- please let me know if you need something specific tagged i'll do the normal stuff like blood/gore/body horror/eyestrain/nudity/flashing lights/etc but if you need something more specific let me know
- kind of tentative about putting an extensive list of my triggers on a public thing so idk if you want to know for tagging reasons and if i follow you you can ask
- importantly though please do tag eating sounds if i follow you i have misophonia it makes me feel Violent
