to him, let this be a lesson on how to handle adversaries between partners/friends next time. I only wish for a peaceful resolution to a situation that shouldn't have happened in the first place. This document is to provide clarity on what happened on my side, as well as to stand up for myself.

Before I go into this document, I apologize to Kasasphere publicly for all the misdeeds I have done throughout the time we've known each other. I want to recognize my past actions throughout the situation. I acknowledge that I have talked terribly behind you, overstepped your boundaries multiple times, and have not been the most supportive of you when you've needed it. I have seen how my actions have hurt you, and for that, I am sorry. I will take this as a lesson to communicate better as well as handle conflicts with more care in the future.

If you are heavily sensitive to topics such as: suicide/suicide ideation, mentions of self-harm, abuse, blackmail, and sexual content, I highly suggest you to proceed with caution.

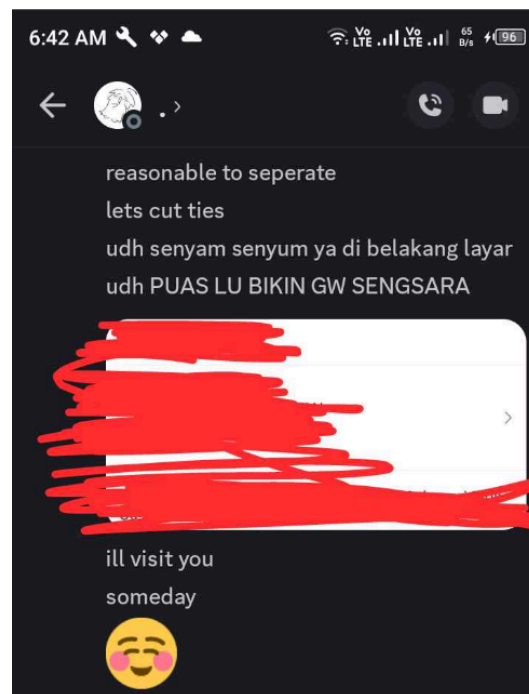

Background

Kasa and I grew close on his server called “Eur” back in 2021, because of our similar personalities, interests, and weird sense of humor, that something clicked between us and we dated. I confessed my interest to him on 9 February 2023, and so we started dating. Both Kasa and I were supportive of each other throughout our relationship, however, Kasa did more to the relationship such as giving me physical gifts and money. This was all done willingly by him and I was grateful for all of them. It was during that time that we got rather a bit too intimate, including engaging in ERPs (erotic roleplay), sending intimate pictures to each other, and sharing our kinks; this will be relevant later.

Around June of 2024, from what I saw and heard, Kasa was harassed by a group of people on another server (Chukasa, a discord bot relating to Project Sekai) and as a result, he ended up feeling depressed and needed my company. He also talked to me in his alternative account because he felt threatened by this group of people. During June and July, I was busy with my things such as preparing for college exams and drawing for Artfight and I admit, I didn’t pay attention to Kasa much back then. It wasn’t a good thing to do and I should have done better as a partner. However, I urged him to pursue other activities while I go about my duties and wanted him to be independent. We then continued to argue about little things until I had enough.

Because of our argument, I vented to C about the situation. I was blind-sided and only ranted about how I felt burdened with him being clingy, I didn’t tell her that I had done the same thing to Kasa, i.e being clingy and needing attention from him. C wanted me to break up with him. Because of the recent arguments I had then, I broke up with Kasa on 19/20 July 2024. Kasa didn’t take this lightly and tried his best to stay with me but I stuck with wanting to break up. As a last resort, Kasa demanded that I return his gifts or pay up to 1 million rupiah, which is a lot of money to me. Kasa also told me that the amount would be increased if I took too long. Kasa also showed my address and threatened to visit me. Around the time I promised to pay, he demanded that I act the same way I did before the break-up.

<https://youtu.be/HfA7qREpAx4> A link to a YouTube video of our full conversation, combined with Kasasphere's alt profile and user ID.

Translation for the Indonesian sentences: “You’re already grinning behind the screen, right? You’re SATISFIED ON MAKING ME SUFFER.”

I felt extremely threatened because of this and caved into his threats, but a day after the break up I couldn’t handle the pressure anymore and ghosted him.

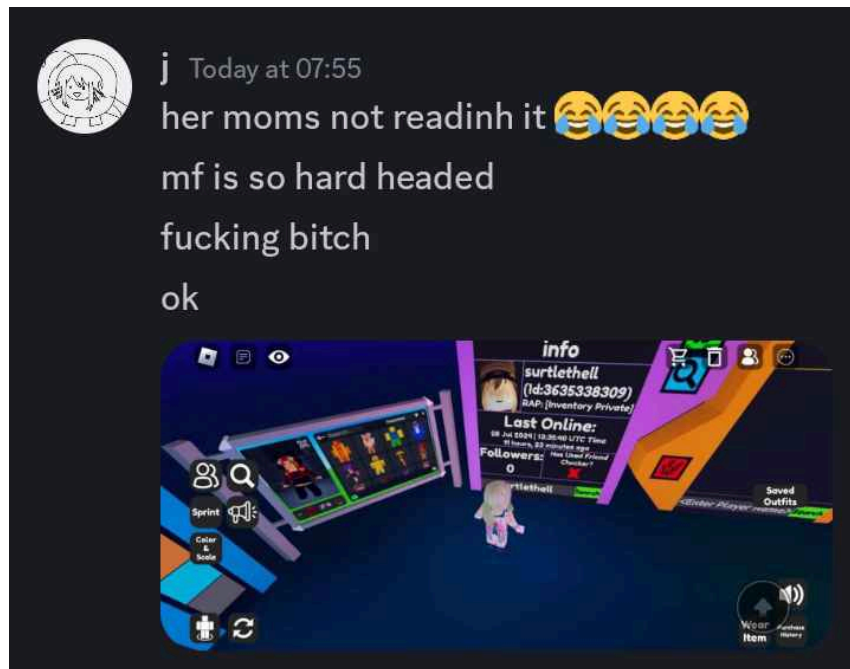

Post Break-up (Late July and Early August)

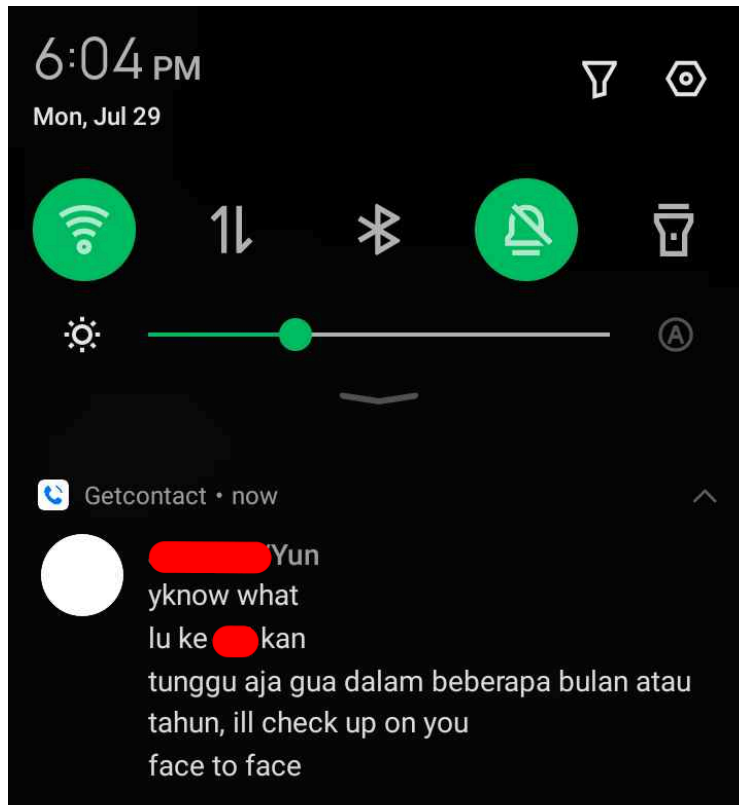

Key points made in this section

- I went to C for advice and she also brought her friends to help.
- Kasa tried to contact me in various ways, but the methods were questionable.
- Kasa then used alternative accounts to get me to talk, C’s friends helped me talk to them.
- I asked Kasa to join a group chat with me and C’s friends (in total 8).
- Somewhere along the way, C’s friend group became incredibly hostile against Kasa, C herself began to insult him behind his back. (enabling everyone to do the same)
- Kasa and I tried to “deduce” who was behind those alts, then I told him I knew they were alts and blocked him.
- 3 of C’s friends kept in contact with Kasa to talk things out, Tez, D, and R. He then shared his side of the story with them.

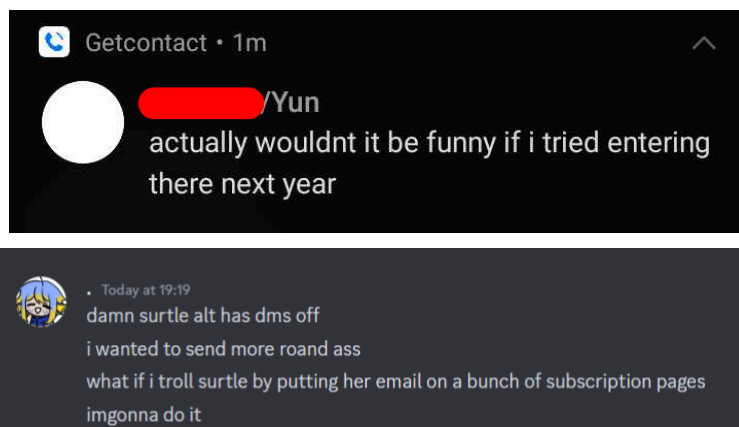

- R notices inconsistencies between Kasa's and my viewpoints, and confronts me in the group chat. I caved in and told my intentions.
- I apologized for causing all of this in the first place to everyone, and C's friends dropped me.

