

Intergalactic Rules

Typed by ARandomPerson, Banking Clan Representative

It has been decided on April 6th, 2020, that rules are a necessary precaution for both sides during these troubling times. These rules have been formed for the protection and preservation of the fun and joy of both sides.

The new rules are as follows:

1. Spamming of any kind in a Discord server is intolerable. This is for the simple reason that it is a nuisance. Although it may seem that it is what your opponent deserves, it is intolerable and will lead to anger and frustration. Those emotions are not what the basis of the war should be.
  - I.) Spamming on subreddits is allowed only during an authorized invasion. Unprovoked spamming is punishable.
2. All memes/images must be edited. Any images sent in the Discord servers cannot be unedited images. The only exception to this rule is if the image is being sent to display a potential template for a meme.
  - I.) The context of the image is important. Sometimes blank, unedited images turn out to be a part of a joke.
3. Hate speech and harassment are punishable offences. Any abusive language pertaining to someone's race, religion, or sexual orientation will not be tolerated. This is a place for discussion, not personal attacks.
  - I.) Words from Star Wars are not punishable offences.
4. Moderators reserve the right to delete any post they deem to be inappropriate. If the sender is warned for this post, they may dispute the claim if they believe it to be false. A second moderator will then be called to dispute the claim to prevent bias from the first.
  - I.) There cannot be a third moderator called in unless the sender is a person of power on any side of the war. If the sender is not deemed important by their community, they are only given one chance at a dispute.

5. Any abuse of power is intolerable and will be punished. Having a high position of power does not give the individual a shield from the rules. The punishment will be decided upon and ultimately depends on the severity of the altercation.
