

Summary of the Evidence

We, the people who put this doc together, want to say please DON'T attempt to harass random individuals you may see in chat logs/screenshots or fellow YouTubers/content creators who have been collaborators with Zyph in the past. Also DO NOT attempt to contact or find personal information of the victim in this incident. She currently wants to be left alone regarding this situation.

In regards to screenshots, there isn't an exact color coordination system and if you see a recurring color over the course of the screenshots, that does NOT always mean that is the same person. The main colors that DO have the consistency of being the same person are black, which censors the victim's identity, and a light pink, which censors a former friend of the victim. If you see [s], it is an abbreviation for a link to a source. What the #chatlog_ items are used for the relevant chat log dump. Look at the name in parentheses at the front, and add the full # at the end to pull up the relevant message in the log.

On December 14, 2024 an anonymous Twitter account posted a now deleted thread accusing Zyph of having been in a relationship with one of his fans when he was 19 and she was 13. <https://twitter.com/AnonC41195823/status/1868156231774601644> (Tried recovering the link but was unable to, the main tweet is pictured.) The thread was posted to Reddit and it received far more attention compared to the Twitter thread. [\[s\]](#)

The Twitter thread was taken down on the 15th after the victim asked the poster to do so so a formal statement could be made with her response. Zyph also addressed the accusations in his

Discord server that same day, brushing off the allegations as drama or hate. [s]
(Chat 2024 Part 2) #chatlog__message-container-1317933024423313418

By December 16, 2024 the original Twitter account was suspended. However, a new account called @ZyphAllegations was created. That same day it was confirmed that Zyph had indeed groomed one of his fans into a relationship when he was 19 and she was 13. It was also revealed he had sexually assaulted her. The @ZyphAllegations account was shadowbanned on Twitter, so an account called @Zyphallegation2 was created which shows the same information as the previous thread, but on a non-shadowbanned account. [s]

It was public knowledge that Zyph and the victim were in a relationship from 2018 to 2019, however, the victim had falsely stated she was 16, when in fact she was 13 at the time their relationship began. She had initially lied about her age not just publicly, but to Zyph himself. She would inform Zyph about a month into their relationship of her real age during or just after Vidcon 2018. Instead of breaking it off, the relationship continued until July or September 2019, when they would have been 20 and 14 respectively. They continued to interact publicly through 2020 but ceased in 2021. After the new post went live, a new Reddit post was made. [s]

On December 19, 2024 Zyph made a public response to the allegations. [s] In his response he claims to have not been aware of the victim's true age until a year into their relationship, and he incorrectly claims that the victim was 16 years old in 2017 when she very publicly claimed to be 15 at the time. He goes into detail about his trips to see the victim and his interactions with her and her family during these times, and at times mentioning details irrelevant to the situation. He also deflects blame from himself onto the adults in the victim's life such as her parents, and insists he didn't leave when he learned of her true age because he was fearful of the victim harming herself as she had previously been hospitalized after attempting suicide.

Victim's Official Statement:

This is a statement from the victim of Zyph/Dylan/Zyphalopagus. We spoke to her after we initially posted our evidence and she requested we remove the posts so that we can post a more censored version (to keep her identity private) along with her statement.

If you saw the information which leaked her current @ or identity, we ask that you please keep it to yourself. This statement and following tweets should have all of the evidence you need to believe these allegations - so please do not try and contact her.

In the following tweet to this will be photos that the victim has provided us to help prove her relationship with Dylan (them together & him at her house with her cat).

We have seen the victim's ID and can confirm she is currently 19 years old, making her 13 when the relationship began.

Back in 2018, I was groomed and SA'd by Youtuber Dylan/Zyphalopagus/Zyph at the age of 13/14 whilst he was 19/20. I am now 19. It started with me being a fan, after i did a lot of artwork for him and started doing paid work, we started talking.

Eventually in May of 2018 we started "dating". I was a stupid kid, I was very troubled. I was being bullied in school, had nothing good going for me, and I had low self esteem. I spent a lot of time online and got close to Dylan, but for the first month of our relationship I lied about my age and told him I was 16. After our first real life meetup at Vidcon 2018, only one month after our relationship began, I finally told him the truth and he knew from that point on that I was only 13 years old.

I pleaded with him not to break up with me, but my begging was not needed - he seemed to have absolutely no intent of breaking up with me and this caused no problem for him at all.

We eventually broke up in July of 2019 but not before we met and spent time together on 4 other occasions in person, in which I was SA'd.

During this time period i attempted suicide twice, resulting in 2 hospitalizations. I was in a very bad place, and I regret everything that happened. This should have NEVER happened.

I'd like to state that talking about this situation or even thinking about it puts me into a lot of emotional distress and makes me sick. This was a terrible time in my life and I look back on it with disgust, anger and sadness. This is why I'm keeping myself anonymous. If you know who i am, and we used to be friends, feel free to reach out if you wish.

For the rest, and you know who I am, I ask that no one else reaches out due to the stress and anxiety I get from receiving questions and dms.

I just want to move on from this and go back into living my normal life. I've been sitting with this in the back of my mind for almost 6 years and it comes to haunt and torment me constantly.

Currently at this point in my life, we have not talked since 2020, and I have to some extent erased a lot of these thoughts and memories from my head due to trauma. I can't even remember his last name anymore. I'm so proud of how much I've grown as a person, and I'm so happy where I am currently.

To the people who may have been hurt or wronged due to the relationship I was in, I'm so sorry, I miss all of my old friendships dearly and wish some of them didn't end the way they did. you all were just looking out for me and i just didn't realize. I miss you all. Please reach out if you want to.

These have been some of the most difficult days I've had in a long time, but finally getting this off my chest has been something I've been needing to do for years. I appreciate everyone's kindness and support. Like I said, after this is out, I just want to move on with my life, go to work again, live with my current partner who I love so much and hang out with my cats. I'm planning on having a very nice holiday with my family.

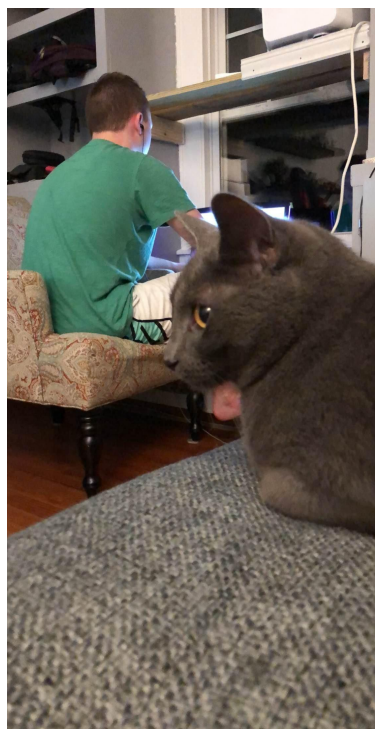

Dylan/Zyph does not deserve a platform, he is a dangerous predator who groomed and SA'd me.

I wish to not go into certain specifics because of how traumatic some of the situations were, the thought of them makes me physically sick, like I want to throw up.

Thank you for reading this and hearing my side of the story.

Again, we ask you do not attempt to go searching for the victim's current accounts out of respect for her, she wants to be left alone and not contacted any further about the situation at this time.

In the official statement from the victim she provides pictures that show Zyph and her together which had never been released publicly. The images show Zyph with the victim, likely at an escape room, as well as an image of Zyph and the victim's cat which were taken some time during the relationship.

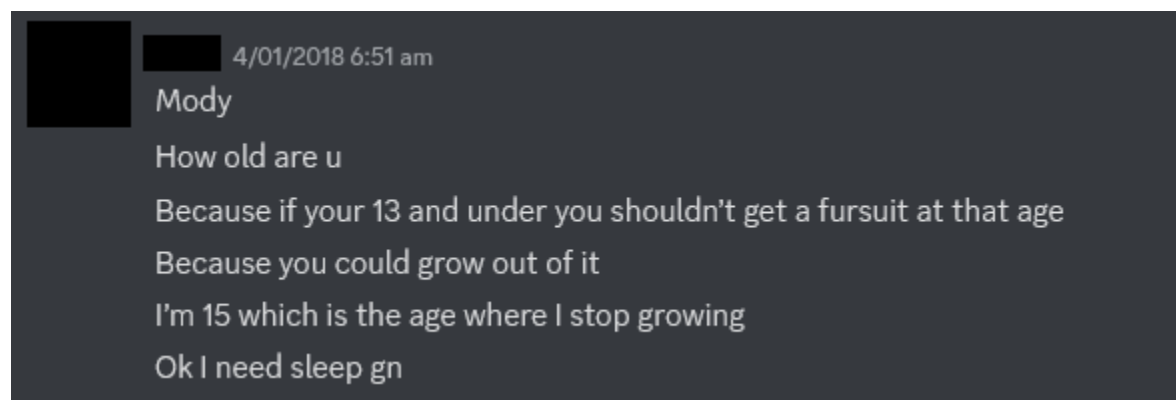

There are no details as stated in the official post, but Zyph also allegedly sexually assaulted the victim when they had met in person.

Unfortunately, we CANNOT verify the claim and can only take the victim's word for it. Either way, the relationship was unacceptable. If it is indeed true that Zyph sexually assaulted the victim during the occasions they saw each other in person, he is possibly liable in civil lawsuits for sexual conduct with a minor. The statute of limitations for sexual assault of a child in Connecticut, where the victim is from, and in Arizona, where Zyph was living at the time, have no limit. Depending on the extent or specifics of the abuse the victim faced, these limitations may be different.

The Victim's Age

The screenshots (and logs) contradict Zyph's claim in his response that she was 16 in 2017. The victim made multiple statements claiming she was 15 during 2018. This fact will be referenced throughout the document. Below are examples of the victim falsely claiming to be a different age publicly, prior to her beginning a romantic relationship with Zyph. She was actually 12 years old when these messages were sent. The victim's birthday is April 24th.

The victim also provided an image of her learners permit issued from her state of Connecticut, which shows her birth date as April 24, 2005, confirming her current age to be 19, and that she was 13 years old in 2018. The ID is displayed on the head of a fur suit of the character which was her persona at the time.

To clear up any confusion, the victim claimed to be 3 years older than she actually was. So when she states she was 15, she was actually 12, or when she states she is 16 she is actually 13. In his response, Zyph bumps up her age by a year in his rendition of events to make it seem like her age was closer to his, and closer to legal than it actually was. Zyph claims she was 4 years older than she actually was.

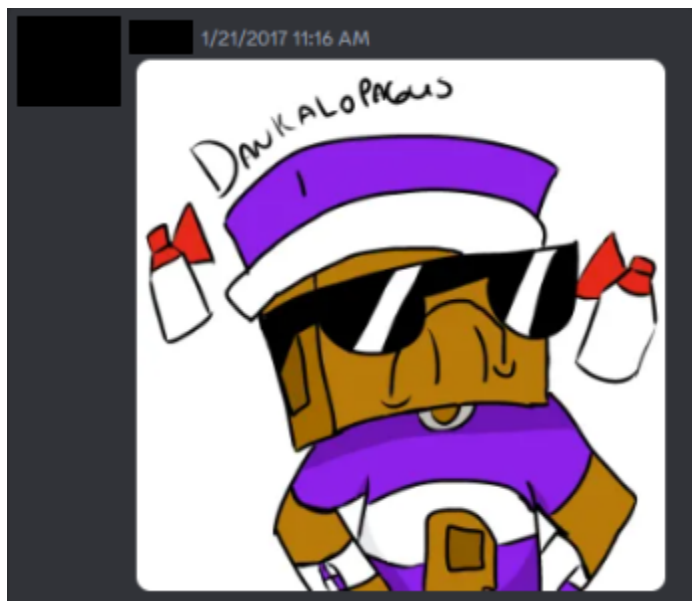

Timeline (Fall 2016 - Spring 2019)

A majority of the timeline's information and screenshots have been provided by one of Zyph's former admins, Lela AKA Polythesia AKA StarsoulerLela, who has been a part of Zyph's community since 2017 and has served as a staff member since 2018. The timeline goes over Lela's first-hand experience as a major community member, admin, and as a witness in regards to the victim and Zyph's relationship over the years. Lela also happens to be the one typing this out right now and will be the one typing out the timeline and credibility sections for the rest of the document. Regardless, I have known about this for 6 years ever since I was 14. I am now 20. I have not been able to act upon this information until now. This timeline is a collection of everything I could possibly find of what I have witnessed over the years, provide further proof of the disgusting actions that Zyph has committed, and to debunk several of his statements made in his response document.

Sometime around 2016, the victim would join Zyph's Discord and would be a consistent fan of his over the next couple of years. She would become quite well known for making fanart for him often. (Chat 2016) #chatlog__message-container-253294960948805633

Because of the consistent fanart the victim would post for Zyph, he would eventually use one of her artworks for a video of his posted on May 19, 2017. Afterwards, he would consistently use her artworks to the point where she would become his official thumbnail artist.