After I ghosted him, C helped me throughout the break-up and advised me on how to deal with Kasa as I felt stressed after being threatened. She invited former Eur members and her other friends to help me with the case. Because of our bad experiences with Kasa, most of us talked shit about him but we never harassed him directly. During the time I avoided Kasa, he stalked my accounts. He figured out accounts related to me, spammed my emails and phone number, and "joked" about visiting my university and attending there next year, along with going to one of my friend's servers to dig for information about me.

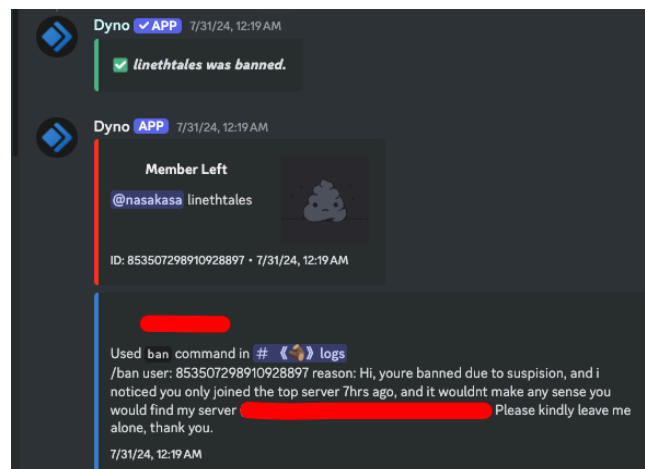

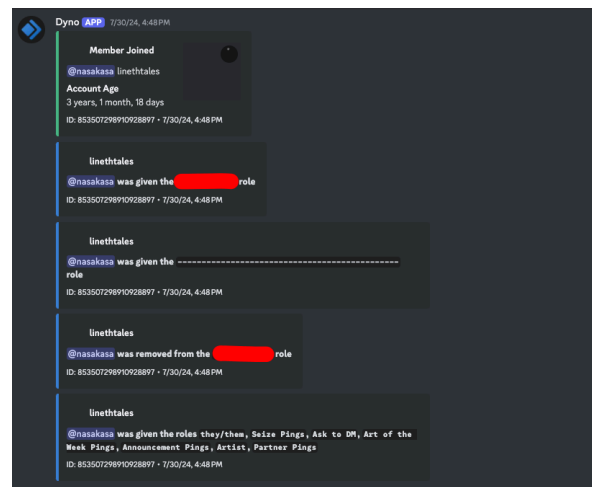

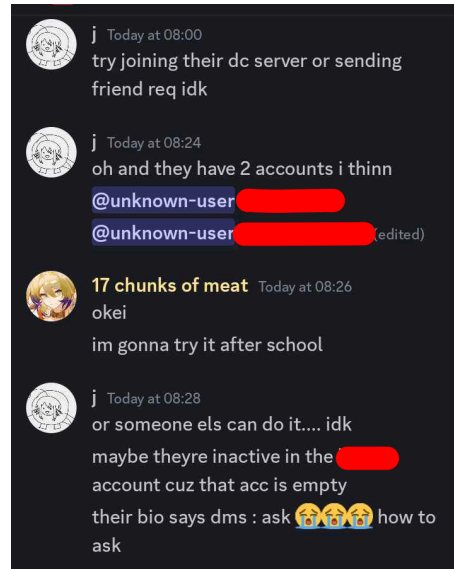

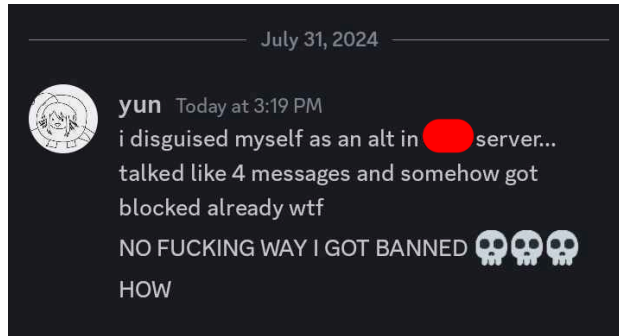

Translation from Indonesian: “yknow what? You go to [blank], right? Just wait for me in a couple of months or years, i’ll check up on you face to face”

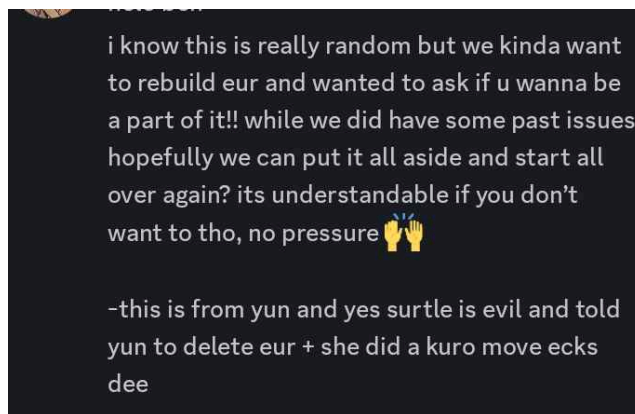

Kasa also has tried to get into my friend’s server to gather information about me, as well as try to find me there using his alt. The server wasn’t that big, making it even more suspicious how he knew where my friend was. I was not in this server of my friend’s.

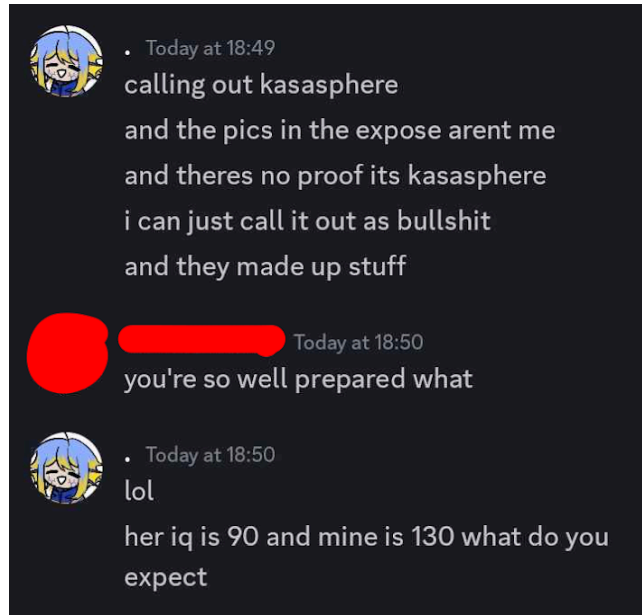

Above, the context is him joining my friend's server, but he got banned within 3 hours of joining. Not to mention, he has also joined 2 other servers (joined 7 hours prior from ban) that my friend was also in, he also got banned in those other two right after he got banned in my friend's server.

During this time, Kasa made another version of Eur (Which we'll call Eur 2.0) where he added former members of the server, including C and those that were on my side, as a place to talk shit about me. C and the others forwarded his messages to me and the things Kasa had said about me were concerning. One thing I must clarify, this act breached Kasa's privacy. I know in hindsight that this is a bad thing to do and I apologize to Kasa. This doesn't mean the things he said were justified.

Additional context: Kuro was Kasa's ex before me, who ghosted him and hasn't been seen online since. Regarding the claim that I told Kasa to delete Eur, it was because he was unsure on deleting it and needed a second opinion.

Around early August, Kasa made 4 alternate accounts to confront me “directly” by pretending to be his fans defending him, it later devolved into the same fans (which are still Kasa) forcing him to talk it out by withholding his personal information along with mine, Kasa used these 4 alternative accounts to defend himself, then later to talk to himself (the 4 accounts) in trying to talk it all out back and forth.

you're fucking disgusting

i know what you are. you're a horrible person and i hope no one ever befriends your miserable ass so they don't go through the same pain you put yun through. sure he may have done some bad things but do you think it's necessary so take it this far over your hate towards him???

he gave your poor ass shit you can never buy with your own money, he gave you fucking therapy for your lonely ass what more do you want from him??? and now you're talking shit bout him to your friends to target and harass him in a bad mental state???? heck even going into his life and crying to your mom to get him in more irl trouble when you've already hurt

he gave your poor ass shit you can never buy with your own money, he gave you fucking therapy for your lonely ass what more do you want from him??? and now you're talking shit bout him to your friends to target and harass him in a bad mental state???? heck even going into his life and crying to your mom to get him in more irl trouble when you've already hurt him enough

this is just overboard and i hope no one else has to deal with your shit anymore, i may not personally know yun but this small issue is fucking ridiculous. you owe him more than an apology than to run away and cry behind your mom over an internet issue

Neth Yesterday at 22:47

Hey, I hope you're fucking happy to know you ruined the entire fucking sphere sekai server's reputation over your small problem of not being able to be a decent partner for Kasa.

While I do not know the full story of what happened between the two of you, just the aftermath is enough to tell what happened. Not only did Kasa got harassed and targetted by your friends who witch hunted him, they also targetted the members of sphere sekai including me. I got banned in 3 servers [REDACTED] is active in just because I am a member of sphere sekai. Heck I'm not even active there, I'm just an outsider who happens to be a friend of someone there. You are literally just ruining people's chances to be accepted in newer communities just because you told your friends about this story which leads to members of sphere sekai to be declined by other communities.

The friend told me how the story is and while I do not support what Kasa had done, I believe there is no need to take things this far and to involve his family in your pathetic effort of defending yourself when you know you are in the wrong. This is only going to get worse for your reputation if the story goes live.

