Building Community Free From Sexual Violence

The Center for Hope and Healing, Inc Invites You to Join Our Building Hope! Campaign

The Board of Directors, Staff and Volunteers of The Center for Hope and Healing invite you to join us on the ground floor of the movement to build a home for hope and healing in Lowell!

We seek courageous champions to join us in our mission to take away the stigma often associated with sexual violence. We know that in order to truly heal, survivors must have a place to be seen and heard.

With this vision in mind, we purchased a former bank prominently placed on Hurd Street in Downtown Lowell and are transforming it into a new home for survivors and for the community at large! We work to center those who have historically been at the margins and who often are not seen. We will create a space where everyone belongs!

With the investment of Community Champions like you, others will be inspired to join this movement to create Lowell's new Healing Center!

Here is a snapshot of giving opportunities. Please contact Isa Woldegiorgis to discuss your investment in the Building Hope Campaign today! @ isa@chhinc.org
