PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Dr. Kehinde Emeribe is a digital transformation strategist and an edtech fanatic with expertise in data analytics, cloud architecture, DevOps, and Agile delivery with over six years of experience. She leads intricate transformation programs and creates scalable learning environments by fusing academic rigour with real-world creativity. As a certified Agile Coach and Product Owner, she has a track record of successfully overseeing the completion of projects from start to finish and maximising organisational performance using reliable IAM frameworks, automated CI/CD pipelines, and secure cloud infrastructure.

Dr. Emeribe is leading the creation of an EdTech platform that uses SaaS to provide immersive, AI-personalized training and career services. She is the founder and director of EMNEK Digital Limited. With a focus on inclusivity, her "Personalised Cohort Model" promotes project-based, mentor-led learning for women, professionals, career changers, and micro-enterprises. Holding a PhD in Administrative Studies and an MSc (Distinction) in Logistics, Data Analytics & Supply Chain Management, she also possesses various certifications across Cloud, Agile, and DevOps domains. Her goal is to establish EMNEK Digital as a premier provider of easily accessible, highly effective and inclusive digital training and consulting particularly for women updating and upgrading in tech.