I hope you can resolve this issue with Kasa and apologize properly instead of using his feelings to benefit yourself then run away from this issue when he's at his lowest state. This could've been prevented with a conversation and all you're doing is taking things too far. Heck you can't even let him go either so you should just apologize immediately and repay his kindness. (edited)

you think mental illness is a fucking joke?? i hope you know you're a horrible person for leaving someone who trusted you at their lowest state when you are fully aware that they are not mentally okay. they ask you for your support and this is the shit you do instead???

do you know how fucked up it is to handle shit like this and to worsen their state even more by making their parents fucking abuse them over the shit you did to them??? have you got no shame???? they were so kind to you and helped you when you were in need and when THEY needed your help tf did you do instead???? ghost them and cut them off thinking they're the issue here???

it's embarrassing how you're an adult already and telling your relationship issues to your mom thinking shit will get better from there but no, all you're doing is making yun be in a much worse state than ever running away doesn't help you do shit at all you should fucking apologize to him and know how you're in the wrong for not even giving him another chance and getting him in trouble instead, he already did sh isn't that enough to satisfy you???? you had to go as far as ruining his family relationship and getting him beaten up at home??

and after all this you still think it's the best choice to leave him in a state like this, you're a monster and you're fucking horrible.

you really have no heart and no common sense as a person, you're disgusting as shit

Today at 15:41

i am not affiliated with Yun or their server. they have nothing to do with me nor am i doing this for them. i am simply an informant for the side who is working in the background to avenge Yun. all i will say is that the person leading this harassment is a member of water breathers server and they've shared every single rant and story from Yun's side. including the entire chatlog, threats and their stalking behavior so we all know the entire story behind it. i am not disclosing who is behind all of this.

since Yun found out about this entire thing recently, they grew suspicions of a leak from the server so for the time being we are unable to fetch more information from his side. all we know is that you've taken this way too far and it lead Yun into getting harmed irl and their feelings forced into getting shut down without receiving any external help. (edited)

Today at 15:52

Yun shared a screenshot of your personal instagram page and it didn't even take long to find out your entire background and your personal information. while i am not actively involved in this, i do want to inform you we gathered lots of personal information about you already. before you pin the blame on Yun again, no he did not disclose anything other than your instagram account. we found your full name, face, mother's name, address and school information through instagram posts. your email and your phone number through instagram & discord login attempts.

the information is planned to be shared the information is planned to be shared publicly if you ever show your face on the internet again or if there is further news from Yun if parents are involved further. i don't know what's stopping you but since the story is very vague from your side, we are all assuming you are doing this purely out of hate and "moving on" is just an excuse to escape from the debt and support he needs

i am not siding with anyone, i am simply informing you on this and i think you are both in the wrong. i highly suggest you just resolve this through talking directly to him and give him what he wants instead of ignoring this issue further, because it really doesn't look good for you.

The account with the grey default profile picture had its name censored because it had my IP address.

I ignored the accounts at first. Suddenly, one of them said my full name which I hadn't shared with anyone else except Kasa. It's highly alarming that someone would know that information, so I asked C's group to come up with a response.

vikareka Today at 06:12

hey [REDACTED] child of [REDACTED]

we are still waiting for your talk with yun you can't use your parents as an excuse to not talk to him, you're literally in a forbidden gay relationship with him.
you know your parents are religious and doesn't allow you to be in a gay relationship yet you are anyway so what's stopping you from talking to him again

all yun wants is to reconcile with you, you're fucking lucky he's forgiving and would listen to your bullshit you're a fucking selfish prick if all you're thinking about is yourself and not forgiving yun after all the shit he did for you how would you feel if you were in yun's shoes?? have you ever considered how yun feels after doing everything to make you happy and in return this is the shit you do to him

vikareka Today at 06:19

heck he's even as forgiving to your transphobic ass and how you keep making incestuous jokes do you even remember how you started the relationship?? literally inviting him to esex because your lonely horny ass cant get a lover
how is it so hard to talk to him again when you've done that for more than 4 years already are you that selfish to the point you'd cut off someone over one mistake when they've done everything to make you happy???
you're miserable and selfish, even god can't forgive you

surtle Today at 06:34

i believe you're speaking on behalf of surtle, as of this current moment, im under too much pressure to respond to anything coherently due to having quite a lot of people messaging me about the same time, i would like to redirect you to someone else who will speak on my behalf. i believe it's fair considering you're speaking on Yun's behalf.

NEW MESSAGES

vikareka Today at 06:42

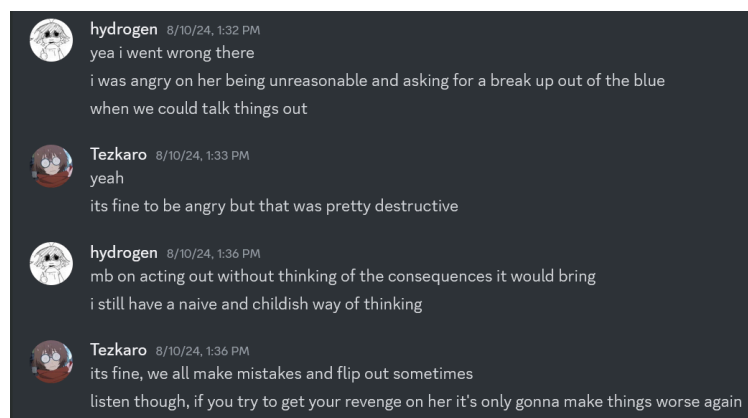

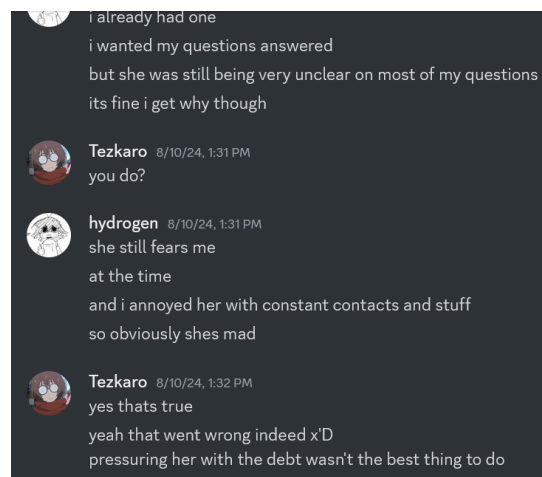

you've got to be joking me
bot ahh response

Eventually, Kasa and I talked regarding these accounts. He apologized for all of the things he did wrong and tried to explain why he did all of that. I confronted him about the alts. As we talked, one of the alts wanted to know what we were talking about and Kasa said that they would release his personal information if he left no news.

I had another plan, which was inviting Kasa to a group chat with C's friend group to talk about the situation (all inside alt accounts). This move undeniably scared Kasa. So, only us both deduced on who were behind those alts. I went along with the plan and pointed out a few of his friends who seemed suspicious. Tez mentioned that the tiredsoft account was on a server i was in (soft soft) and in the introduction channel, the message clearly states that the tiredsoft account was Kasa's alternate account. A few days later, I pointed this fact out and he did admit it was him, but he wasn't the one controlling them or the others. After a bit of back and forth, I said I wasn't going to continue anymore and blocked him.

Around this time, a friend of C's friends R and Tez, along with my own friend, talked with Kasa on DMs. Below are the exchanges between Kasa and Tez, where he explains his thoughts. Please note that Tez didn't share their conversation to blame or shun him, but to show what he went through. (read from left to right)

Tez's conversation with Kasa

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:37 PM
ya i dont plan to do more

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:38 PM
thats good, i trust you on that then

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:38 PM

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:38 PM
no more threats, doxxing or exposing of any kind alright?

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:39 PM
nah

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:39 PM
she won't do anything either

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:39 PM
too lazy to do that the pretending to be 4 people already took a lot out of me
why was i crazy enough to do tjat

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:39 PM
yeah i can imagine

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:39 PM
i still question myself

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:40 PM
what were ya feeling or thinking at that time if you remember?

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:40 PM
honestly
for the 2 accounts, pure hate out of my heart for the "main villain", just acting and being crazy

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:41 PM
main villain was neth right?

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:41 PM
yea
idk i was doing everything to make myself crazy enough before typing as n###

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:42 PM
how did you think this would go if it had gone your way?

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:42 PM
my way... uhh
i didnt have anything in mind on what was gonna happen honestly i just wanted to leave that there and expect her to block and its over but then she responded to the ip address account and my heart dropped "am i fucked"

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:44 PM
kjwshjkhejrhgt and then it kept going

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:44 PM
yes 🤔
i kept it going just because i genuinely enjoyed talking to her on those days kept my sanity intact

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:45 PM
you enjoyed conversations that were basically just threats and hate?

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:46 PM
i was im a masochist

enjoying that toxic relationship idk why ive already gone insane at that moment i shouldve been put into an asylum instead hydrogen i was

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:47 PM
-going to tell surtle the truth already thay those accounts were me after that taallk
THEN TJE GROUP HAD 8 PEOPLE AND I KNEW I WWOULD BE FUCKED IF I TOLD THE TRUHH

 @hydrogen ive already gone insane at that moment i shouldve been put into an asylum instead

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:48 PM
dont be that rough on you but maybe therapy or some anger management course could help

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:48 PM
dont be that rough on you but maybe therapy or some anger management course could help
Gotta find a less destructive way to handle situations like these xD

 @hydrogen THEN TJE GROUP HAD 8 PEOPLE AND I KNEW I WWOULD BE FUCKED IF I TOLD THE TRUHH

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:48 PM
YEAH OK WE WENT TOO FAR WITH IT TOO

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:49 PM
I WANTED SHIT TO JUST END THERE
ONE TALK THEN I TELL HER its okay those r me
thanks for the talk bye
but no
"come talk to my friends"

"ill bring you there"
fear filled me
what the hell did i get myself into

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:50 PM
a big mess

 hydrogen 8/10/24, 1:50 PM

 Tezkaro 8/10/24, 1:51 PM
i'll believe you but man 🤔
no offense but if you wanted her to block you anyways you could have really cleared it up sooner

It was also around this time that Kasa posted my private information on Toyhou.se and presumably artfight.net.

