

Name_____ Date_____ Period_____

Crash Course U.S. History #14: The Age of Jackson

1. The age of Jackson, is which Jackson? _____
2. The time period after the War of 1812, which saw only one political party was called what?

3. What two men were fans of the American system? _____
4. Who actually wrote the Monroe Doctrine (hint: it was not Monroe)? _____
5. As Missouri petitioned to become a state in the union – the storm of controversy over the allowing of slavery resulted in Missouri being added to the union as well as what other state? _____
6. What was Martin Van Buren called? _____
7. What is he credited with creating? _____
8. What does “the Little Magician” and “Old Hickory” tell us about the elections of the time?

9. What did Andrew Jackson call the election of John Quincy Adams? _____
10. Jackson was the symbol of what new political party? _____
11. What party grew up in response to Jackson’s election? _____
12. What did the Whigs believe that Jackson was turning himself into? _____
13. The tax which the south called the “Tariff of Abominations” was so unpopular that South Carolina threatened to do what to any tariffs? _____
14. The ridiculous nullification of a reduced tariff led Jackson to push through what act? _____
15. Though the Indian Removal act was found to be unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, Jackson still backed the removal which led to the forced march west of many tribes. This is called

16. The MYSTERY DOCUMENT is actually Andrew Jackson’s what? _____

17. With no national bank, local banks were given the monies of the government but it seemed that it was allocated to those that supported Jackson, leading many of Jackson's critics to refer to this as what?

18. A depression emerged which was led off by what event? _____