During this course of time, Zyph's channel would only continue to grow, and so would his community. To my knowledge, sometime during 2017, Zyph would get closer to some of his server regulars as well as the victim, and eventually form a group chat called "The Introvert Circle" or "The Circle". Some of these server regulars would be moderators, or go on to become moderators for his Discord server, especially one member named Mnb. The Circle would be mentioned every so often in the general chat on the server. I would also go on to personally befriend/work with these people who were a part of The Circle. While we were unable to obtain logs of this group chat to 100% confirm its existence and the content within it, we were able to reach out to multiple individuals who confirmed its existence, and as stated before it is mentioned in the logs we do have. Information from The Circle will be relevant later down the timeline.

Eventually at some point during 2018 as the victim and Zyph's relationship grew, the victim would develop feelings for Zyph. At one point, she would confide in one of the server regulars, me. I have received permission from the victim to share our DMs. You can see this within the left bottom screenshot.

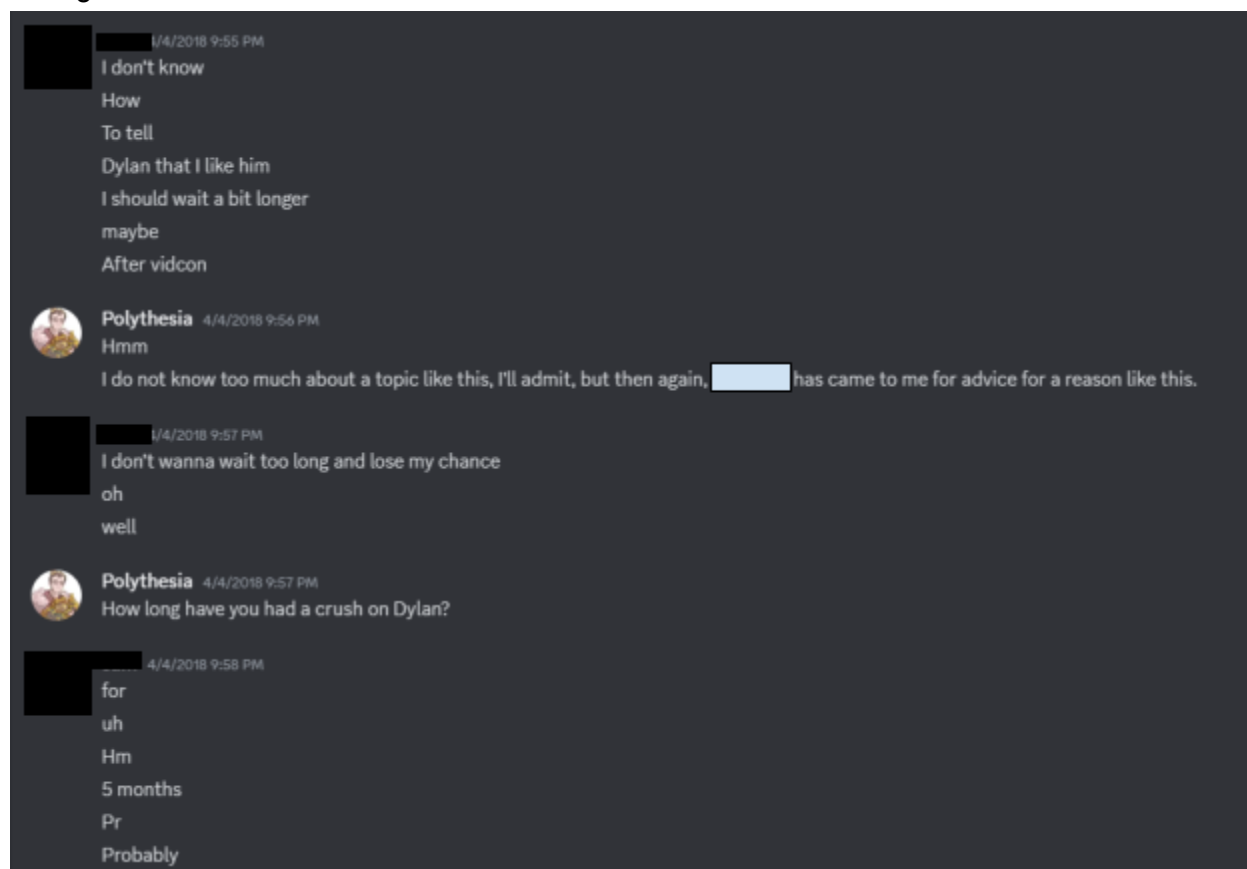

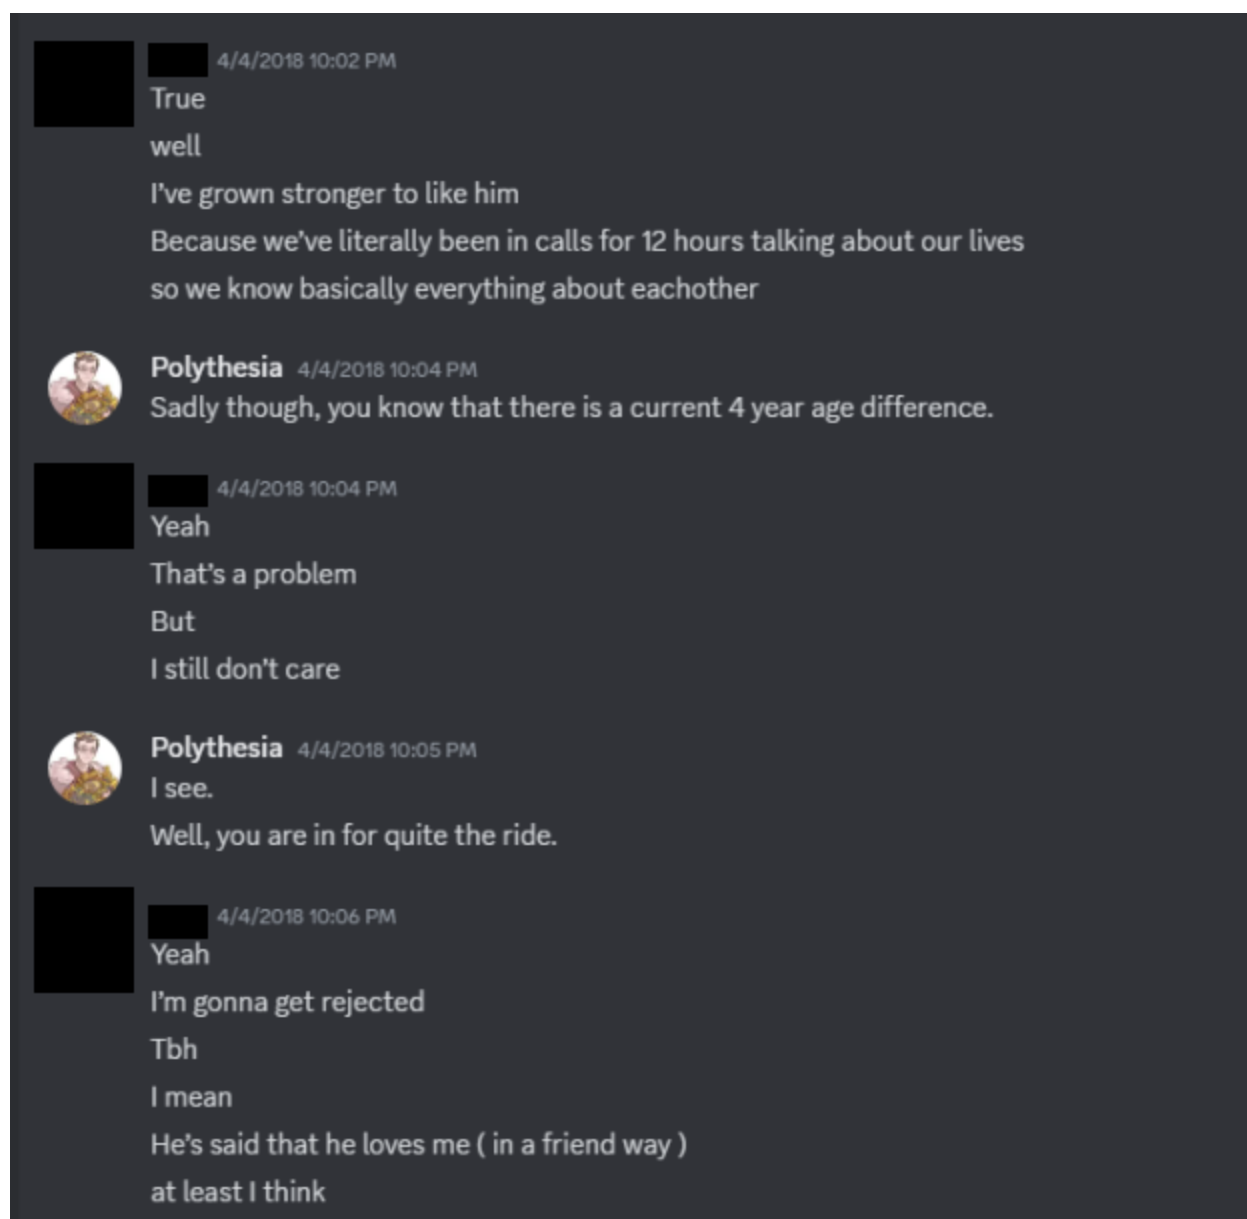

Over the course of the conversation, it was brought up how the victim would be meeting up with Zyph for Vidcon 2018. At one point in the conversation, the victim has brought up her concerns in meeting Zyph and the others. Throughout the conversation, I'd offer my condolences and advice in regards to her anxiety.

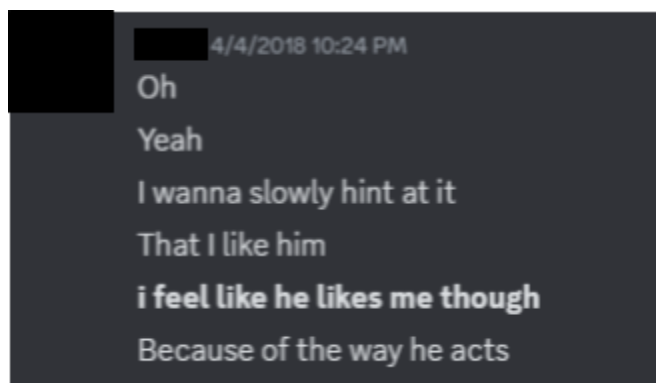

Note this particular above screenshot which mentions her claim that she was 15 at the time during 2018 and that she would be turning 16 in April later that year. Therefore debunking Zyph's statement in his document that she was 16 in 2017 and 17 in 2018.

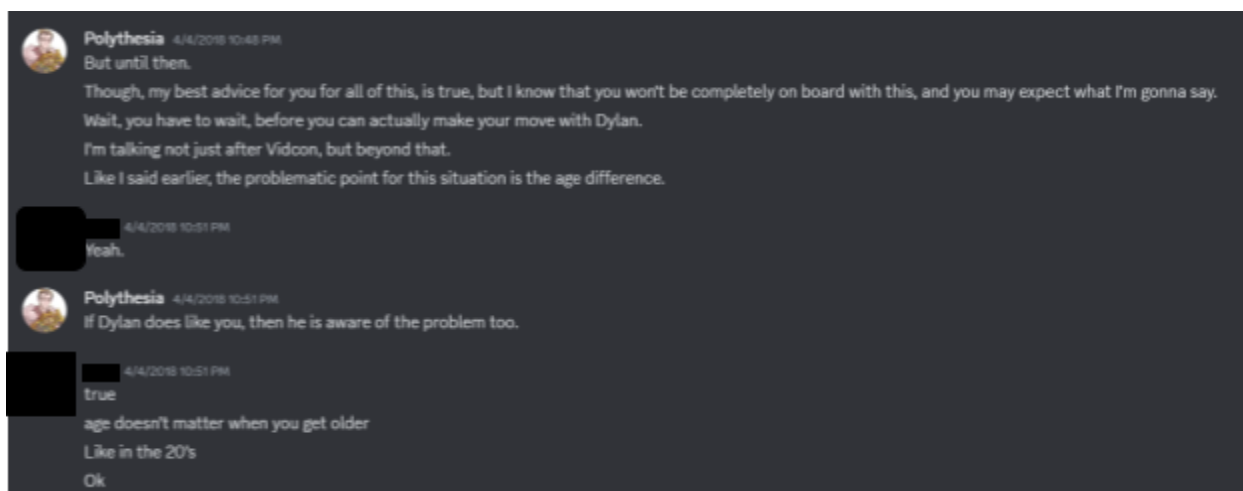

About a month later down the line, the victim would confide in me again about confessing her feelings for him.