Because of the duration of the situation and the lengths of what Kasa was able to do, C's friend group were starting to become impatient and ticked off by Kasa's actions, mainly C. Because of her hate for him, C began to say extremely concerning things regarding Kasa inside the group chat, such as wishing him death, calling him an "it", wishing he was homeless, etc. None of her friends really stopped her, and I joined in briefly on the name-calling because I was angry at what he did. In hindsight, this was a terrible thing to do and I apologize and had apologized greatly to Kasasphere.

Another person who was in the group chat, R, talked to Kasa and asked for his perspective on the matter. Because I only told C about how I felt during the relationship and only shared the bad parts of Kasa, R confronted me about this and pushed me for answers inside the group chat. I eventually told them that I didn't share to anyone about what Kasa did throughout the relationship because I only wanted to look like I was the victim. So, I apologized and understandably, everyone was disappointed and jumped ship. Oh hindsight, this is extremely harmful to my friends and Kasa; and there were so many ways I could've done before the relationship to save it but due to my ego and selfishness, I chose the easy way out by gossiping and ended up hurting my relationship and friendship in general.

Proof of spamming phone number [Collapsible]:

Proof that the alternative accounts were Kasa & The alt accounts now [Collapsible]:

The “estelle” account has its profile picture censored because Kasa changed it to C’s face.

As of February 14, 2025; the “fatherless behavior” account has been deleted. It is unknown if this is because of Kasa’s choice or due to his suspension on Discord.

Post-Callout (Late August 2024-January 2025)

Key points in this section

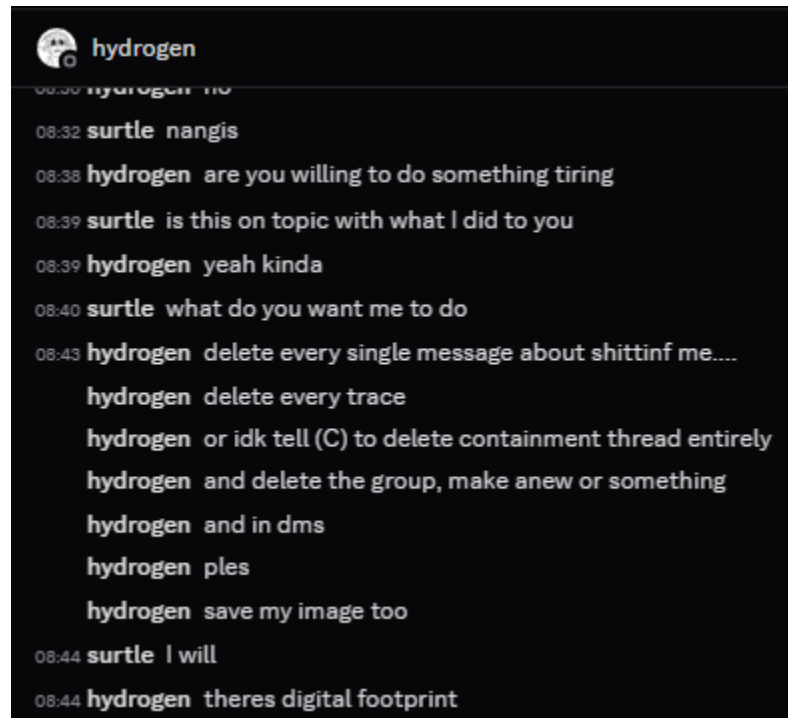

- Kasa and I kept in touch to “fix” our relationship. Despite my discomfort after the situation, I continued to talk to him anyway.
- I was extremely down and seeing Kasa talk with me made me feel conflicted since we both had done terrible things to each other.
- Throughout our time talking, there were some times where it was peaceful, but we’d go into arguments often. Because of these arguments, I would go to D and Tez for advice.
- At the end of November, Kasa and D agreed we should get C to explain the situation to her other friends. Due to her bias against Kasa, she didn’t want to talk directly to him, so I had to step in and act as a messenger between C and Kasa.
- Kasa mentioned that he wanted to go back to dating me, but I refused, and Kasa ended up becoming suicidal and attempted suicide.
- Keeping in touch AGAIN because I was genuinely scared of making him kill himself, but his actions made it harder and harder to stay.
- Kasa reached a breaking point when C took too long to share screenshots of her supposed explanation and said extremely alarming things about her. I confronted him about it the next day and he didn’t care about it.
- Eventually, I told Kasa I had been open to Tez and D about our conversations. He didn’t take it very well.
- Kasa posted a call-out against me. (will be discussed)
- D got into contact with Kasa again and added me to a group chat to make an agreement.

After I got called out, Kasa and I decided to keep in touch to “fix” our relationship. I wanted to decline, but considering what Kasa had done before this agreement, I decided to bite the bullet and do it anyway despite my discomfort. Because of this discomfort, our conversations were cold but I tried my best to make it engaging.

During this time, around August and September, I was extremely down due to C’s group and the rest of my friends who helped me at that time dropping me after I confessed. I was self-deprecating in our conversations and I felt that I didn’t deserve to talk to Kasa and didn’t understand why he chose to talk to me again after I had done terrible things to him. I admit this is a terrible thing to do, since it’s begging for pity and I apologize. There was also a gut instinct that I shouldn’t talk to him anymore because of the things he did to me.

Slowly, we tried to settle our differences and baggage aside and talk again as friends. We also made some agreements on how we should navigate our friendship and how to deal with the situation. Kasa requested that we (his old friends, C, and I) delete any evidence regarding the situation, including the group chats we used, DMs to friends, and any screenshots that were taken. He wanted us to “save his image” too. Of course, due to this incident being recent and my mental state lowered, I obliged and messaged C and a few others to delete any evidence and purge DMs.

08:44 surtle I will

08:44 hydrogen theres digital footprint

3 September 2024.

He also mentioned that we should keep our relationship/connection a secret and not tell anyone else about it. In hindsight, I understand why Kasa said I broke his boundaries for talking to others about what happens inside our conversations and I apologize, on the other hand, this can be seen as a form of isolation.

12 September 2024.

Translation:

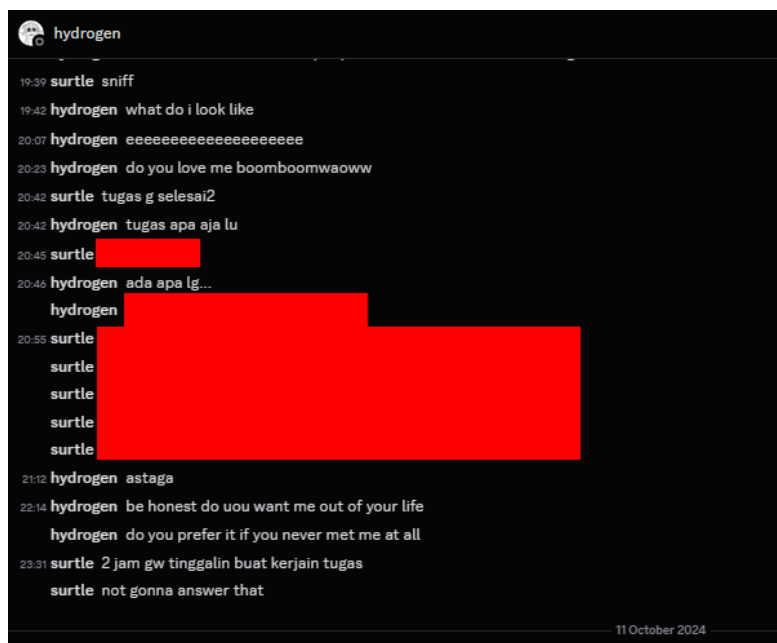

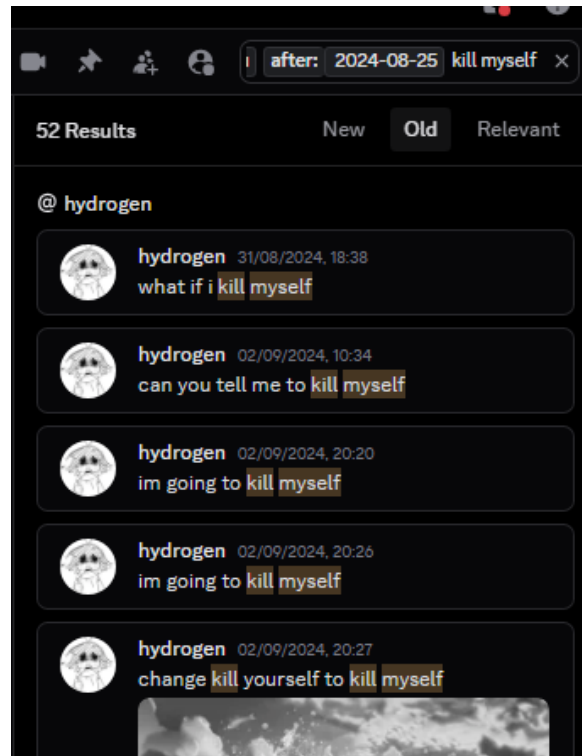

"Kasa: Also, if you get asked by anyone of what's going on between you and me, don't answer.

Me: Why is that?

Kasa: Because, for the sake of them not seeing me trying to comfort you or reconnect cuz that brings a pretty bad image to you and me. Like being seen that (I) can't move on, cuz idk, it's a bit hard to explain my thoughts."

Around September, D gathered Kasa, C, me, and a few others to sort things out in a group chat. First, we discussed what I wanted after this. I asked for support from people other than Kasa, so Tez and D were willing to do it. Second, Kasa wanted a sincere apology from C for escalating the situation in the first place, unfortunately, C didn't apologize sincerely and the discussion didn't go anywhere after that.

