

ARTICLES

The students will be asked to attempt a long piece of composition of minimum 100-120 words in length. The composition will be in the form of an article. The students may be provided with a verbal or visual input. They can take help from the given input, information or notes and can expand them in their own language to 100-120 words. Sometimes the given input can be in the form of a figure, a diagram or a cartoon. The aim of the examiner by inserting an input is only to provide clues along which the article has to be developed. The subject on which the article can be based may be burning social, cultural, economic, ethical, behavioural, religious and political issues. You may be asked to write an article on any topic under the sun.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR ARTICLE WRITING

Always study the given input, information or notes carefully.

Arrange them in a systematic order.

Develop each point in a simple, grammatically correct language.

Your article must present your ideas not in a sketchy but in a coherent and logical manner.

Develop your writing into paragraphs.

Confine yourself to the given subject. Superfluous and unnecessary details must be avoided at all cost.