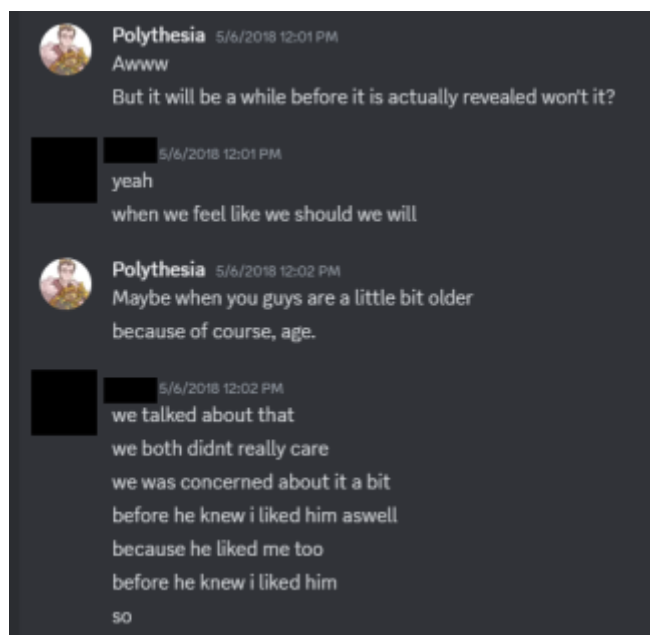

Notice the acknowledgement towards the age difference. In regards to the victim's claims about her age during the time, the relationship would've been a 4 year difference, not 2 as referenced in Zyph's response document (as he stated he believed the victim would turn 17 in 2018). The Twitter DM screenshots below are what the victim provided to me at the time, where both Zyph and her were exchanging affection for each other.

Once again, notice the acknowledgement in age difference.

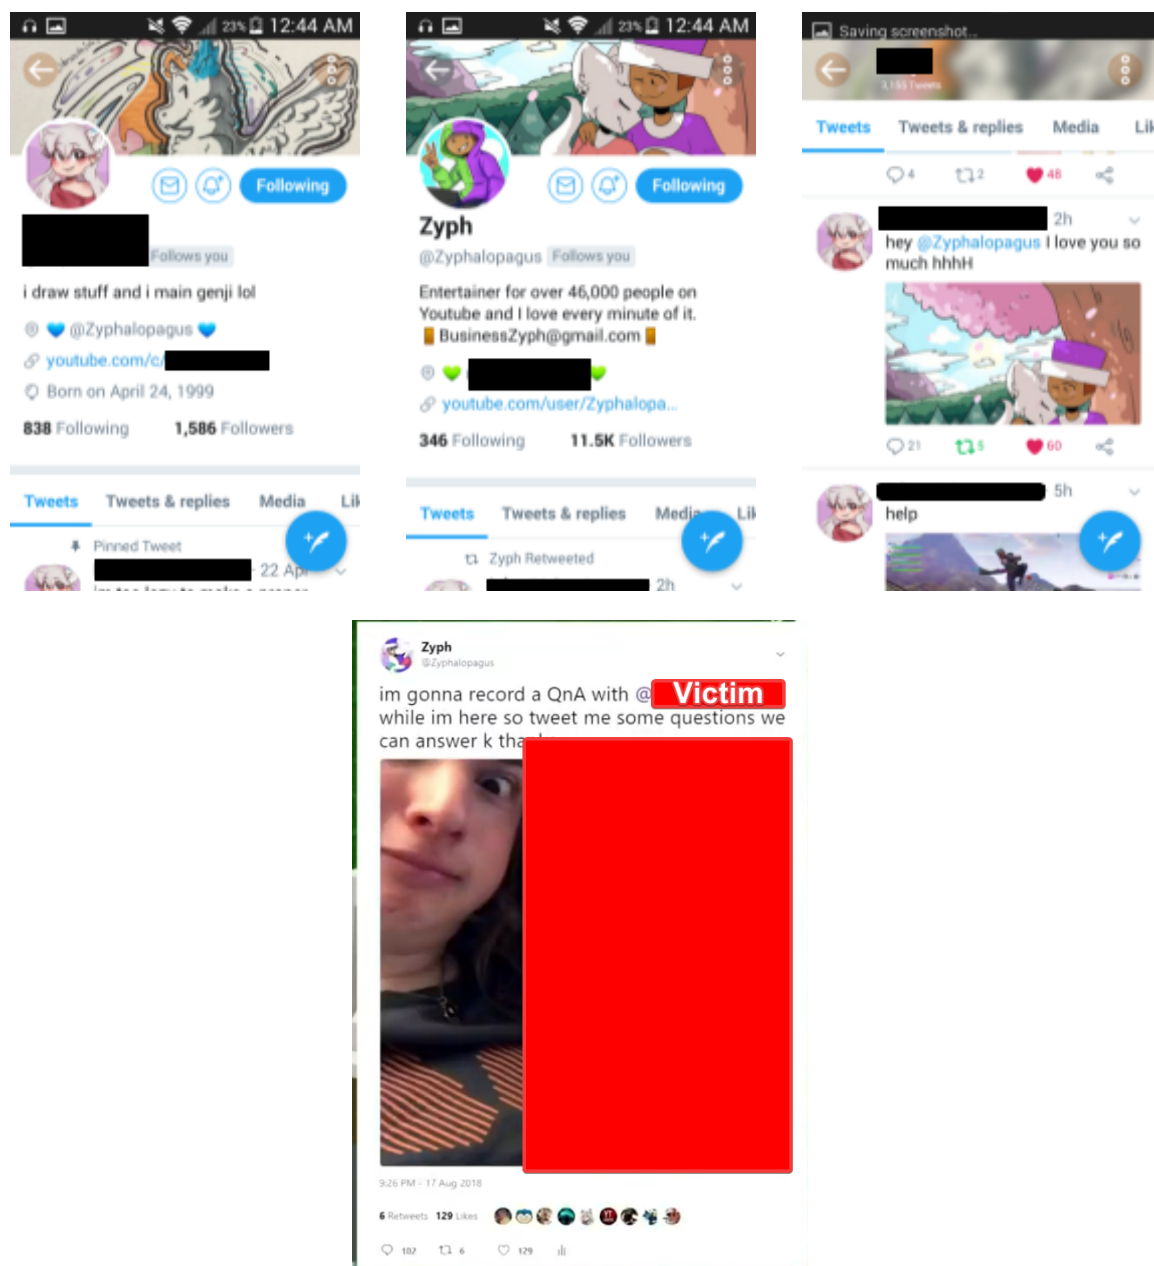

Eventually, the victim and Zyph would get into a relationship a month later. The victim would confide in me once again about this information.

Once again, notice the acknowledgement in the age difference.

I will also admit my support towards the victim and ZypH's relationship in the screenshots and I deeply regret my encouragement. Just know, I was only 13 at the time when I was first witnessing everything and only knew I wanted to put out my support for someone who I considered to be a friend. I did acknowledge the concern of a 4 year age difference, however, I did not grasp the full severity of a relationship like that.

Their relationship became public in ZypH's Discord server in late May of 2018 and was also obvious on their Twitter accounts at the time.

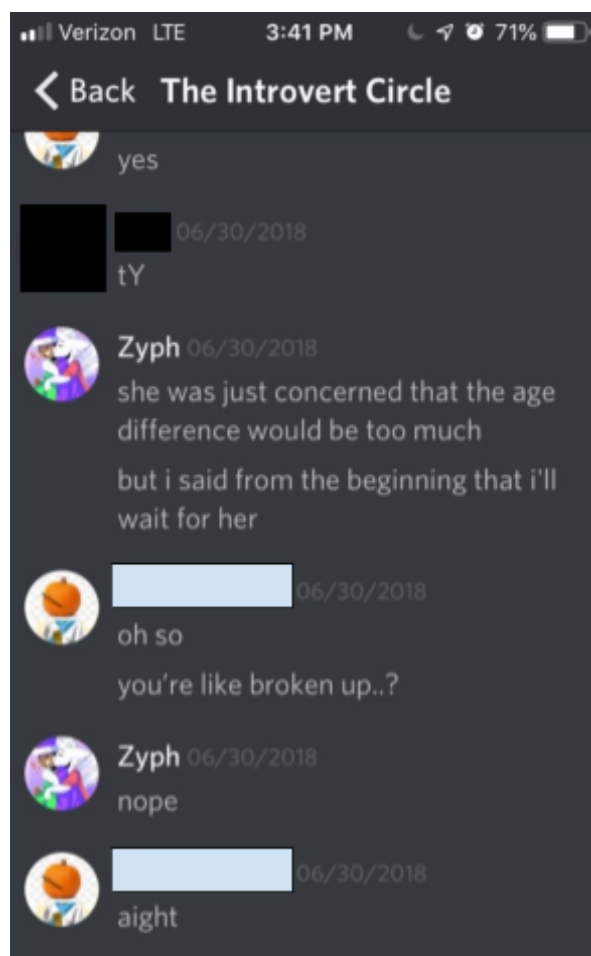

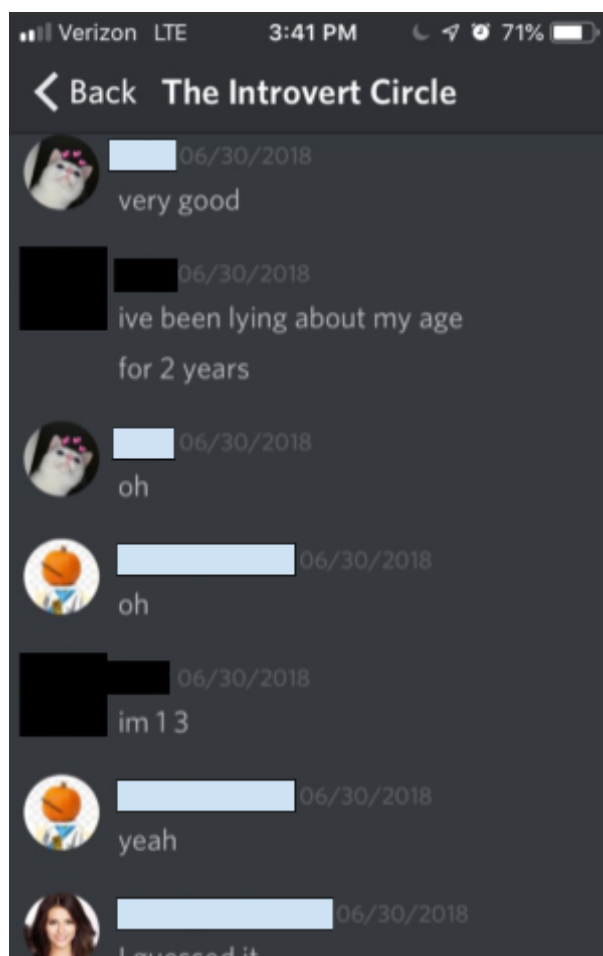

There are multiple instances of Zyph and the victim having met in person, again when the victim was 13/14 and Zyph 19/20. The tweets pictured here were purged by Zyph after the release of his public response to the allegations.

Again, he deleted every tweet of his prior to October 10, 2019. We want to make it clear that most of the creators pictured in the tweet from Zyph were minors at that time and had no idea of the situation.

