#1

Taking into consideration the Order of the Head Office of IMTD-International IMTD USA dated 1/02/2024 about requirements concerning membership for establishing of business relations and making business,

ORDER:

All interested people, companies, state government bodies, which are going to establish business relations with IMTD-International, should become associate members of the consumer society IMTD-International.

To the membership of IMTD International and to those interested in doing business with us:

After consultation with concerned members and careful consideration we have determined that we will not work with people, businesses, organizations, or governmental bodies unless they join IMTD International. This is to allow us to do our due diligence to determine, to the best of our ability, that these people and organizations are committed to our values of accountability and transparency. It is important that we protect both IMTD-International and its members from the potential stain of our reputation and from theft by doing business with predatory or corrupt individuals or organizations.

Olga Bodnar,

Executive Director
IMTD-International
