

First Time Parent Hub's Privacy Policy

The website URL is <https://firsttimeparenthub.blogspot.com/>. The following are the various personal data we collect and the reasons for collecting it

1. Comments:

We will collect the data displayed in any visitor's comments on the website, as well as the visitor's IP address and browser user agent string to help detect spam.

An anonymous string (also called a hash) created from your email address may be provided to the Gravatar service to see if you are using it. After approving your comment, your profile photo is visible to the public in the context of your comment.

2.Images/Media:

If you upload images to a website, you should avoid uploading images that contain embedded location data (EXIF GPS). Visitors to the website can download and extract any location data from the images on the website.

3. Contact Forms & Cookies:

If you leave a comment on our website, you can choose to save your name, email address and website in a cookie. These are for your convenience, so that you don't have to fill in your details again when you leave other comments. These cookies will last for one year.

If you have an account and log in to this site, we will set a temporary cookie to determine whether your browser accepts cookies. This cookie does not contain any personal data and will be discarded when you close your browser.

When you log in, we will also set multiple cookies to save your login information and screen display choices. The login cookie lasts for two days, and the screen option cookie lasts for one year. If you select "Remember me", the login will last for two weeks. If you log out of your account, the login cookie will be deleted.

If you edit or publish an article, an additional cookie will be saved in your browser. This cookie does not contain any personal data and only represents the post ID of the article you just edited. It expires after 1 day.

4. Embedded Content:

Articles on this website may contain embedded content (such as videos, images, articles, etc.). The behavior of embedded content from other websites is exactly the same as the behavior of visitors visiting another website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed other third parties to track and monitor your interaction with the embedded content, including tracking interactions with the embedded content when you have an account and are logged in to the website.

5. Google Analytics - Data preserved period :

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata will be retained indefinitely. This way, we can automatically identify and approve any follow-up comments without having to keep them in the review queue.

For users who register on our website (if any), we also store the personal information they provide in their user profile. All users can view, edit or delete their personal information at any time (unless they cannot change their username). The site administrator can also view and edit this information.

6. Rights to your data :

If you have an account or have any comments on this site, you can request to receive an export file of your personal data (including any data you provide to us) that we save. You can also ask us to delete any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data that we must keep for administrative, legal or security purposes.

7. Data sending location:

Visitor comments can be checked through an automatic spam detection service.

8. Obey《Children's Online Privacy Protection Act》:

It is especially important to protect the privacy of minors and young children. Therefore, we will never collect or maintain information under the age of 13 that we actually know on our website, and no part of our website will attract users under the age of 13.

9. T&C You accepted:

When using this website, it means that you accept this policy and terms of service. If you do not agree with this policy, please do not use our website. After you post the changes to this policy, your continued use of this website will be deemed as your acceptance of these changes.

Contact information: If you encounter any problems with the content or website, please feel free to write to us on the contact form.