As time went on, our conversations started to become heated along with him wanting to self-harm and suicide ideation, whether it's because of him being upset about the entire break-up situation, when I declined his advances on wanting to date me again, or when I don't reply to his messages on time. I tried to support him and de-escalate the situation as much as I could while making sure to not be harsh on my words but whenever I felt overwhelmed/didn't know what to say next, I went to Tez and D for help. This went on until I bent over and apologized for making him sad and for causing the situation, after that he would return to "normal", sending me unrelated memes as if nothing happened before.

Context: We were having a conversation while I was in the middle of doing an assignment. I focused on the assignment instead of him and didn't reply to his messages on time.

Translation:

Me: My assignment isn't finishing at all

Kasa: What's your assignment about?

Me: (redacted for privacy)

Kasa: What else

Me: (redacted for privacy)

Kasa: Oh damn.

(I didn't reply because I went to my assignment immediately, so he replied with that)

Me: I left for 2 hours to do my work

October 11, 2024. The file I sent was a gif of a cat being blow dried with a poorly done fire edit. I meant it in a humorous way.

13 October 2024.

A snippet of Kasa wanting to date again, repeatedly doing it even after I declined many times.

I started to become more concerned for him as Kasa was also starting to become predatory towards C due to her absence and a perceived lack of accountability, so he went to find her new social media accounts, which included Bluesky, Discord, and Twitter. Kasa also bragged about finding it, which is questionable.

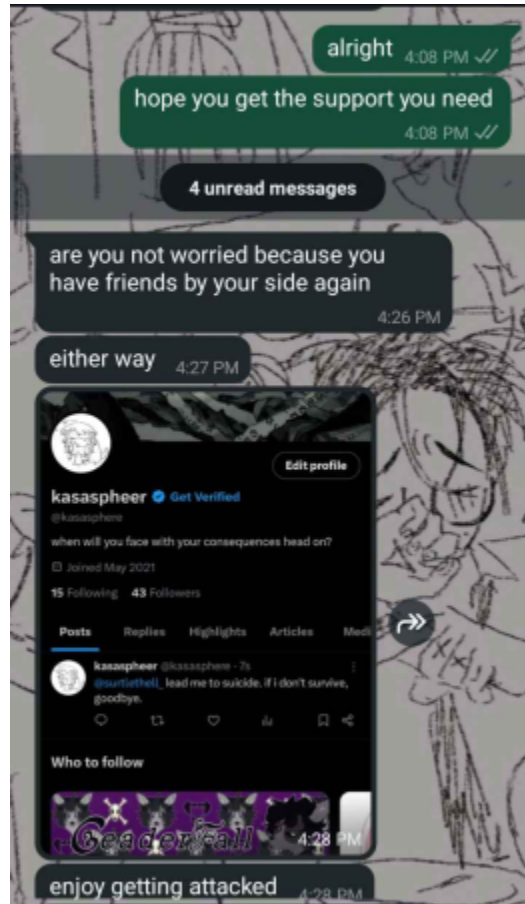

He then went to D and created a list of his requests for C to do, which D will send to C via a mutual friend. This plan ended up being changed with me having to do all of the talking with C directly, albeit extremely slowly.

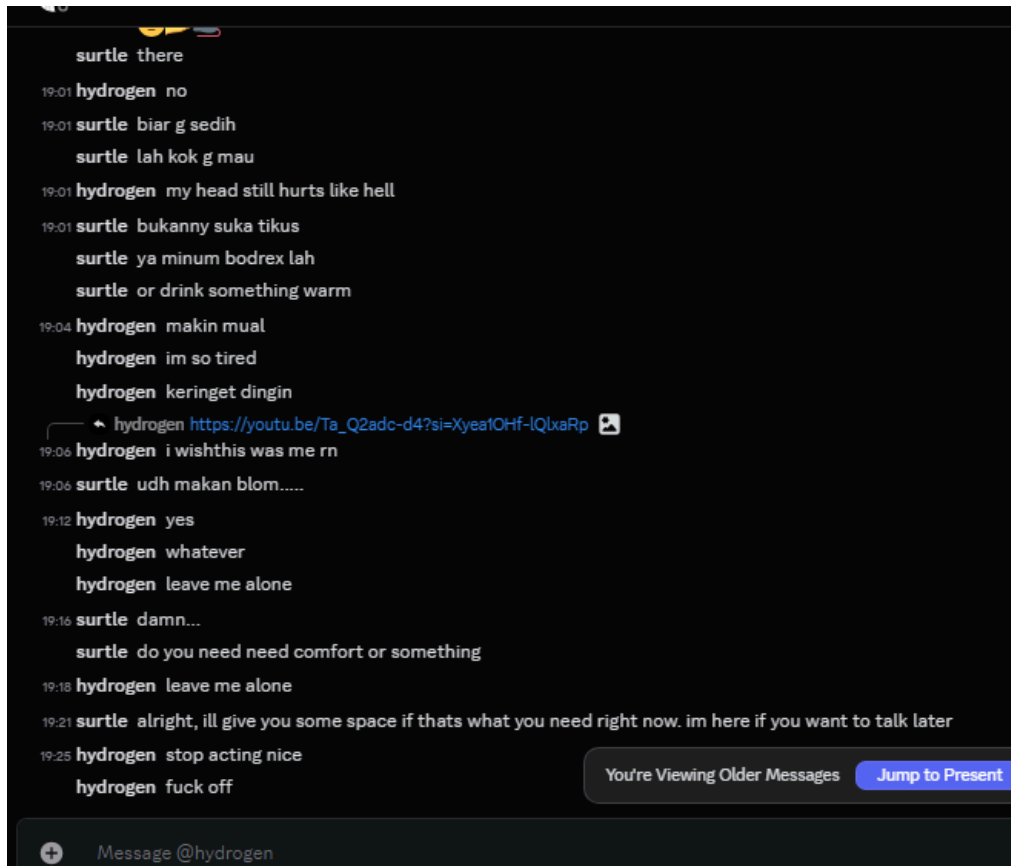

Before this was posted, Kasa once again initiated that we should get back together and date. Considering the things that happened in the previous months, I told him I didn't want to and that we should stay as friends. Kasa didn't take this kindly and became upset, how he wanted to kill himself. I was concerned and apologized multiple times but I wasn't going to change my mind on not dating him.

<https://youtu.be/CsfsmVfc6s0> A link to a Youtube video of our full conversation on Discord, along with Kasasphere's profile and ID. The names of other people mentioned in the video are censored using a Chrome extension.

This back and forth continued until 2 December, 2024. He counted down when he was going to kill himself. I tried to talk him out of it and contacted his friends to make sure he was alright, as he had blocked me on Discord. We moved our conversation to Whatsapp and I kept trying to convince him to think of other ways to deal with the pain and encouraged him to get professional help. Due to the length of this back-and-forth lasted, I ended up losing a bit of care in my words, which was wrong of me to do.

However, Kasa made a tweet claiming that I had driven him into suicide. I understand how this was overwhelming to Kasa and I could've done better. We then discussed what I should've done instead, what way I should calm him down and for me to accompany him. I accepted this term, thinking that he can get better with me and because I was extremely scared he would kill himself. The way he acted on my DMs was concerning. After this point, we would talk about random things and be friendly but with a flick of a switch, hurled insults towards me and became distant even if I tried to ask what's wrong or try to keep the conversation going.

19 January 2025

Translation: Me: "so you don't get sad, huh, why don't you want it?" /// "don't you like rats?" /// "Go drink some medicine"

Kasa: "(I'm) getting more nauseous, i'm so tired, I have cold sweat"

Me: "Have you eaten yet?"

25 January 2025

25 January 2025.

Regarding C, over the span of a month, C and I went on a very slow conversation asking if she can send any proof of her apologizing to her friend group for spreading the situation in the first place and telling them how it actually happened in the first place. Kasa is upset that C became inactive, seeing it as C not wanting to take accountability, and how even sending screenshots of the conversation she had with her friends is enough proof for Kasa to let her go. C hasn't sent any screenshots but asks if it's okay for the screenshots to be censored. Kasa said no, and I assured her that they won't get involved whatsoever. Kasa believes she's just making excuses.

On January 27, C mentioned that she didn't trust that option and said it wasn't an excuse. Unfortunately, Kasa really wants the screenshots uncensored because she's been delaying it for too long and said she's lying if she didn't send the screenshots in the first place. I tried to suggest a middle ground and use initials instead but Kasa became angry, claiming how C is stalling and making excuses. He then went on a rant saying how he can ruin her if he wanted to, stating he had her full name and school info anyway along with being able to make AI pornography of her to send to her classmates. After going on that tirade, he switches up and asks if he should kill himself.

I confronted Kasa for wanting to essentially commit a crime and even if it was out of frustration, those types of actions have consequences if he actually goes through with his plans. I added that this wasn't meant to be an attack, but a reminder that he should reflect on his words. He deflected and said he didn't care about morals and how he was going to die/kill himself anyway. I tried to reach out to him but he still wouldn't budge. I stopped replying and he went furious.

I told Kasa that yelling wouldn't solve this and he escalated, yelling at me and accusing me of shit-talking him behind his back, for dragging Tez and D into this situation and demanding that I should deal with him privately, all while threatening to release my information out to the public. He would later state he would murder me if he could, as it would give him immense satisfaction. He then said he will leak my personal things along with him to the public so it will be "equal", and if I didn't respond in an hour, he will put up a callout again. The breaking point was when he sent a screenshot of a Google Drive folder of files that I had sent to him which included my voice, face, and body, along with sending my nude video as proof he still had it. He later deleted the video and edited the previous message to get me back.

I quickly blocked him and reported multiple messages to Discord, the death threat and the nude video, the latter made him get suspended for non-consensual adult content.