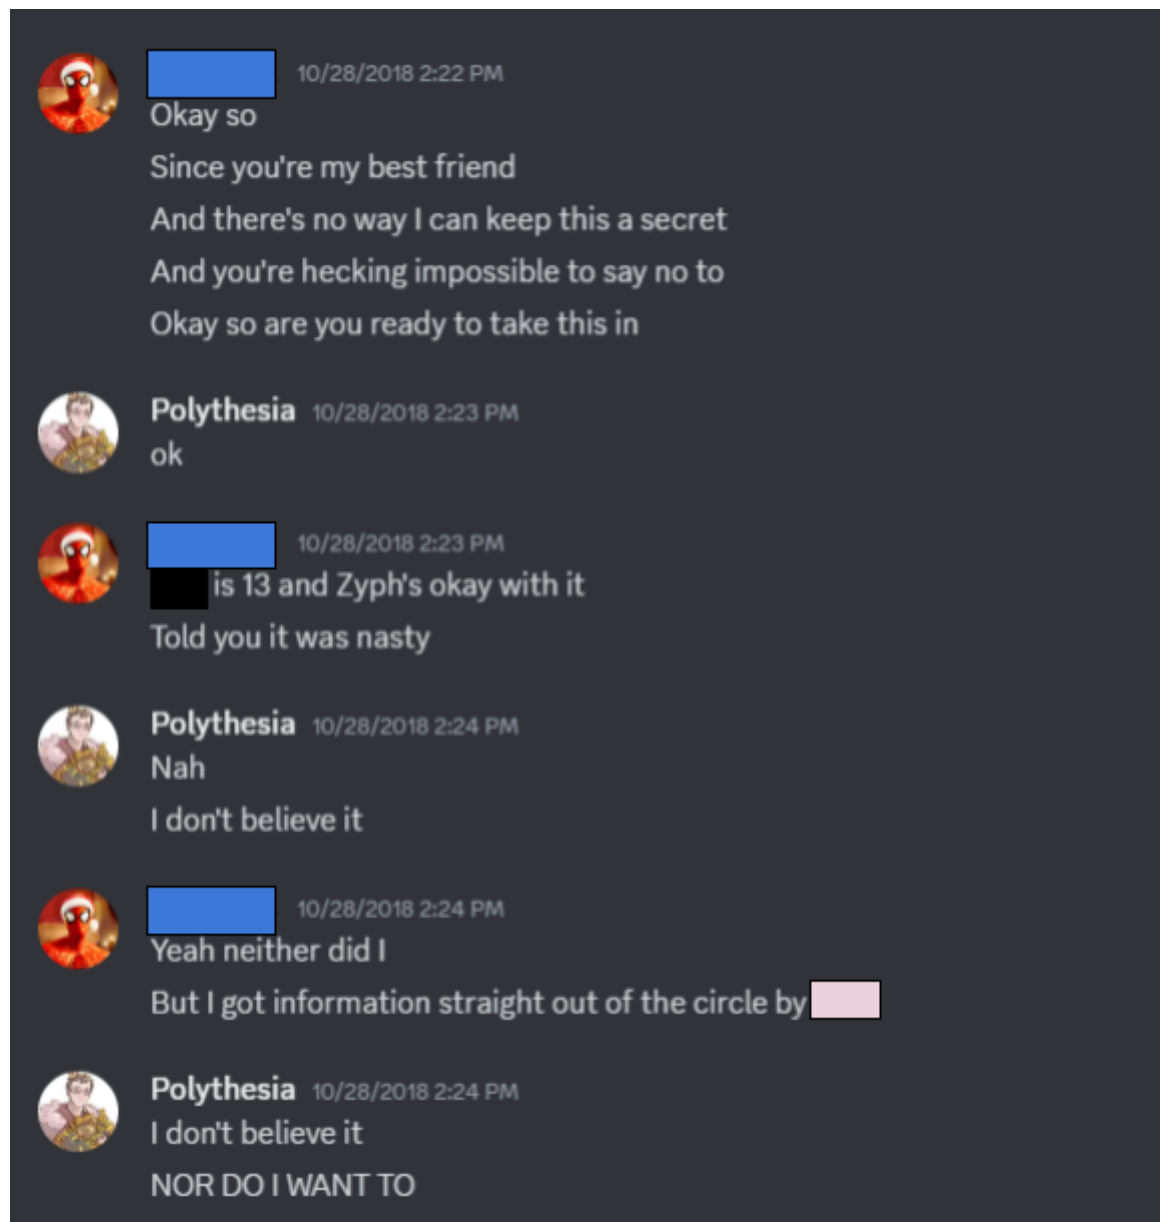

As mentioned previously, there was a group chat called “The Introvert Circle” or “The Circle”, this is where that information becomes relevant. At some point during their relationship on June 30, 2018, after Vidcon, they confided to The Circle about the victim’s true age.

These screenshots provide a lot of confirmations. The victim was 12 years old when she and Zyph developed feelings for each other and was 13 when they started dating. They began dating on May 4, 2018; this is confirmed via messages in the general log from 2018 which shows them wishing each other a happy 2 month anniversary on July 4th. Zyph was aware of the fact she was 13 and yet, decided to continue engaging in a romantic relationship with her despite knowing her true age.

After this information was announced, one of those people within The Circle would end up confiding into other server regulars over the course of the year. Below are screenshots of a conversation I had with a former friend of mine, in which this former friend was one of the people that the victim's friend confided in. This was also the exact moment I found out about the truth.

During this time, I was a moderator and have worked with the victim and Zyph to help run the server. Of course, being only 14 years old, I was unsure what to do with this information and was afraid of being involved in any form of discourse. I ultimately decided to not do anything about it, however, I held onto that information.

This information would continue to circulate in the background, below are conversations the victim's friend had with someone who was also in The Circle at some point. The former has given me these screenshots and here, they discuss the severity of the age difference and Zyph's willingness to go through the relationship regardless.

Timeline (April 1, 2019)

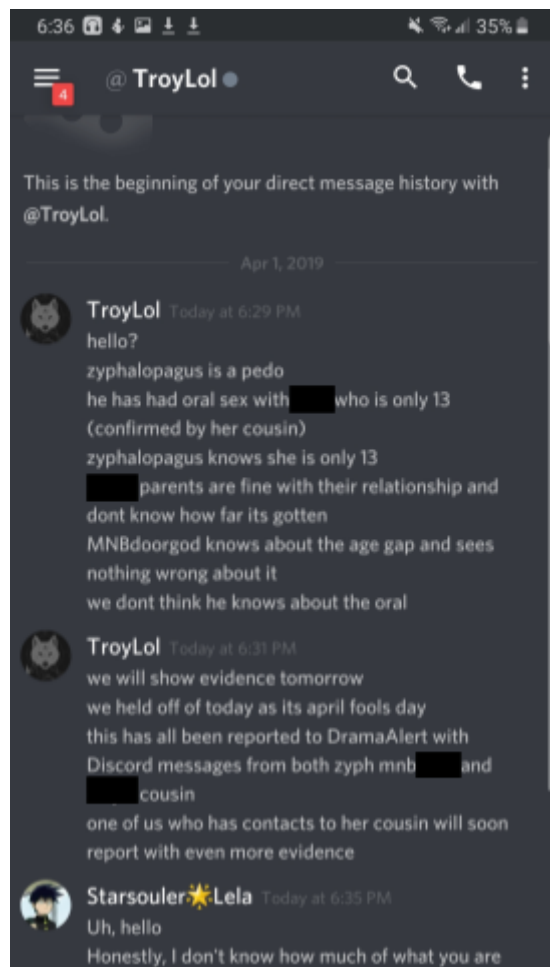

This next section will feature screenshots from within the staff chat, so it will include messages from the staff members during this time. I want to make it clear that two of the staff members were unaware of the victim's true age and were only working with what they knew at the time. Earlier in this document, I've noted one of the staff members, Mnb, as he was a part of the Circle. Thus, Zyph and the victim were aware of Mnb's knowledge about the victim's true age, however they didn't know that I had this information. Because of that, I had to pretend I didn't know. As the situation unfolded, Mnb would enable their relationship and reference how the victim's true age was leaked from the group chat.

Around late March of 2019, at some point two of the victim's cousins managed to reach out to the victim's friend in regards to the victim and Zyph's relationship.

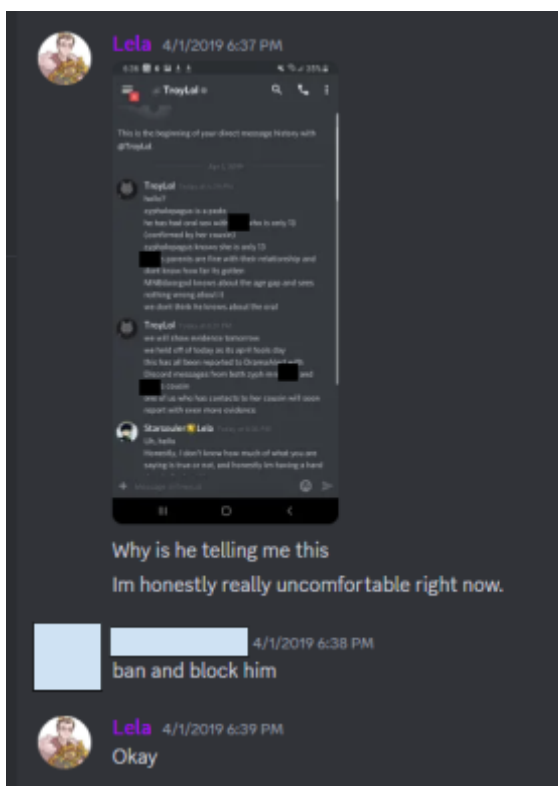

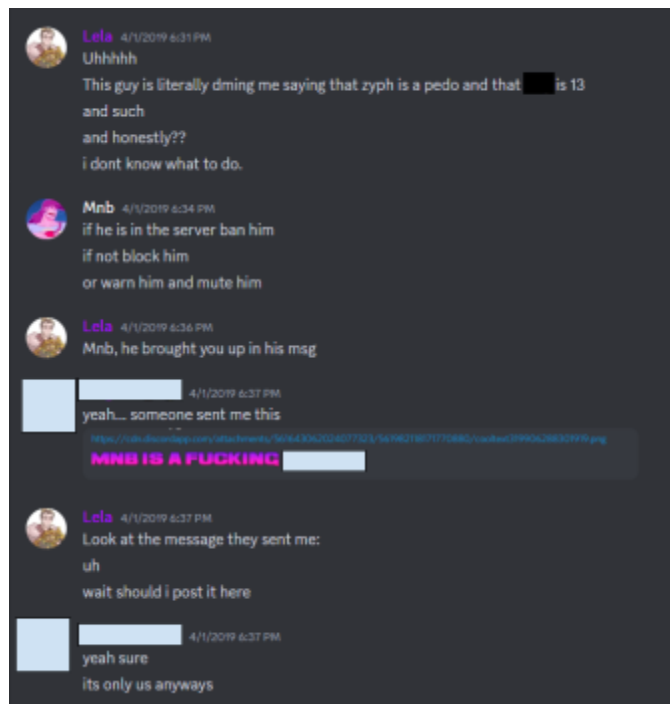

The cousins would confide into the friend about the victim's true age and the sexual assault committed towards her.

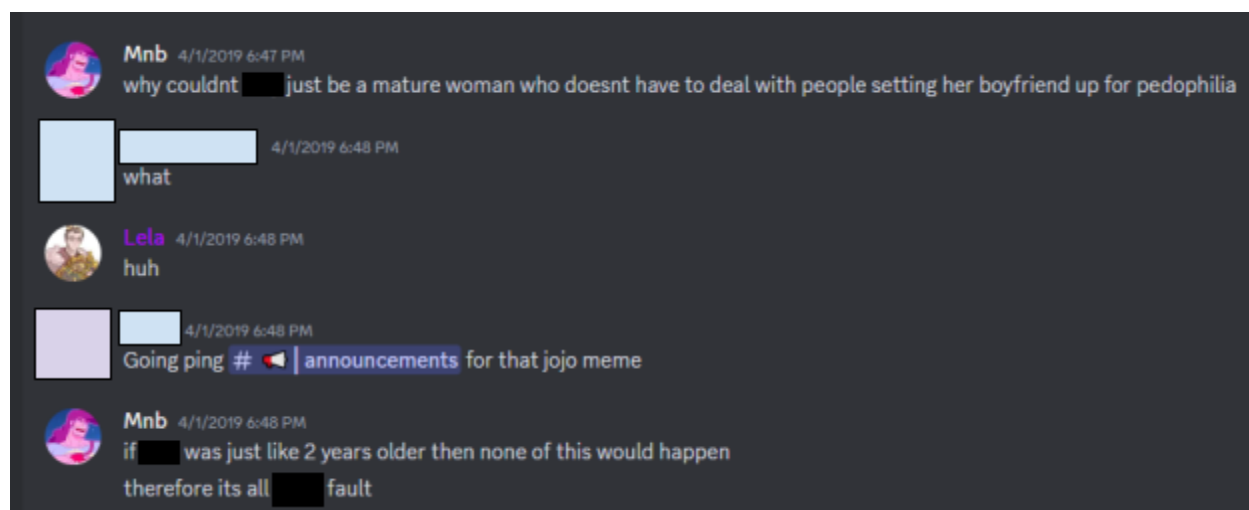

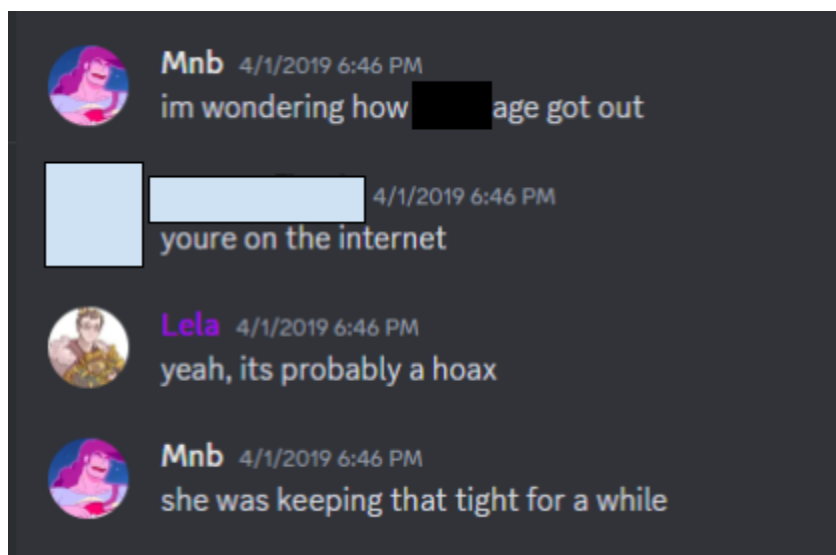

On April 1st, I received a DM from someone I didn't know about the situation with Zyph and the victim.

