

commission status: open *note: i was previously known as basicallycaramel, or cara-mel. almost all of my older work is signed with cara-mel. i now sign it with Inferno. it's still my work, i've just rebranded :)

yo, thanks for considering my art. i'm Inferno, the lead artist for Mythomatic, an indie game studio. i'm really just a guy who likes drawing. i do both digital and traditional art (typically graphite pencils), though i've been experimenting with new mediums lately. i also tween and animate a bit but eh. i usually draw in my typical style or my chibi style, but i sometimes draw with a pixel brush too. yes, the watermarks are pretty damn large on the drawing samples i'll be showing, but the art should still be visible. here is my portfolio if you're interested in seeing some of my work.

if you're interested in a commission (woah, you're one in a krillion), send me a DM on discord, bsky, or tumblr. my username is .dantesinferno on discord, @blazeonastring on bsky, and blazeonastring on tumblr. alternatively, send me an email at blazeonastring@gmail.com.

Yes: chibis, original characters, characters, backgrounds maybe (depends on the background), anthros (im best with proto/primagens), reference sheets, some blood, cats (if you have a reference), character designing, concept art, anything else i accept

No: nsfw, heavy gore, dogs (i suck at drawing them), or anything i say no to important payment info and term stuff payment

- for now, i only take cashapp. i'll send you my info through dms
- you must pay half price first, receive the drawing, and then pay the other half
- no refunds

please note

- send references of what you want. either that or be very clear with what you want
- if i don't respond immediately, don't panic or anything. i clearly don't get commissioned often but i still have a life
- expect watermarked sketches if i don't know you
- try avoiding any major changes to the sketch or anything
- i typically take a few days to complete a commission, but don't fret if i take longer
- unless you ask me not to, i'll probably post the commission, use it elsewhere, and/or show it to other people