<https://youtu.be/ai0dlbKDIYo> A link to a Youtube video of our full conversation on Discord, along with Kasasphere's profile and ID. The names of other people mentioned in the video are censored using a Chrome extension.

After this happened, Kasasphere posted a series of posts on his Youtube community detailing his experiences with me. The posts are heavily biased and inaccurate due to its lack of preparation. We'll get to it after this section is over.

Because this situation didn't seem to have an end, D got into contact with Kasa (on an alternative Discord account) and put us in a group chat to sort things out. We both said our grievances to each other with D acting as a mediator just in case things became heated.

I said it didn't make any sense that you relied on me for comfort when it's clear that Kasa feels extreme distress around me; because of what he did during July-August, that made it hard to sympathize with him (for a lack of a better word). I felt intimidated by the murder threat and nudes being sent so I had to report him. I then apologized for breaking his boundaries.

Kasa said I kept on pinning the blame on him even though I broke his boundaries (of asking D and Tez for help in the relationship), how I cared too much for myself. He questioned why I didn't expect him to "crash out" when I kept on doing it, and blamed his BPD for acting the way he did. He then admitted that he wasn't going to act out on the threats, but it was because it's the only way to get me to talk to him.

So we decided to make an agreement. I ask for my personal files to be deleted. Kasa wanted his banned accounts back and for C's friends to know the truth. If it doesn't happen, I'll have to keep in touch with him and he will not delete the files until the situation is resolved. Unfortunately, his main Discord account couldn't be restored because of the severity of the rules he broke, meaning I had to stay in companionship with him until he felt cherished.

It was at that time I knew I couldn't be with Kasa anymore due to the pressure I felt, so I didn't respond further in the group chat.

Allegations (The Callouts)

On January 31, 2025. Kasasphere has made a callout post on his main YouTube channel "explaining" his side of the story. (Now deleted on 2/7/2025, including a majority of his community posts.)

if you remember the vague vent posts 6 months ago, here. i'll speak up.

//might delete

3rd screenshot, it lasted for 2 months. she ranted and lied about me to make my friends shun me and trashtalk about me together to build a "friendship" of hating me. every single text i sent during this period, she shared it with her friends again and again complaining about how they're all tired of dealing with me. how do you get tired of shittalking?? also my safety was threatened at this time as well because she kept threatening that she will call the police on me if i don't stop confronting her.

4th screenshot, she was outed and apologized this way. but as i said in the 5th picture. she still reacted coldly and refused to take any accountability for her actions that i ask her to do. she took all of my friends away. and refused to continue further to resolve this issue herself.

she complained about how our conversations past the apology was just loops of fighting and blaming each other, how is it not supposed to be that way when she doesn't listen to what i ask her to resolve this herself?? i asked her if i am feeling sad, do something about it instead of directing me to someone else like "yeah can't help with that, call a professional. call a hotline" "you have friends to talk to" it's as simple as that??? and she continued to do the exact same thing i ask her to not do. and still continued to avoid her responsibilities and talk to her friends about my situation instead. does that help when those friends have no contact with me cuz she cut them off me??

keep in mind, our relationship started 2 years ago when i was 16 and it was going well, more like all she does is rant to me about how she wants to give up in life and i spent thousands to send her gifts to cheer her up, sent her facilities to help with her art, and wasted most of my time in 12th grade to comfort a jobless 18 year old instead of studying. we didn't have any major fights before she got ahead of herself and started dismissing, abandoning me for the hobbies i pushed her to do. i don't know who's at fault for this but this has been affecting me for a while.

up to her if she wants to take responsibility further after this point or not but chances are zero due to how much negative impact she had already put on me and my friends. she refused to return the items i had given her so i can just move on from that, and instead blocked me when i asked.

is it even worth it hiding the truth anymore or moving on like nothing happened when she damaged me financially and emotionally?

edit : yeah i noticed she's trying to move accounts to avoid this controversy further because she doesn't want to be defamed, be aware her emails are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] if she truly does not apologize and decide to run away entirely from this identity, then i have no choice but to spill other details for those in indonesia to avoid this predator

i cant recall

okay

my ex partner ;

- shunned me by lying to all my old friends about how i am sexually abusing, extorting, cold texting and a stalker
- saying how i only use her for sex
- how i use her accounts to stalk her dms
- being "unhappy" that i am a trans ftm because she hates that i "lied" about being a guy
- talked shit about me behind my back
- snatching her phone from her when we met up
- how i got angry that my ex didn't want to "have sex"

i am not sure what dates these were said but it was around early july to early august, and during that time

and all of that is a lie she made up to make me look worse when she did exactly all of that to me, after i talked to two people who were part of the group who heard about the lies she said about me, about the whole situation going on eventually she was called out around mid august.

I would like to apologize to everyone involved in this situation. What I did was a huge mistake, that I can never take back. I was blinded by anger and annoyance towards Yun for wanting attention from me when I was busy, that I forgot that I had done the same to him. I didn't admit to that part, as I didn't feel it was necessary at the time and I wanted to be seen in a better light, that I was the victim in the situation. This went on longer than it should've and it involved more people than necessary. It should've stayed between Yun and I, but because I didn't want to face problems directly, I brought multiple people into a very personal problem that didn't require any third parties. My actions were immature and inconsiderate, and I can only imagine how confusing and hurtful it felt to everyone when I admitted what I've done.

From now on, I'll try to be more open and honest with my problems, consider my actions and what it could do to others,

As you can see, the post and images provided throw a lot of serious accusations against me, however, Kasa doesn't seem to provide actual proof for the allegations. This may be because of a certain reason that I will discuss later in the document. This post alone doesn't describe the full extent of how the situation spiraled, only how the situation feels to Kasasphere. There are many things Kasa has said and done to me these past 6 months that he doesn't mention. In his post, he avoids sharing these events, which makes it highly suspicious and manipulative. I was reacting to months of mistreatment. I'll go over his points one by one.

His points in order, which will be covered one by one:

- "She thought I was dry texting her and when I started venting after a traumatic incident (referring to how she responded while I was depressed in the 2nd screenshot)
- "Shunned me by lying to all my old friends about how I am sexually abusing—"
- "Extorting—"
- "Cold-texting—"
- "and a stalker."
- "Saying how i only use her for sex, How i used her accounts to stalk her dms"
- "Being unhappy that i am a trans ftm because she hates that "i" lied about being a guy"
- "Talked shit behind my back"

- “Snatching her phone from her when we met up”
- “How i got angry that my ex didn’t want to have sex”
- “She complained how our conversations past the apology was just loops of fighting and blaming each other”
- “Our relationship started 2 years ago when i was 16—”

The screenshot he was talking about:

I would like to clarify that Kasa has blurred out his name here in these screenshots for reasons I’m unaware of. They are also in incorrect order if you look at the time stamps. The first half (left) starts at 8:54 pm, then the second screenshot (right) starts at 8:23 pm. The right started first, then the left was after. I have provided screenshots below to provide clarity on this conversation. The conversation by these screenshots, starts at 20:19 pm, aka 8:19 pm. It then leads to the last screenshot, 20:59 pm, aka 8:59 pm. I am aware I could’ve communicated better and not as cold and harshly. I apologize to Kasa for that.

Allegations, Continued

3rd screenshot, it lasted for 2 months. she ranted and lied about me to make my friends shun me and trashtalk about me together to build a "friendship" of hating me. every single text i sent during this period, she shared it with her friends again and again complaining about how they're all tired of dealing with me. how do you get tired of shittalking?? also my safety was threatened at this time as well because she kept threatening that she will call the police on me if i don't stop confronting her.

The screenshot he was talking about

my ex partner ;
- shunned me by lying to all my old friends about how i am sexually abusing, extorting, cold texting and a stalker
- saying how i only use her for sex
- how i use her accounts to stalk her dms
- being "unhappy" that i am a trans ftm because she hates that i "lied" about being a guy
- talked shit about me behind my back
- snatching her phone from her when we met up
- how i got angry that my ex didn't want to "have sex"

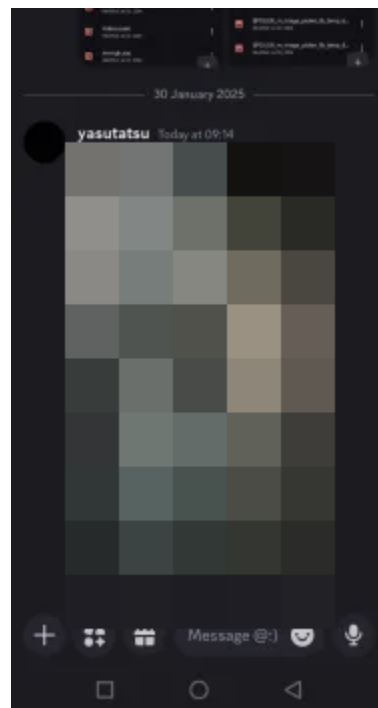

i am not sure what dates these were said but it was around early july to early august, and during that time

and all of that is a lie she made up to make me look worse when she did exactly all of that to me, after i talked to two people who were part of the group who heard about the lies she said about me, about the whole situation going on eventually she was called out around mid august.

There is a lot that's being thrown at the third screenshot, so let's break them down one by one.

- "Shunned me by lying to all my old friends about how I am sexually abusing—"

Except Kasa did that. Kasa has held on to private and intimate information (audio, photos, including a video) without my consent to utilize as potential blackmail. Which in the future, he eventually threatens to release. When we broke up, I also purged all of my explicit media but forgot to delete one video. Kasa also scrolled through our old messages then found and saved the video I forgot to delete. He bragged about it in Eur 2.0. (I unfortunately do not have any screenshots as the server has been deleted.)

Additional context: “Wb” is an acronym for “Water Breathers”, a server Kasa made for his friends and mutuals to hang out in. The censored image is the intimate video he saved. After a few hours, the message containing the video was gone and edited “>_>” to “I’m sorry please I’ll talk calmly”. I reported his account for non consensual adult content and got him suspended from Discord. This happened on 30 January, 2025 as seen in the screenshot.

