

Lone Rock Elementary School District Superintendent Search

The Board of Trustees for the Lone Rock Elementary School District is pleased to announce it will interview Teresa Weems-Byington for position of District Superintendent.

Teresa Weems-Byington has been the Superintendent of the Charlo School District for one year. Her previous experience includes four years as an instructional coach and intervention specialist at the St. Regis School District. Weems-Byington has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from the University of Idaho, a Master's Degree in Reading from Northwest Nazarene University, and a Master's Degree in Mathematics Education from Western Governors University.

On Tuesday, May 13, 2025, Ms. Weems-Byington will meet Principal Murphy at 3:00 pm in the District Office to begin a tour of the school and grounds. At 3:45 p.m., staff will meet with Ms. Weems-Byington in the Multi-Purpose Room for an informal question and answer session. Following this meeting, Ms. Weems-Byington will meet at 4:30 pm with parents, staff and students for an informal meet and greet in the Multi-Purpose Room.

Beginning at 5:00 p.m., the Board will hold a public interview with Ms. Weems-Byington in the Middle School.

The public is encouraged to attend this interview, and to stay to provide public comment to the Board prior to it making a decision regarding a new Superintendent.