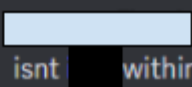

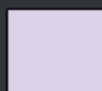

I ended up confiding in the staff team about this. One of the staff team members also received a DM.

As the discussion continued, Mnb started talking about the victim's true age, and how the information possibly has gotten out.

  4/1/2019 6:48 PM

 Mnb 4/1/2019 6:49 PM
but the entire controversy is that zyph is 6 years older than which to middle schoolers means he is like twice the age and therefore a pedophile so they are trying to get attention by shouting that

  4/1/2019 6:49 PM
LOL ZYPH ISNT 6 YEARS OLDER WTF

 Mnb 4/1/2019 6:49 PM

The other two staff members didn't believe in what Mnb was saying, and Mnb would stop bringing it up.

Timeline (April 3, 2019)

On April 3, 2019, the cousins and the friend continued to make this information public, starting with Zyph's Discord server.

As the situation continued to unfold, Zyph's staff team began working on damage control. Later on down this conversation, I would mention how the day before I received a video from the same person featuring footage of Zyph and the victim together on the victim's living room couch from a third person perspective. The video can be found in Google Drive. (as lawandorder.mp4)

Lela 4/3/2019 7:09 PM

4/3/2019 7:16 PM

lolz guy sent me a friend request lol

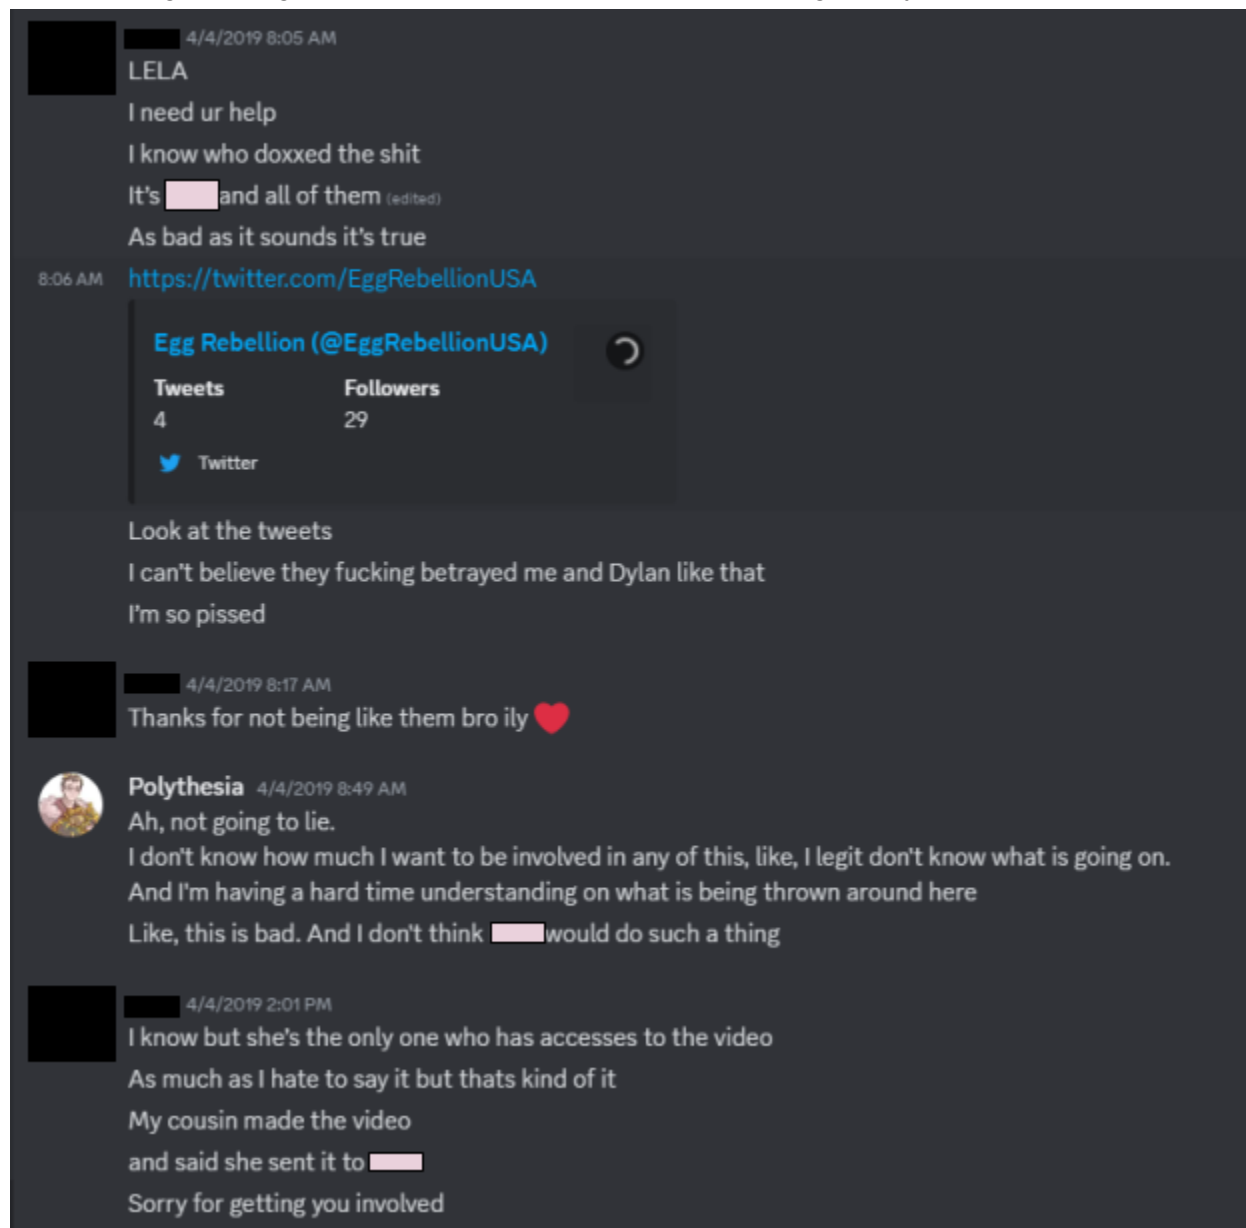

Eventually Zyph would join in the conversation and opted for damage control. The victim would join later on as well saying how her information got leaked.

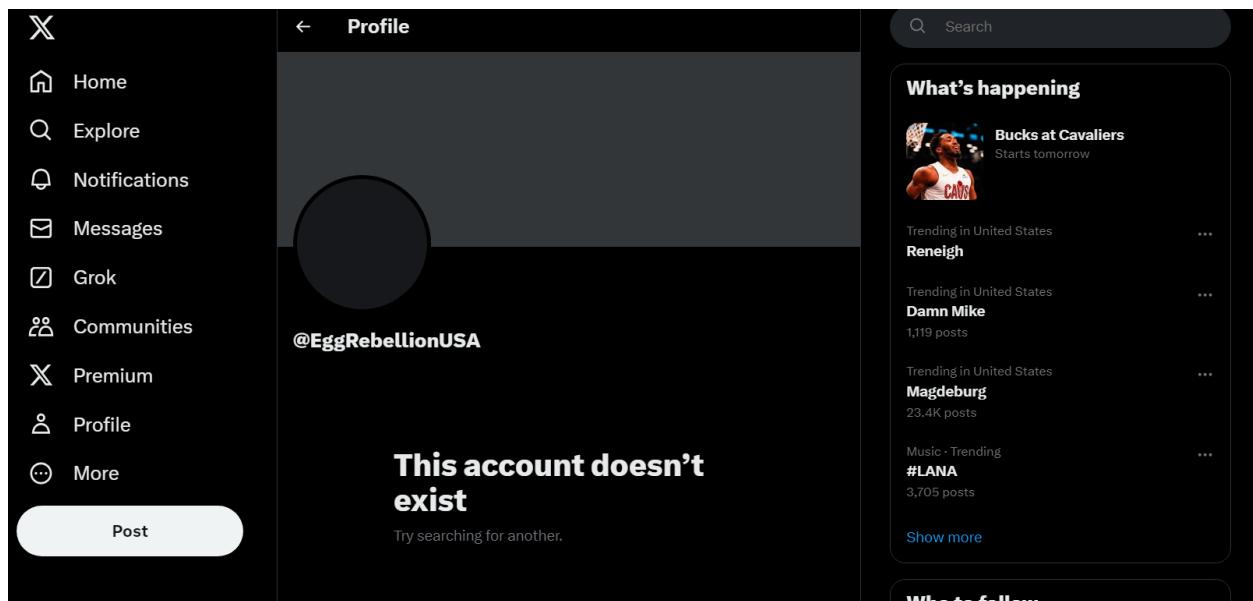

Timeline (April 4, 2019)

