

Choose an item.: Title of Your Project

Main Author^{1*}, Co-author², Co-author³

¹Main Author Affiliation
email

²Co-author Affiliation
email

³Co-Author Affiliation
email

Abstract:

Overview of the Study (Research Problem, Aim and Objectives): No more than 60 words. This section of the abstract should briefly talk about the research methods employed in the research. You should let your readers know the data collection methods, research methodology, research instruments and techniques used in the study.

Design/Methodology/Approach: No more than 40 words. This section should briefly talk about the research methods employed in the research. You should let your readers know the data collection methods, research methodology, research instruments and techniques used in the study.

Results/Findings: The third section should highlight the main findings or results. Use two or three sentences to state the important results of the research.

Conclusion and Implications: This last section is where you draw conclusions from the analysis of your results and findings. Based on these results and findings, you should also give your readers suitable recommendations and/or suggestions.

Keywords: Six words and you should write in alphabetical order.