

Types of Government Notes

Monarchy

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

Tyranny

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

Dictator

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

What are the strengths and weaknesses of a single person rule (Monarchy, Tyranny, Dictator)? (Have at least one strength and one weakness)

--

Direct Democracy

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

What are the strengths and weaknesses of a direct democracy? (Have at least one strength and one weakness)

Representative Democracy / Republic

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

What are the strengths and weaknesses of a republic/representative democracy? (Have at least one strength and one weakness)

Aristocracy

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

Oligarchy

Role of Citizen: How is the "everyday individual" involved in politics?	Power: Who's in Charge? Who makes the decisions?	Transition of Power: How does the leader become a leader?

What are the strengths and weaknesses of an aristocracy or oligarchy?
(Have at least one strength and one weakness)

--

Provide One Modern Day Example of Each Government Type Below:

Aristocracy:
Monarchy:
Direct Democracy:
Republic:
Tyranny:
Oligarchy:	