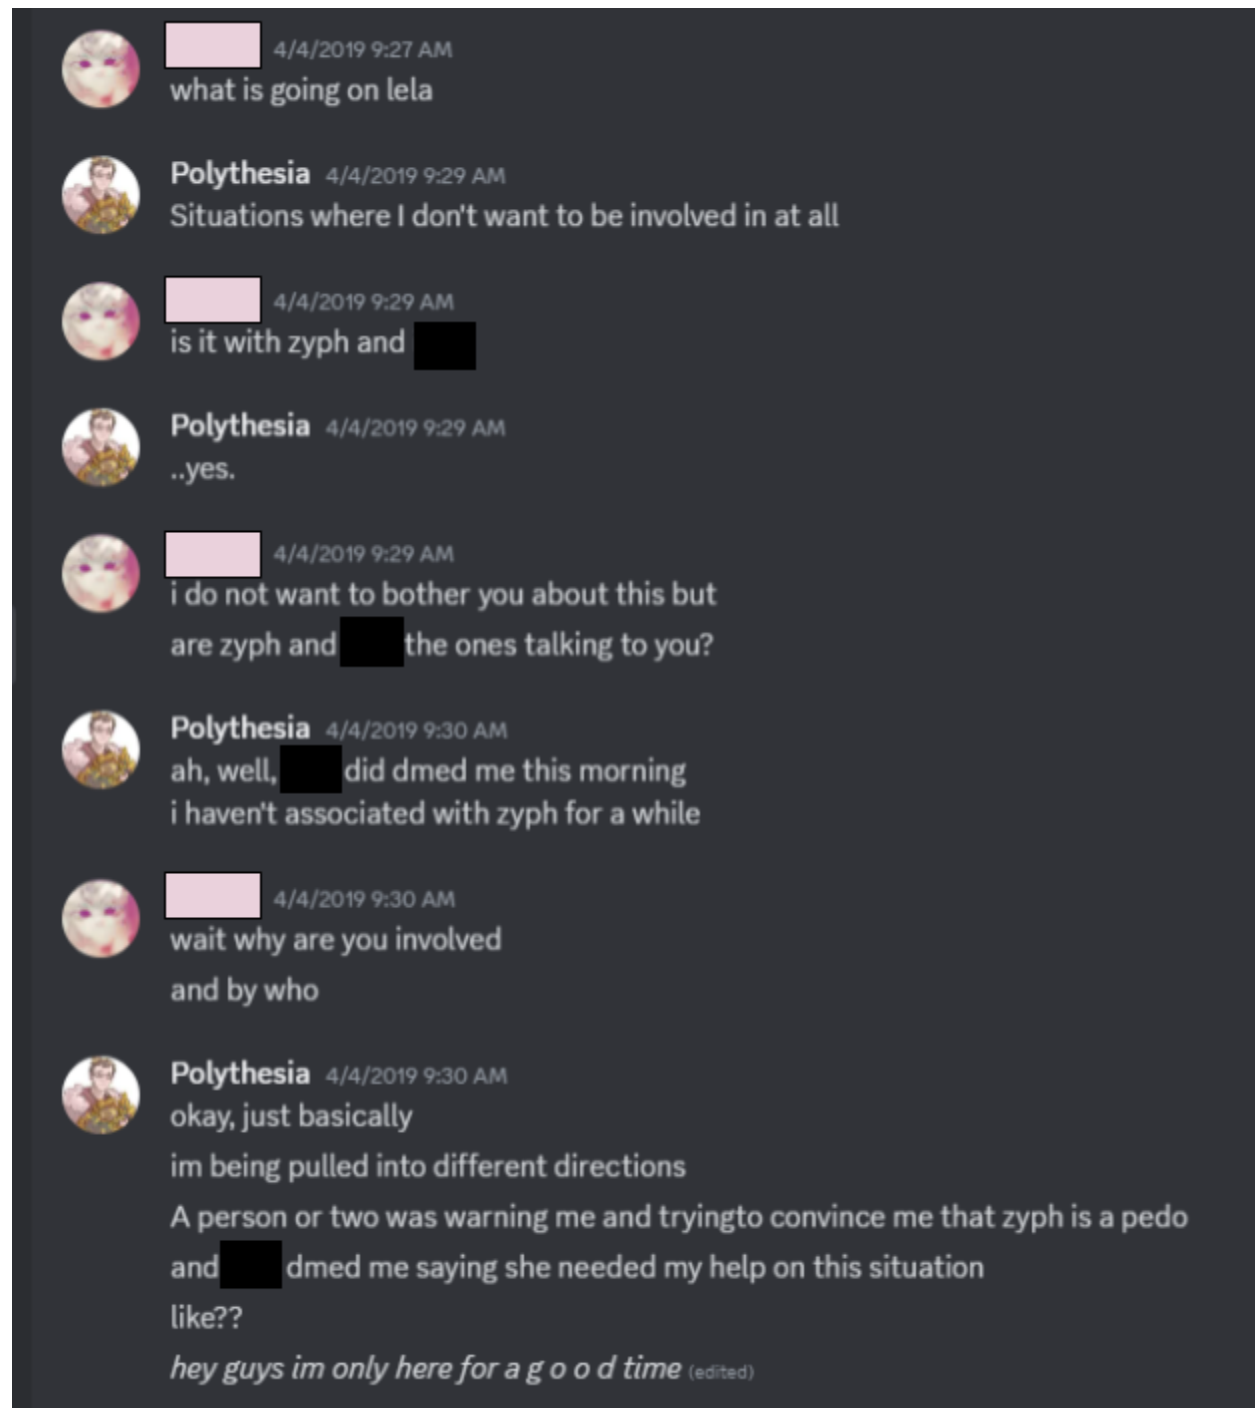

The following morning I woke up to a DM from the victim asking for my help in all of this.

Once again, the victim and Zyphe were unaware that I knew about their true age and in the screenshot, I was opting to not get involved in any of this. Regardless, in the screenshot, the video that was sent to me and is in the Google Drive was confirmed to be from her cousin sent to her friend. The friend ended up making an account called @EggRebellionUSA that would be used to expose the true nature of Zyphe's relationship. That account has been deleted however.

After the victim had dmed me, I also received a dm from the victim's friend (the same one who was hosting the first of the original allegations and had contact with the cousins).

4/4/2019 9:32 AM

i know who those people are that were convincing you i dont think you want to get involved but let me tell you dont let [REDACTED] get near zyph
please

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:32 AM

I honestly don't know what to do or how to stop that

4/4/2019 9:32 AM

if she asks you for help
i dont think you should help her, there are already people that are going to help her

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:33 AM

I already told her that I don't know how much I really want to be involved

4/4/2019 9:33 AM

yeah
i wont tell you too much and i'll explain this to the entire community once its over

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:33 AM

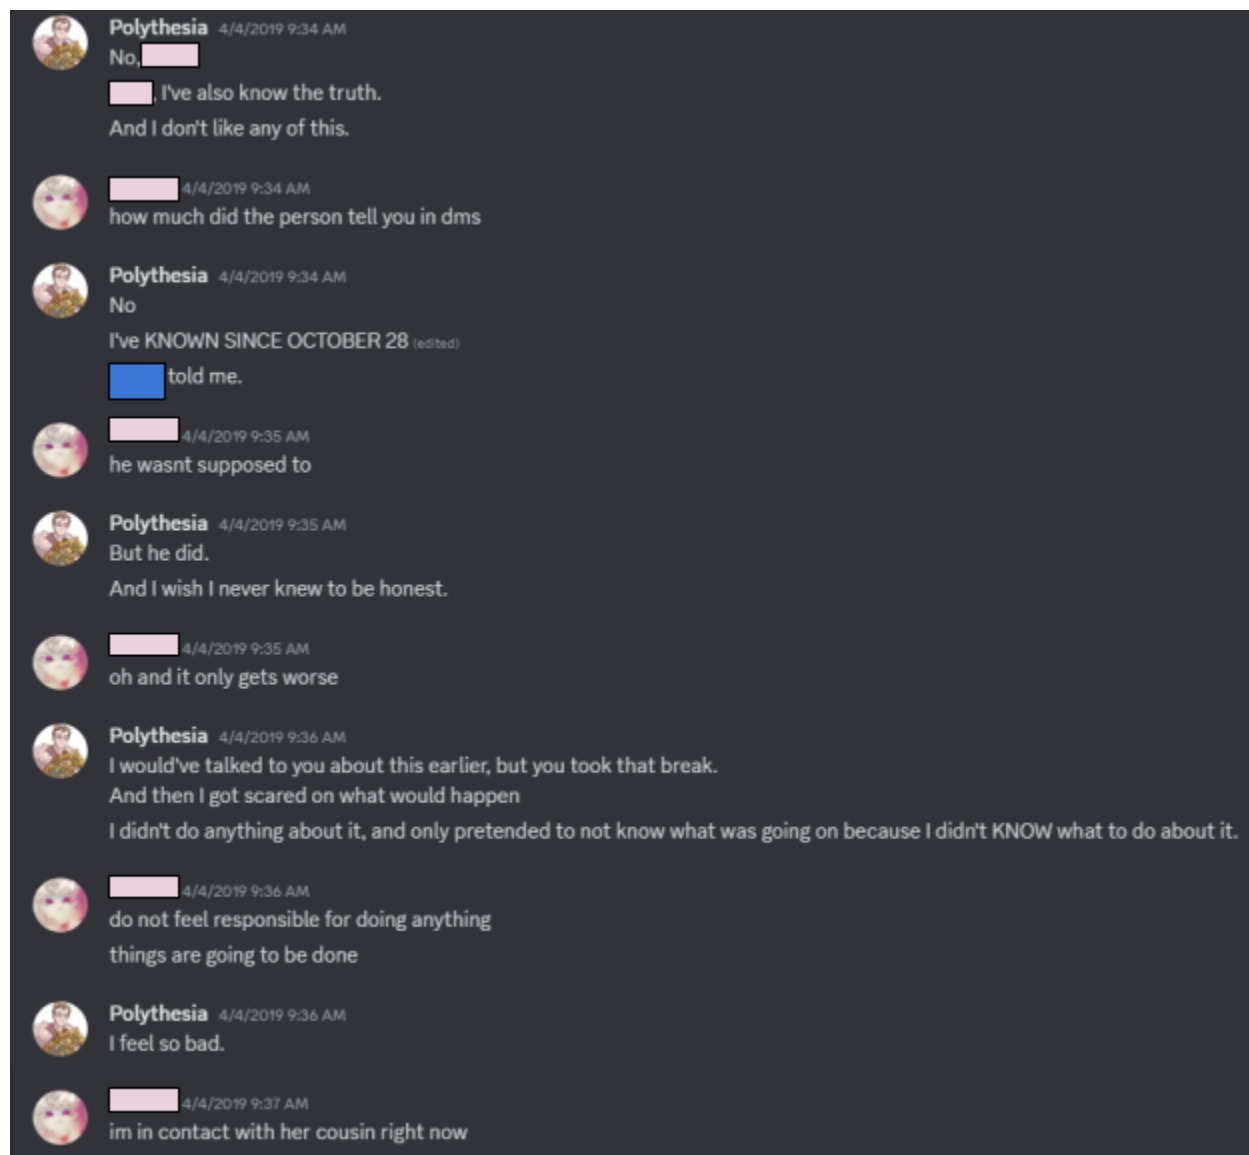

God, I can't take this anymore.

4/4/2019 9:34 AM

its ok

Eventually I confided in the friend that I've always known.

4/4/2019 9:40 AM

I know

her cousin will take care of her

i told her cousin that about that i showed her [REDACTED] private account tweets

9:40 AM

and yeah i dont want zyph's server to go either believe me, that place is my fucking home

but i care more about [REDACTED]

zyph is fucking disgusting and cruel and he is going to pay

i dont even want to be associated with that dickhead

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:42 AM

He is a full blown adult, he should know better

I don't understand why people would do that.

4/4/2019 9:42 AM

he has manipulated her into doing very bad things

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:42 AM

Why would you fuck this up? Not only for yourself but for others

[REDACTED] is vulnerable

Zyph isn't

4/4/2019 9:42 AM

she is

she just wants someone to care about her she thinks zyph is all that cares

she blocked me on everything already and removed me from the gcs im in with her

4/4/2019 9:44 AM

you know the very very very general things

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:44 AM

Im sure there are more details to this

4/4/2019 9:44 AM

there are

i am talking with her cousin rn in a gc with a bunch of other people who dont support

4/4/2019 9:45 AM

yeah

i dont want to worry you with this but

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:45 AM

4/4/2019 9:45 AM

Zyph is going to go to jail

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:45 AM

How so? Will actual cops be called?

4/4/2019 9:45 AM

Yeah

Her cousin is going to get in contact with the police

Polythesia 4/4/2019 9:45 AM

Good.

And what about exposing him?

Will that be done?

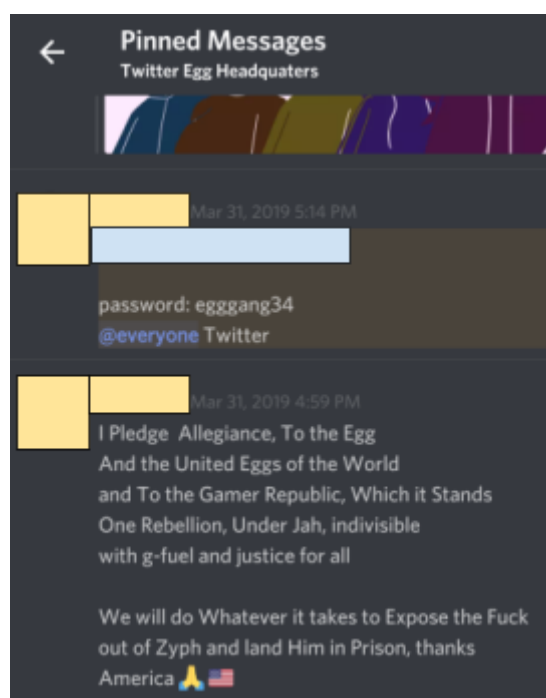

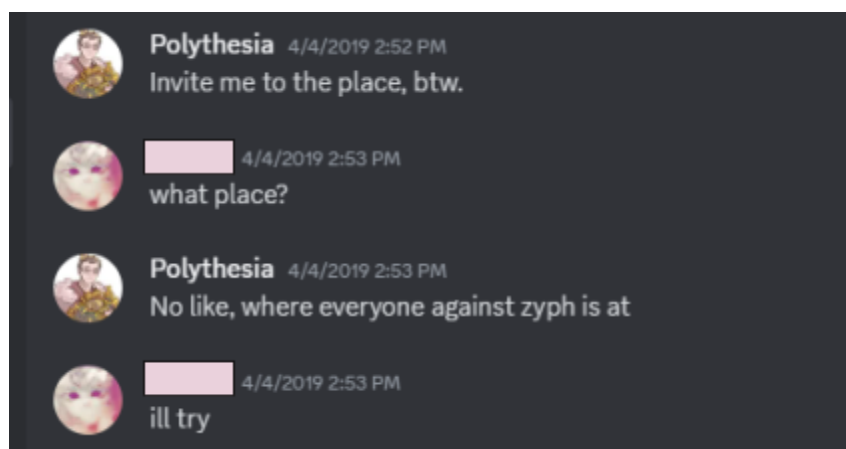

4/4/2019 9:46 AM

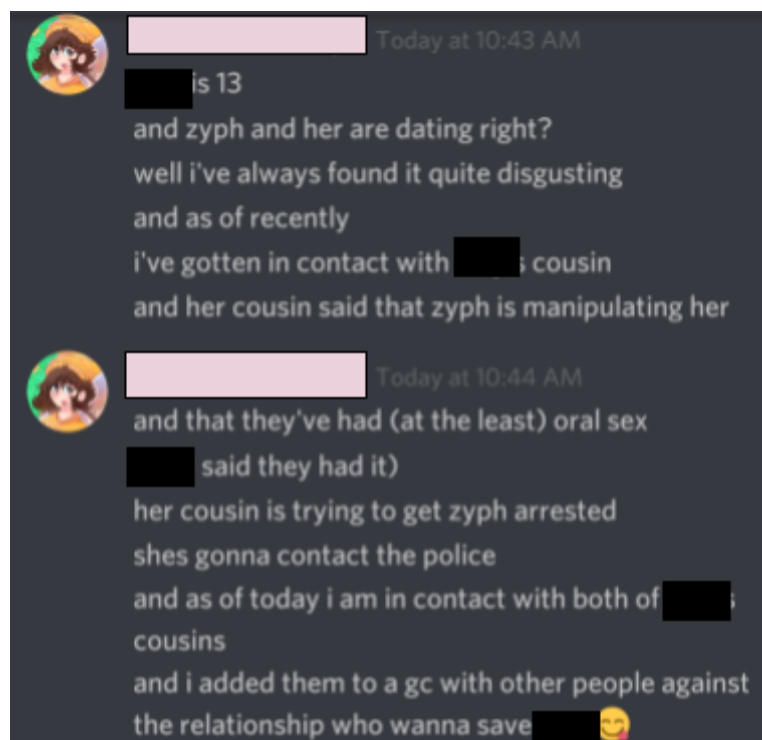

I will do it

after it all unfolds

the community deserves an explanation

As mentioned in these DMs, there was a group chat that was being hosted by the friend and other fellow community members during this time. At one point I was pulled into this group chat due to my knowledge of the victim's true age. While I ended up leaving the group chat and did not take any screenshots, I have received screenshots from a friend who was also a part of that group chat at the time. Below are the pinned messages of the group chat and me asking for an invite from the friend to speak to the rest of the members.

