

Nature

The sight of nature is very wondrous.
The shining sun falls down upon the trees.
A girl plays hide and seek in her sundress
Jumping, leaping, singing with newfound glee.
Looking ,enjoying the wonderful scene.
Oh look the colors yellow blue and green.
Now upon the tree the young girl shall lean .
Almost hidden but probably unseen .
Reading the girl falls into a deep sleep.
Now she sees chirping birds and buzzing bees,
Herds of sheep and mountains so very steep.
Over there a family of deer flee.
As the girl wakes she's looks around to see
That it was only a amazing dream.
