

DBS Consent & Media Waiver Terms

Consent Terms:

I hereby agree to the Student Experience Team and the Clubs & Societies leaders at DBS to contact me in relation to various promotions, meetups and events that are of interest to me.

Media Waiver Terms:

I understand that Dublin Business School (DBS) will be arranging for photographs to be taken of me to use for marketing purposes and which may, for example, appear in brochures, flyers or on the web.

I confirm that I am happy to be recorded for the above formats and agree that DBS will own all rights to the resulting content and any related items.

DBS may use the imagery and related items for marketing and any other purposes as they see fit, either internally or external to the college, whether with any quotes supplied by me or otherwise. No payments will be due to me.

If I supply quotes to DBS, then I agree to such quotes being used (whether with the photographs and videos or otherwise) and to my name and/or county/ country of residence featuring in conjunction with the quotes or otherwise. I also consent to my name and/or county/ country of residence used in conjunction with any such photographs/ videos or other marketing images (including stock student images). If I provide interviews to DBS, then I consent to the interviews being used (in full or exact form) with similar designation (as appropriate).

I confirm that I am 18 years of age or older, have read this document, understand it and am signing it willingly.