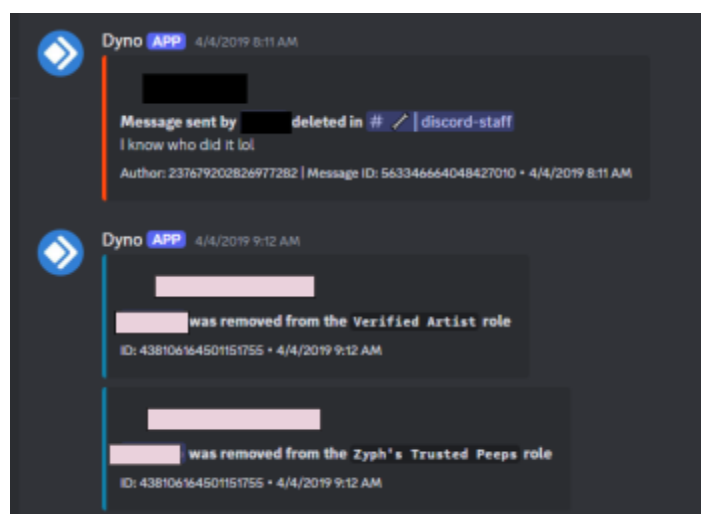

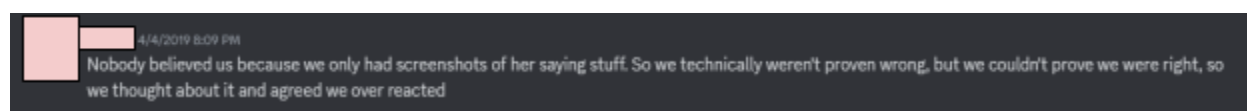

The left screenshot features the friend convincing one of the server members to help with the allegations against Zyph.

On the EggRebellionUSA Twitter, the friend and others would post the screenshots from The Circle for the public eye, however they would tweet out those screenshots only. Due to the group's lack of solid evidence, lack of elaboration, and poor execution in explaining the situation and the allegations, they ultimately failed to hold the allegations against Zyph and ended up receiving backlash from the majority of the community. The friend would get kicked out of The Circle during this situation and was unable to back-up the screenshots. Multiple of the community members received bans from Zyph's Discord, messages were deleted, and the victim's friend ended up deleting her account.

it died when like 90% of the active people got banned

 17/05/2019 18:30
yeah
Admins are no fun

 17/05/2019 18:32
Out of our control, Zyph personally banned them

 17/05/2019 18:33
wait what why it was zyph?

 17/05/2019 18:33
So zyph went the people in Real Life and hit them with a hammer? 🤔

 17/05/2019 18:33
Wtf

 17/05/2019 18:34
They were spreading rumors about him etc
so he banned them

 17/05/2019 18:34
With no proof?

 17/05/2019 18:34

 17/05/2019 18:34
No proof or fake proof

 17/05/2019 18:34
i mean it's rumors

 17/05/2019 18:34
Is what they posted

 17/05/2019 18:35
No, like they had a whole thing, twitter group etc

I ended up talking to the victim's friend afterwards. As it turns out, Zyph was making the victim reach out to everyone who was behind the allegations in an attempt at damage control.

Polythesia 4/4/2019 11:33 PM
Oh boy

4/4/2019 11:33 PM
[redacted] was trying to convince me to tweet it too

Polythesia 4/4/2019 11:33 PM
Yeah I still have my doubts

4/4/2019 11:33 PM
she sent me this and said please zyph is telling her what to do while she was trying to convince me to tweet it but i didnt do it

i just unadded her so she would stop dming me

As for what happened to the cousin's attempts to contact the police, this is the last thing I've heard in regards to that fact. I am unsure if the cousins ended up going through with it.

[redacted] 4/4/2019 11:36 PM

i do not know

[redacted] (older one) said she was definitely going to contact the police its a matter of when she is nervous

and i wont rush her

Polythesia 4/4/2019 11:38 PM

do encourage her though.

Its a big step.

[redacted] 4/4/2019 11:38 PM

i have been

i have been telling her that this will make things a lot better and that its for the better and that it will help [redacted]

Lela 4/4/2019 8:04 PM

Manager Door Bot 4/4/2019 9:28 PM

@Zyph, you're more active than Zyph's social life, well done! You reached level 32

