

December Newsletter

The first semester has absolutely flown by. We are a little over a week away from Christmas break. I'm super proud of how well our students have performed this semester. As we speak, 95% of our student body are passing all of their classes. That is great news. My hope is that by the end of the semester that percentage goes up.

Information for all parents and stakeholders

The December moratorium runs from December 22 through December 26. During this time there are to be no practices nor any students in our school. This is a time for students to be with their family.

We have eight students that will graduate midterm this year. We will have a short midterm graduation ceremony for them and their family on December 18. We are super proud of these students and wish them the best of luck as they move on to the next venture.

Mr Vyhlidal was awarded the Kim West Dinsdale Excellence In Teaching Award on December 11. Congratulations on such an outstanding achievement. Mr V along with all of our other teachers pride themselves on building great relationships with their students and work hard to help them be the best they can be.

The staff at Northwest would like to wish you all a happy holiday season. We hope that you all get to spend some quality time with your family and friends. We are blessed to have you all as a part of our Northwest Family and look forward to seeing our students back on January 7.

Sincerely,

PJ Smith
Principal
