SL - Finally was able to relax, can't believe a drink did that.

Life was always stressful, waking up at 7 to an alarm clock I HATED, only to do the same ritual, day after day AFTER DAY.

I couldn't take it anymore, my boss was always pressuring me, I felt I could lose it at any moment, I had to find a way to relax.

I tried EVERYTHING, from meditation to expensive herbs, yet nothing worked. I felt lost, angry, depressed. Until I stumbled onto a particular website by accident.

One drink and I felt it immediately, finally I was at peace. If only I knew about this sooner.