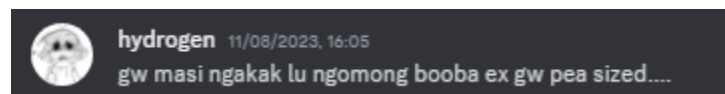

While it is important to know that people can change for the better and this might just be an act of impulse, I have to mention that Kasa had the same mentality of holding onto people’s private images as blackmail, since 2020. There was also another instance of Kasa leaking his ex's nudes in Eur 1.0, unfortunately, that server has been deleted and no screenshots are available.

Translation for the Indonesian sentences: “After they became inactive I was kinda sad, but I chatted with soft (a server we were both in at the time) so at least I had some friends, but I was like 13-14 at the time. So in my priv insta I was talking about how I can blackmail my ex cuz I have his nudes and my moot got angry. I kept making depressing insta story because i was left alone and then I quit lol”

Additional context: Kasa was explaining how he started using Discord.

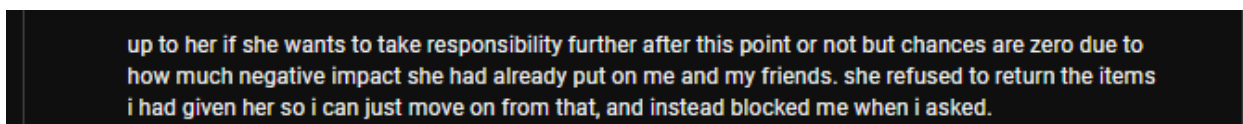

Translation: “I’m still laughing that you called my ex’s boob pea sized.”

Additional context: Said this a few hours after he leaked his ex’s nudes on Eur 1.0. I understand I had enabled his actions here and I apologize, especially to his ex, Kuro. (If they’re still online)

- “Extorting–”

After I told him we were breaking up, Kasa told me to give everything he gave to me back to him, told me to pay up to 1.1 million rupiah (around 67 USD), and threatened to add more if I took too long to pay. Scroll down further for screenshots below.

His requests to return his gifts and give him money were put off after a week or two along with him requesting 1.1 million rupiah. Both requests were canceled because his mom told him to let things go during the post-breakup.

Kasa threatened to increase the price, as well as make a monthly interest if I don't pay. 10k rupiah is 0.60 USD, 1.1 Million is around 67 USD. Screenshots here might look different compared to the screen recording because in the process of trying to get the story to my mother, he deleted some of the messages for some reason.

- “Cold-texting–”

I have told C's friend group that Kasa's conversations with me in the last few weeks before we broke up started to become sparse and didn't hold much substance for conversations.

- “And a stalker.”

I believe the proof I sent on the Post Break-up section is enough evidence that he is one.

- “Being unhappy that i am a trans ftm because she hates that “i” lied about being a guy”.

First and foremost, I apologize for making Kasa feel invalidated for his gender identity, I could've addressed my concerns better. The reason why I said that was because he called himself a lesbian and a "wife" in our DMs, so I felt conflicted and confused of my sexual attraction because of it. After that, he also mentioned he hates other transmascs or as he said it “people who claim as trans but is still a sensitive ass woman”, which made me feel even more conflicted.

Context: This was when I admitted that I didn't like seeing him as trans. I asked him if this was why he hated tomboys too and was met with this answer. Mafy is an ex-friend of Kasa who met in Eur 1.0. Laphi is an ex-friend of Kasa who met in Sphere Sekai (his youtube server). Shou is his current friend. All three of them are transmasc.

4th screenshot, she was outed and apologized this way. but as i said in the 5th picture. she still reacted coldly and refused to take any accountability for her actions that i ask her to do. she took all of my friends away. and refused to continue further to resolve this issue herself.

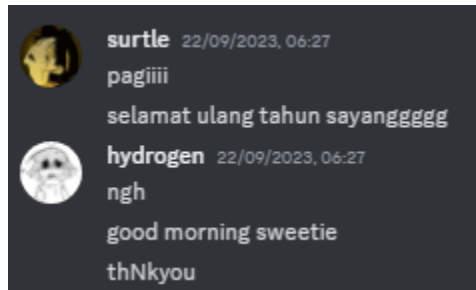

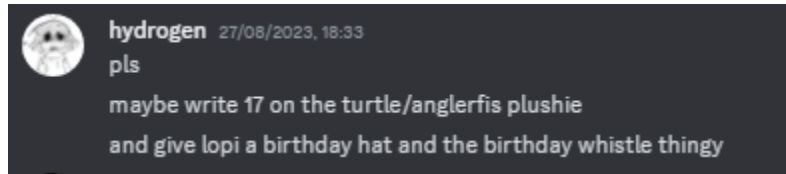

Besides Kasa losing his friends, I have lost my friends too. We both did. I'm assuming the "friends" I took are describing his ex-friends from Eur, which I would like to disagree with since he admitted that he didn't like their vibes anymore not to mention they felt the same.

she complained about how our conversations past the apology was just loops of fighting and blaming each other, how is it not supposed to be that way when she doesn't listen to what i ask her to resolve this herself?? i asked her if i am feeling sad, do something about it instead of directing me to someone else like "yeah can't help with that, call a professional. call a hotline" "you have friends to talk to" it's as simple as that??? and she continued to do the exact same thing i ask her to not do. and still continued to avoid her responsibilities and talk to her friends about my situation instead. does that help when those friends have no contact with me cuz she cut them off me??

This section can be explained with the Post-Callout section in my document.

keep in mind, our relationship started 2 years ago when i was 16 and it was going well, more like all she does is rant to me about how she wants to give up in life and i spent thousands to send her gifts to cheer her up, sent her facilities to help with her art, and wasted most of my time in 12th grade to comfort a jobless 18 year old instead of studying. we didn't have any major fights before she got ahead of herself and started dismissing, abandoning me for the hobbies i pushed her to do. i don't know who's at fault for this but this has been affecting me for a while.

"Keep in mind, our relationship started when I was 16--" There is a 1-year and 4-month age gap between me and Kasa. Our relationship began when I was 17 and Kasa was 16.

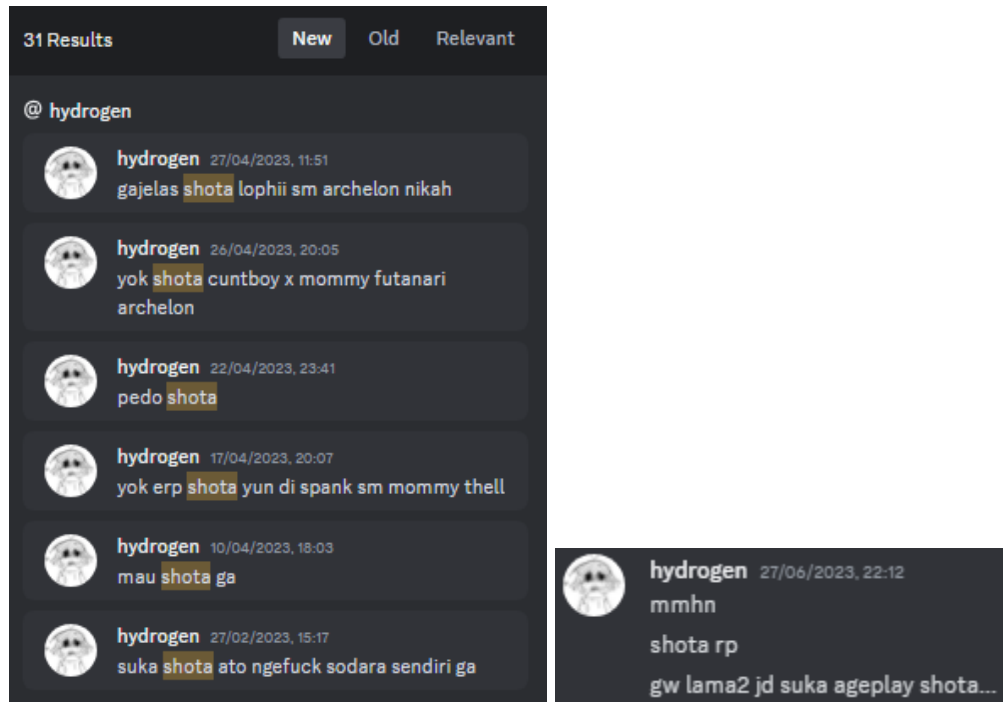

Additional context: As proof that he's 1 year below me. In the first screenshot, he's requesting me to put the number 17 on an art piece I made specifically for his birthday, "lopi" is his persona's name. In the second screenshot, I'm wishing him a happy birthday. He turned 17 on 22 September 2023, which means he's 18 and turning 19 this year (2025).

Here's Kasasphere calling me a pedophile (jokingly, in this situation) on my birthday. I turned 18 on 3 May 2023, which means I'm 19 and turning 20 this year (2025).

Accusations of pedophilia are harmful and should never be thrown around lightly, especially when you don't have proof to back it up. There's another thing I would like to bring up in regards to pedophilia. While I won't discuss the ethics\surrounding fictional children being portrayed in a sexual way, Kasasphere has made jokes about Shotacon/Lolicon while we dated and asked if we could do shota/loli ERPs. I am not accusing him of being a pedophile himself, but I would like him to reflect on his actions since he made those kinds of statements while he was a teenager/young adult.

Translation of the first screenshot (from up to down):

It doesn't make sense, shota lophii and archelon getting married (lophii and archelon are our personas).

Let's do shota cuntboy x mommy futanari archelon

Let's do ERP shota yun (Kasa) getting spanked by mommy thell

Do you want shota

Does he like shota or fucking his own sibling (asking about what my persona's "preferences" are)

Translation of the second screenshot: I'm slowly starting to like ageplay shota...

