

WHEN YOU VISIT OUR CITY

What you need to know

Bogotá is an exciting and vibrant city with a lot to offer. Its cultural diversity means it is home to people from all over the world, creating a unique and vibrant cultural scene. Its vibrant nightlife offers a wide range of clubs, bars and restaurants to choose from, while its impressive street art and scenic views make it a paradise for tourists. With so much to see and do, Bogota is the perfect place for an unforgettable experience.

Bogota is situated in the northern reaches of Colombia and is nestled in the Andean mountains. It is blessed with a temperate and subtropical climate, with average temperatures ranging from 10°C (50°F) to 23°C (73°F). This area experiences two distinct seasons: a wet season from October to March and a dry season from April to September. Bogota's picturesque landscape is composed of rolling hills and towering mountain peaks, as well as lush forests and fields. It is home to a wide variety of wildlife, making it a popular destination for outdoor enthusiasts. When visiting Bogota, it is essential to come prepared for changes in weather. Rain gear is recommended for the wet season, while sunscreen and a hat are essential for the dry season. Comfortable clothing is also advised as temperatures can fluctuate greatly.

About transportation

The easiest transportation methods and apps in Bogota include:

1. TransMilenio bus rapid transit system: The TransMilenio is the most efficient public transportation system in Bogota. It consists of an extensive network of buses that travel along exclusive lanes. There is an official app, TransMilenio, where users can plan their trips, find out about routes and schedules, and pay for their fares.

2. Uber, Didi or Cabify: Are popular ride-hailing apps in Bogota. Which offers reliable and affordable rides for travelers. The apps are easy to use and allow users to pay for their rides with a credit or debit card.

3. Bicing Bogota: Bicing Bogota is a bike-sharing system that allows users to rent bicycles for short trips in the city. The app makes it easy to find and rent a bike, and pay for the ride, all with a few taps of your smartphone.

Best places to eat For lunch and dinner Haute cuisine

1. Leo Cocina y Cava: Known for its innovative Colombian tasting menu and upscale dining experience.

2. Harry Sasson: Offers a blend of traditional Colombian and international cuisine with an elegant ambiance.

3. Criterion: A fine dining establishment known for its contemporary Colombian cuisine and extensive wine list.

4. El Cielo: Offers a unique dining experience with molecular gastronomy techniques and a focus on Colombian ingredients.

5. Andrés Carne de Res: Known for its lively atmosphere, this restaurant serves delicious Colombian grilled meats and traditional dishes.

6. Central Cevicheria: Specializes in ceviche and seafood dishes with a creative twist.

7. La Fragata Giratorio: Offers a rotating view of the city while enjoying a variety of seafood and Colombian cuisine.

8. Rafael: Known for its sophisticated ambiance and eclectic menu featuring a fusion of Colombian and Mediterranean flavors.

9. El Chato: Offers a modern twist on Colombian cuisine with a focus on local and seasonal ingredients.

10. Matiz: Known for its creative menu inspired by Colombian flavors and international influences.

To get the most up-to-date and accurate information on the best restaurants in Bogota for 2023, I recommend checking popular travel websites, food blogs, or consulting local guides upon your visit to the city.

Best places to eat For lunch and dinner Moderate price

1. OSAKI : Japanese food like sushi, sashimi, tempura, yakitori, ramen, curry, teriyaki, udon, donburi, gyozas.
2. Mediterranean de Andrei : Andrei's Mediterranean Restaurant in Bogota offers a variety of typical Mediterranean cuisine dishes such as salads, pastas, meats and fish, soups, cheeses and desserts. It also offers vegetarian and vegan dishes, as well as some special house dishes. The restaurant also offers a wide selection of wines, beers and spirits.
3. La puerta de Alcalá: La Puerta de Alcala offers traditional Spanish cuisine, including tapas, paella, and regional dishes such as cocido madrileño.
4. La Mar • Cebichería Peruana: La Mar Cebicheria in Bogota offers a wide variety of traditional Peruvian cebiches, as well as other seafood dishes. They also offer a variety of sides, such as plantains, yucca fries, and traditional Peruvian dishes like papa a la huancaína.
5. Crepes and waffles: Crepes and Waffles in Bogota offers a variety of sweet and savory crepes, waffles, sandwiches, salads, and desserts. Some of the signature dishes include the Crepe Pesto, the Banana Split Waffle, the Mexican Burger Waffle, the Salmon Salad Crepe, and the Tropical Fruit Crepe
6. WOK: Vietnamese / Thai cuisine restaurant, popular for their complete menu with multiple options, great prices and good service. Signature dishes include Ramen, Fried Rice with fish/meat/vegan options and great sushi.

For breakfast or coffee break :

Tostao: is a popular and cheap coffee shop which offers a variety of coffee and tea options for less than a dollar, as well as pastries and snacks. It is a great place to relax, enjoy a cup of coffee, and people-watch.

El Altillo café : is a popular cafe located in the Usaquén area of Bogotá, Colombia. The café is known for its cozy atmosphere and delicious breakfast dishes

Colo café : Colo Cafe is a specialty coffee shop in Bogota, Colombia. Founded in 2011, Colo Cafe specializes in carefully sourced beans, roasted in-house, and brewed in a variety of methods. The cafe also offers a selection of gourmet sandwiches and pastries.

Juan Valdez: Most famous Colombian coffee franchise, popular for their multiple options in the menu. Ideal for a break or having some dessert. Their shops offer great remote work installations.

Best places to visit

1. Cerro Monserrate (better early in the morning): This is a mountain in Bogota, located east of the city center. It is 3,152 meters high and is a popular destination for pilgrims and tourists alike. There is a cable car that takes visitors to the top, where they can find a church, restaurants, and a viewpoint to admire the city.

2. La Calera (Better at night): This is a small town located in the north east of Bogota. It is known for its beautiful old churches, traditional restaurants, and the cobblestone streets that make up the town's historic center.

3. Gold and Botero Museum: These museums are located in La Candelaria, the historic center of Bogota. It displays works from the pre-Columbian gold artifacts and Botero collections from the famous artist Fernando Botero.

4. La Candelaria: This is the historic center of Bogotá, and is home to many colonial-style buildings, churches, and plazas. It is a popular destination for tourists, and is full of restaurants, bars, and shops.

5. Plaza de Bolívar: This is a public square located in the heart of Bogotá. It is home to the Capitol Building, the Palace of Justice, and the headquarters of the National Police. It is also home to the biggest cathedral in the city, and several monuments dedicated to the country's independence.

6. El parque de la 93: This is the best place to go to party . This is a popular recreational park located in the north of Bogotá. It is known for its green spaces and its many restaurants, cafes, and bars. It is a very popular spot for locals and tourists alike to enjoy a day out.