

PerfectFit offers several data security features and mechanisms. These include user-level access control through roles and groups, the ability to restrict access to sensitive data, and options for two-factor authentication and compliance with GDPR.