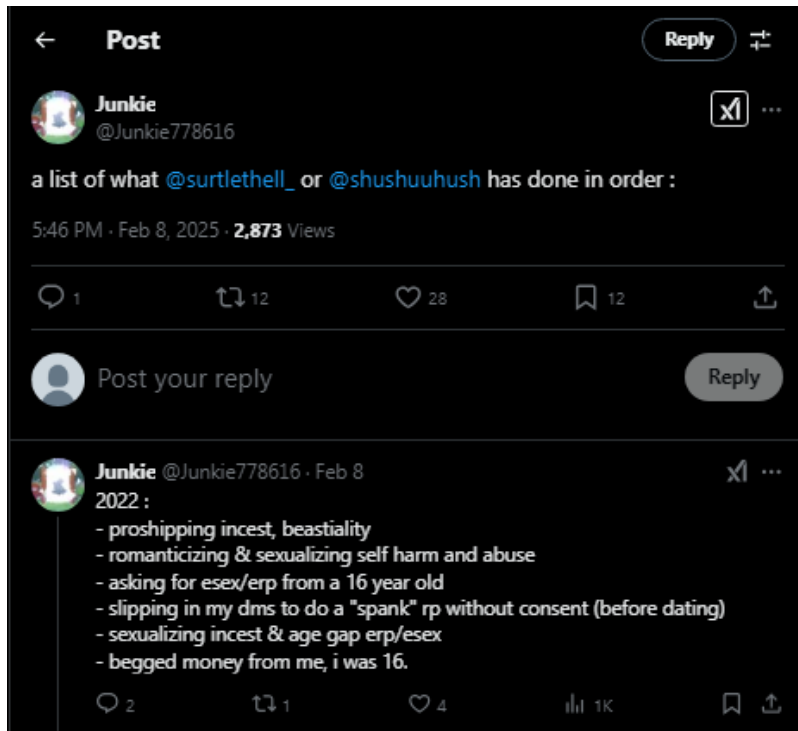

"More like all she does is rant to me about how she wants to give up in life and I spent thousands to send her gifts to cheer her up, sent her facilities to help with her art, and wasted most of my time in 12th grade to comfort a jobless 18-year-old instead of studying." I indeed received physical gifts from Kasa that he willingly gave me. However, I also helped Kasa during times of distress while we dated. To claim that "all I do" is that is overgeneralization.

continuation (still 2023);

- she used me as her therapist and i had to comfort her everytime for; stress in an organization at school, unmotivated, depressed and wanting to end it all. i bought her gifts while she was sad, i comforted her. i did everything.

here is a statement from a friend whom got reached out to and shunned me. but surtle confessed that she did wrong. here is what she said;

people, so I can only give you some words of comfort, but I'm sorry for my actions and I truly do not want to see you dead.

I genuinely feel sorry that you had to go through all that and I'm sorry that you're going through the same situation again. I wish there was a way for you to fix this whole mess, or to revert back to the past. Coming from me though, you would probably feel hurt.

Please take care of yourself. Try to eat some simple or bland food like rice, eggs, fish or ice-cream. Also try to drink more water, and get more sleep if you can, adopt a mindset that this problem should be resolved tomorrow, and not right now, no matter how hard it is.

2 months ago, Surtle reached out to me confessing that it was her fault that both of you broke up and about the reason why she started everything. I assume you already know the full picture, but I'll just send her paragraph explaining the situation here.

"Yun contributed a lot in the relationship like giving gifts and starting conversations and what not. a month before we broke up I got busy with my own shit and didn't like how Yun was begging for my attention (that he deserved) so being the dumb person I am, I ended up ranting about it to someone (cryo) that hated Yun.

Cryo, of course, wanted me to break up with him, so I did, and shit hit the fan to the point Yun nearly committed suicide, he survived. Cryo also shared the story to ex-eur members like Ben, Inkish, parins, mint

I don't remember much now but one person that helped me during the situation called me out that I did the exact same thing that Yun did like begging for attention, doing weird shit, all sorts of that and when they found out, everyone dropped me"

- i'm in 12th grade (16~17yrs) here, she (18) graduated and had a gap year. she was unproductive and depressed for the entire year, kept begging for my attention, for a therapy session, for sex, anything that cures her boredom.

i was very busy and had school for 6 days a week, 9 hours a day. and a study course for 2 hours a day. i was busy for the entire year, but she couldn't accept it and kept bothering me and messaging me every few hours to cure her boredom. i can't keep up. i wanted to study.

this was along with managing my youtube channel at the time, so i was very busy. i was also tiering on prsk events occasionally. i barely had any time for her because i needed to focus on my studies, i couldn't keep up and was stressed out when she kept asking me to text her.

i ended up sneaking my phone in class just to comfort her during her depression. she asked me for sex, she asked me for romantic shit, she asked me for money. i give her everything because i thought that's how i should do as a partner. i wanted to be a good one-

The background information he provided in the thread is one-sided, doesn't show the full story, and obscures the actions he did during the situation. I'll only clarify a few points he only mentioned in this thread.

- “Proshipping incest, bestiality, romanticizing & sexualizing self harm amd abuse, and sexualizing incest & age gap erp/esex”

I have made jokes about problematic things such as incest and bestiality, but I don't endorse such actions. I understand that making fun of heavy subject matter isn't a good thing to do, nor is it acceptable even if you aren't going to commit such things in real life. I apologize for making such horrid statements in the first place. What Kasa didn't mention was how he had also engaged in such jokes and roleplays.

The screenshots below are fabricated. I did not have friend/message requests open around the time this supposed conversation happened. I haven't talked to anyone other than the people I trust since Kasa posted the call-out on YouTube. I would also like to point out that in one of the screenshots, the Discord UI is odd. If you look at the screenshots, the texts are unreasonably and oddly large, and inconsistent. The name in the first screenshot is as big as the text, while in the second screenshot, the "Clyde" and red message are both the same size, while the top that indicates it's me, is smaller and the size is more accurate.]

Talking about the screenshots after the first two, I also have never sent these messages, and he most likely has made an alternative account, impersonating me to seem like I was the one who said these things. I also do not talk like that in the screenshots when in text. The last screenshot also shows inconsistent and odd text/name size. Please note, that when you try to make the text larger in Discord's UI in settings, the text, profile picture, and name sizes do not look like this.

Fabricated Screenshots

@everyone
Is it fine if someone here impersonates Yun then yell at me, threaten to doxx me and kill me?

I need to write a whole doc to out him and get his fans against him. Clearly some people are not taking his side here because he had beef with another community recently, it's best to make use of that to make everyone believe something so absurd.

Also, unfriend  she leaked most of the chats in the group chat and the server to Yun. I've kicked her out.

 Yesterday at 5:35 PM
I can't rn, sorry

 surtle Yesterday at 5:35 PM
That's fine.
Anyways, is anyone able to bypass Yun's server verification system?

 surtle Yesterday at 5:35 PM
That's fine.
Anyways, is anyone able to bypass Yun's server verification system? Has he said anything regarding the matter or to any channels? Please give me screenshots ASAP. I can't bypass it, both of my accounts are banned there.

Writing a 50-page document on him to call him out right now. I literally experienced the same, I lost all my friends from what I did. He did, too. Why can't he leave me alone?

 surtle Yesterday at 6:33 PM
I should've just let him jump off so this whole thing can be over, I'm so tired.
Why didn't I just pretend to be nice to him so he won't put up those callout posts looking for pity. I could've just ended it there after telling him to die if he wanted to, that would've been simpler.

To blame me for forging screenshots while doing it yourself is extremely disingenuous and only weakens your point.

Continued Harassment From Kasasphere

On February 8, 2025, I stopped replying to Kasasphere's messages from the group chat out of fear of further abuse from him. Despite this, he continues to harass by threatening suicide, mentioning my Youtube account on a post, DMing me on multiple platforms, and emailed me repeatedly, the most recent of which included screenshots of explicit, non-consensual images of myself (presumably) posted on Twitter.

https://youtu.be/1bR7Z6mV_rY A link to a Youtube video of him threatening to kill himself while bringing my mother into the situation. The images censored were a screenshot of my username on a shopping app, a screenshot of order details of a gift with my address on it, and a suicide note he wrote which included my name, university and major, my phone number, my address along with my mother's name.

Closing Statement

I would like to thank those who took their time to read this document from start to finish and listen to what I have to say regarding my point of view. This document is long overdue and may seem like I'm beating a dead horse, but I believe that it's better to tell my side of the story than letting him get away with a rather exaggerated one. This situation is incredibly nuanced with each side having their version of the story and recollection, so please feel free to compare each side and come up with your own conclusion. I would also like to reiterate that this document isn't meant to bring down Kasasphere and his community, nor is it used to justify your hate towards them.

Once again, Kasasphere desperately needs support and help, and I believe he can grow and change as a person: however, this doesn't mean I'm excusing the things he did to me, I believe he deserves to face some sort of consequence for his actions and not coddled due to his mental illness. Because I have hurt him, been hurt by him, and vice versa, It's best if we no longer stay in contact rather than continue talking in the name of "accountability" as it's clear such a thing can't happen. I again, apologize for the things I have done that hurt and negatively affected Kasa in any way.

With that being said, I will be publishing this document only on my social media accounts' bio for those who seek to know what the other side of the story is like. I will not spread it around just like how Kasasphere did. This will be my last interaction with Kasasphere/ChromaTSU. Goodbye.

TL;DR, 2 hormonal teenagers with stunted social skills dated, got too personal, and couldn't communicate properly. Said communication issue caused a break-up. One tried to get away and the other tried everything under the sun to keep them in the relationship. Both sides did terrible things and couldn't handle things themselves. Cue back and forth for 6-7 months with each side telling their version of the story to their respective friend groups.
