

ritzJPEG'S TERMS AND CONDITIONS

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to ritzJPEG's TOS. Hopefully this document can give you all the information you need before commissioning me. By purchasing or commissioning artwork from me, you are agreeing to these terms and conditions.

SERVICES

My services include SFW and NSFW illustrations. I mainly draw:

- Icons/headshots
- Halfbodies (occasionally)
- Fullbodies
- Backgrounds
- Custom designs

I have a variety of art styles that you can choose from to better suit your needs. I may also suggest different art styles that I think would suit the final piece better.

PRICING AND PAYMENT

My prices are a flat fee that is usually paid upfront. If you feel more comfortable paying after the sketch, half payment can be done before and after the sketch. I use Paypal and Ko-fi to take payments for commissions. Once the sketch has been completed, a refund is no longer available.

REVISIONS

Up to three revisions may be made during the sketch and coloring part of the process. Extra revisions may cost more. Things that count as a revision include:

- Major changes to the sketch
- Complete background change
- New pose

DELIVERY AND TIMELINE

Commission time can range from a few days to a couple months. You will be notified if there is a long queue or if I have delays going on in my life.

The final product will be delivered through discord chat, google drive, or through email. This is to ensure that you receive the highest quality artwork.

COPYRIGHT AND USAGE RIGHTS

Though you have paid me to commission you, the artwork may only be used for personal use. If you're wanting it to be used commercially, it must be communicated with me. Failure to do so will result in getting blacklisted from future commissions. I retain full copyright to all my artwork. Unless stated that you want your commission to be private, I have the right to post it and use it as a commission example.

Commercial use will come with extra fees.

REFUNDS AND CANCELLATIONS

Refunds are no longer available after the sketch has been completed. If you cancel your commission before the sketch has been approved, you will receive a full refund.

If I do end up cancelling your commission for private reasons, a partial or full refund may be done depending on the progress of the commission.

CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

I expect the client to be responsive and reply to messages in a timely manner. Please be honest with me if you don't like something about the commission so that you may get something that you're happy with. Failure to reply quickly may result in the project getting delayed.

MISCELLANEOUS

The client must agree to not use the artwork for any illegal, immoral, or harmful purposes. This includes:

- Hate speech
- Offensive content
- Copyright infringement
