Avatar:

19-year-old, Anthony.

Backstory:

Anthony has always enjoyed filming and after moving to the city, he has endless opportunities for himself. He wants to be sure; he is trying to get all the education possible to make sure he does everything correctly. He is not sure how he can make money from the film but is confident his work is good.

Beliefs/values:

Anthony believes if he works hard, good things will come to him.
He values quality and he doesn't want to get paid for poor-quality work.
He believes he can always be improving and aims to improve himself every day.
He believes that his film is the way he can get to his dream state.

Outside influence:

The environment around Anthony is a big influence on him, he is always aware of what's around him and appreciates the aesthetic of his environment.

Current state:

He is able to create good quality film and photos but needs to learn how to generate income from it.

Anthony knows he could earn money from his work.

Anthony fears never being able to earn an income from his passion if he does not learn how

People perceive Anthony as a good photographer, but they know he doesn't earn money and some think it wastes his time.

He feels his work is not valued as it should be and is just looking for a way to earn money from all of his efforts.

He wants to get a better life for himself and gain a name via his film.

Dream state:

Anthony wants to make a name for himself
He wants to make himself proud.
He wants to make his parents proud.
He wants all his hard work worth it.
he wants to be financially stable.
He wants to focus completely on his film.
He wants to quit his 9-5 job.
He would love to further improve his film editing and creating skills.

Roadblocks:

He knows how to create quality film and photos but doesn't know how to earn money through it.
He struggles to find time to educate himself on monetising his film with his 9-5 taking up a lot of his time.
He struggles to find like-minded people trying to achieve the same thing as him.
He does not have enough money to afford an expensive course to help him.
He doesn't understand that it can be easy to make money from his film.

Solution:

The avatar needs to learn a method of monetising his film work.
He needs to communicate with like-minded people so he can grow.
He needs the quickest way to earn money.
He needs an option that is not too expensive.

Product:

This product will help Anthony to earn money from his hard work.
This product will allow him to talk to people trying to achieve the same goal.
This product is possibly the last step he needs to reach his dream state.