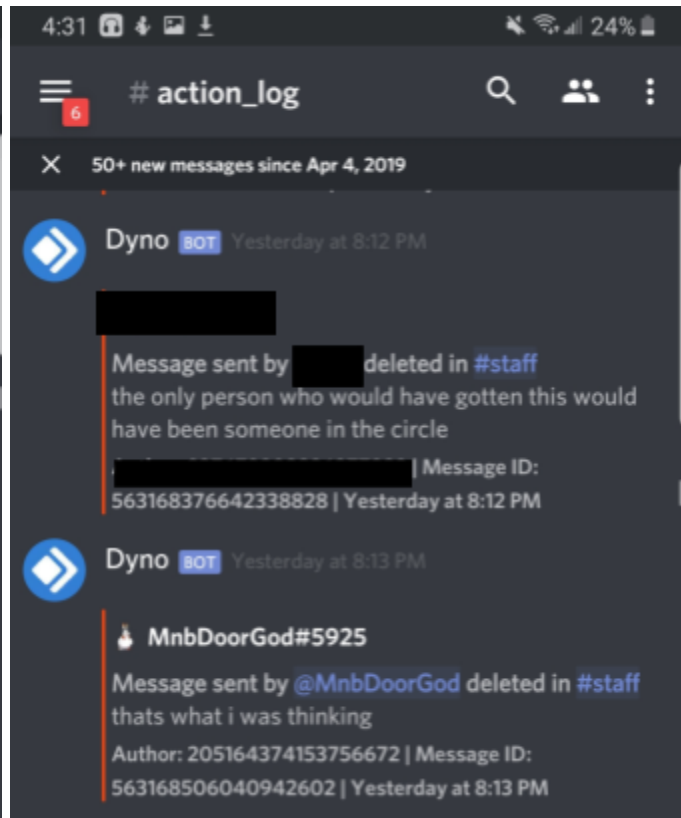

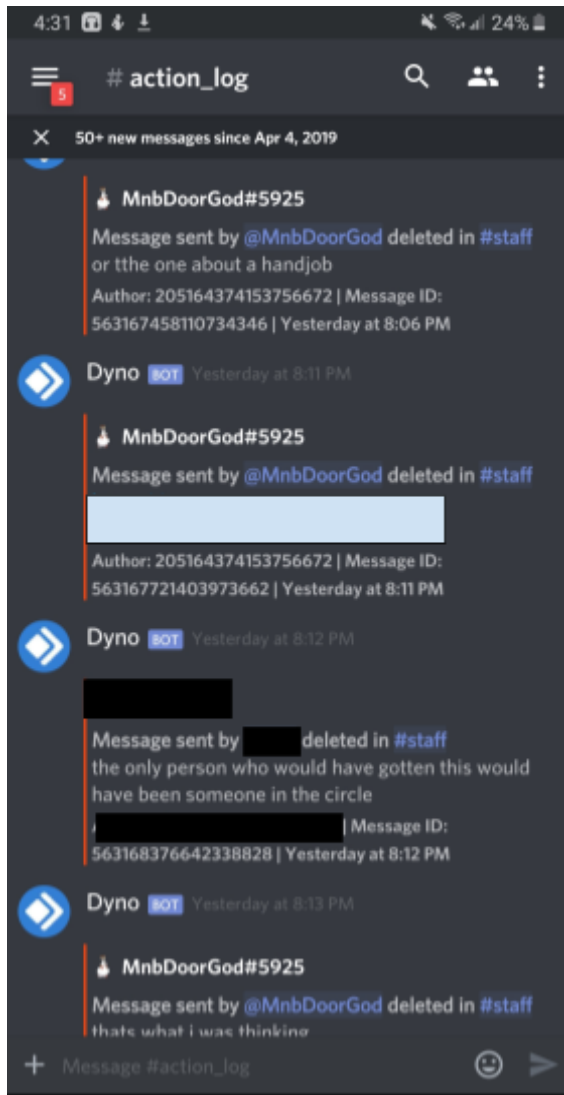

Zyph 4/4/2019 9:28 PM

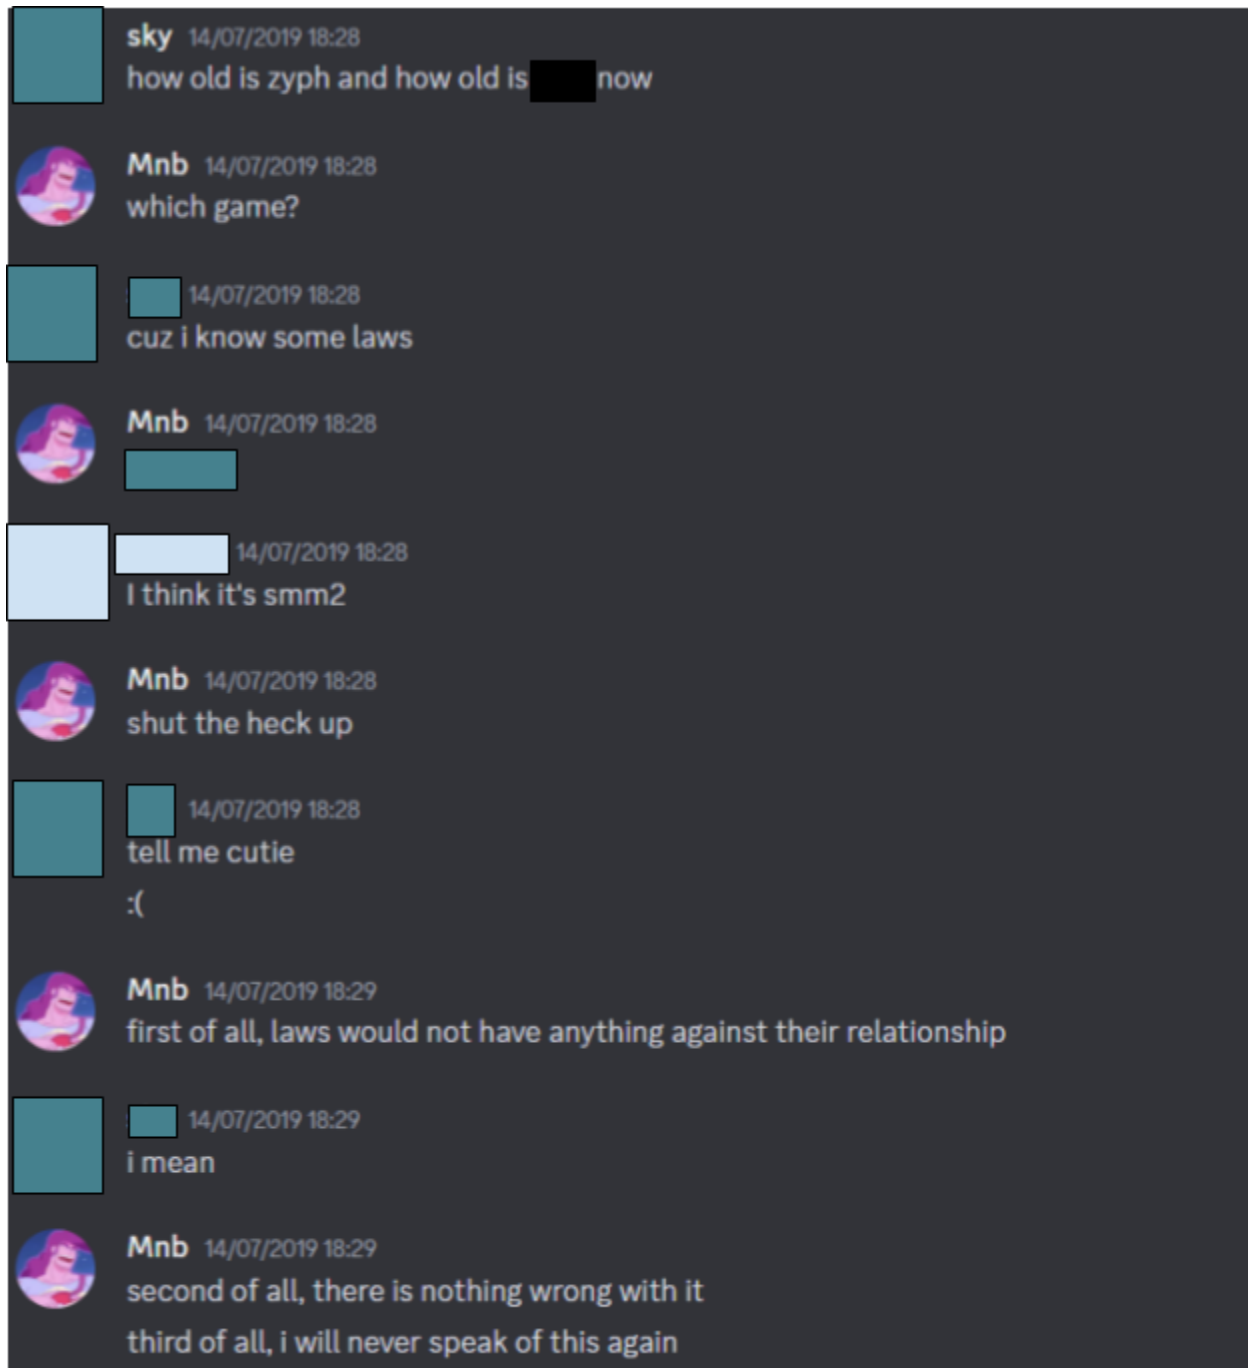

If they change in the future then i can unban them myself until then dont do anything
Thanks to all of yall for clearing out all the shenanigans and misunderstood info about our relationship

As this conversation was occurring, the victim and Mnb had this exchange that I have managed to save. This cannot be found in the action-log anymore as this conversation has been presumably deleted. (Action log April 2019)

#chatlog__message-container-563167513467289600

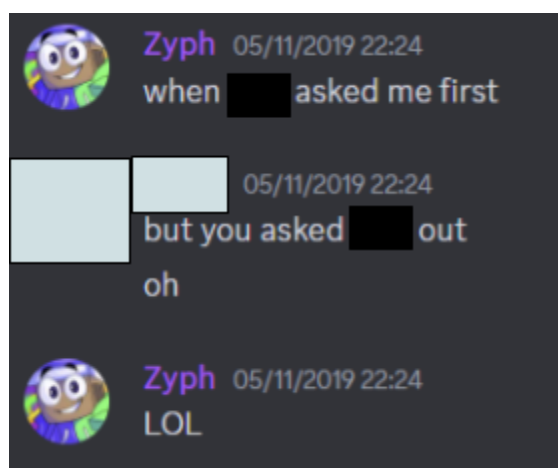

There is also another instance of Mnb enabling their relationship after the incident.

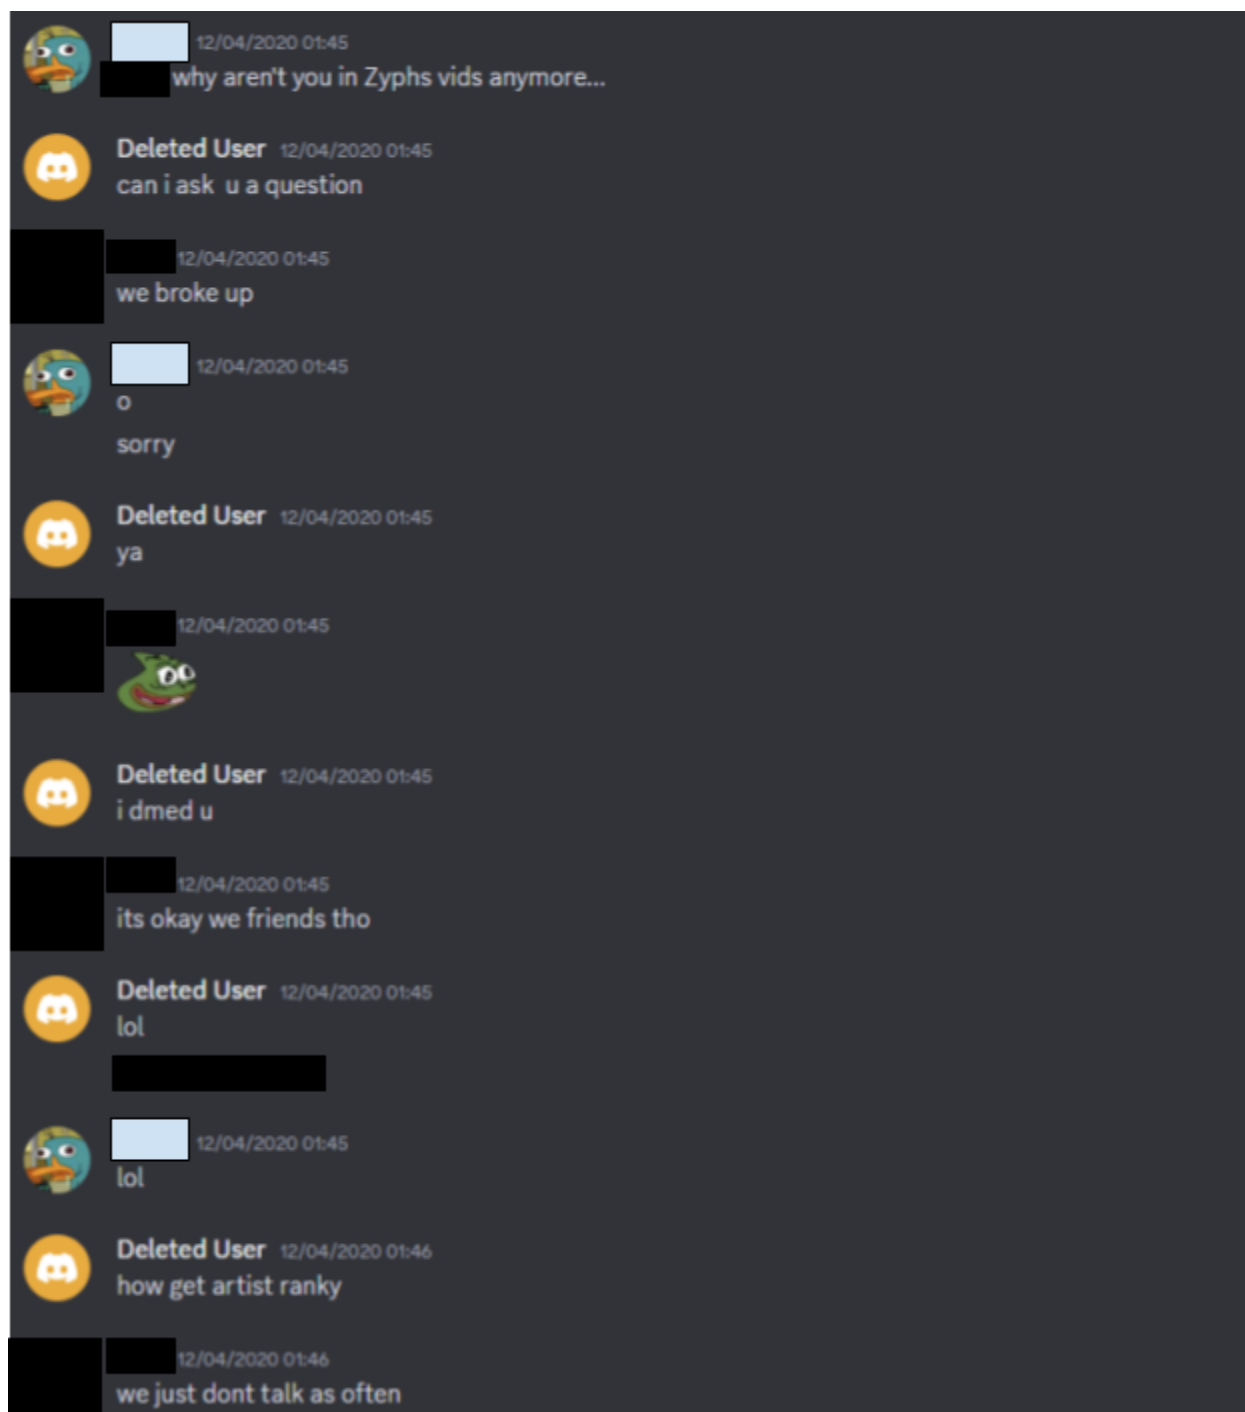

I do recall that after this incident, Zyph and the victim would remove the romantic status of their relationship from the public eye and would continue dating in the background. Sadly, I do not have any screenshots of this occurrence.

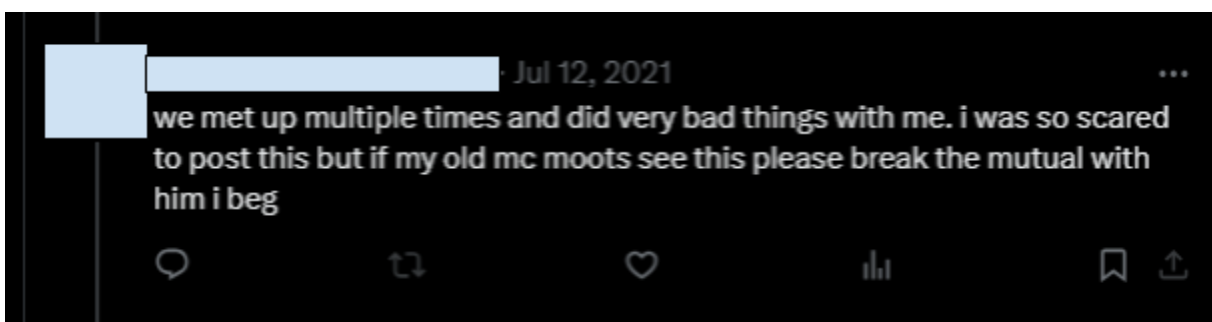

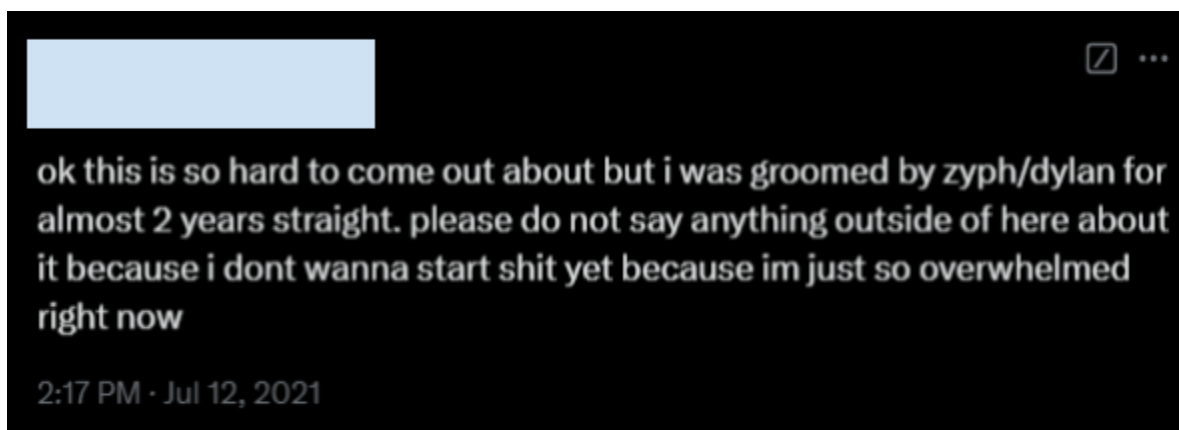

By March 2020 Zyph publicly acknowledged that they were no longer in a relationship via his Twitter account. The victim claims their relationship ended in July 2019, and Zyph claims September 2019. His statement of half a year aligns closer to his statement, and possibly coincidentally, he has deleted all of his tweets prior to October 10, 2019, exactly half a year before he stated they were no longer dating. They would drift apart after the break-up.

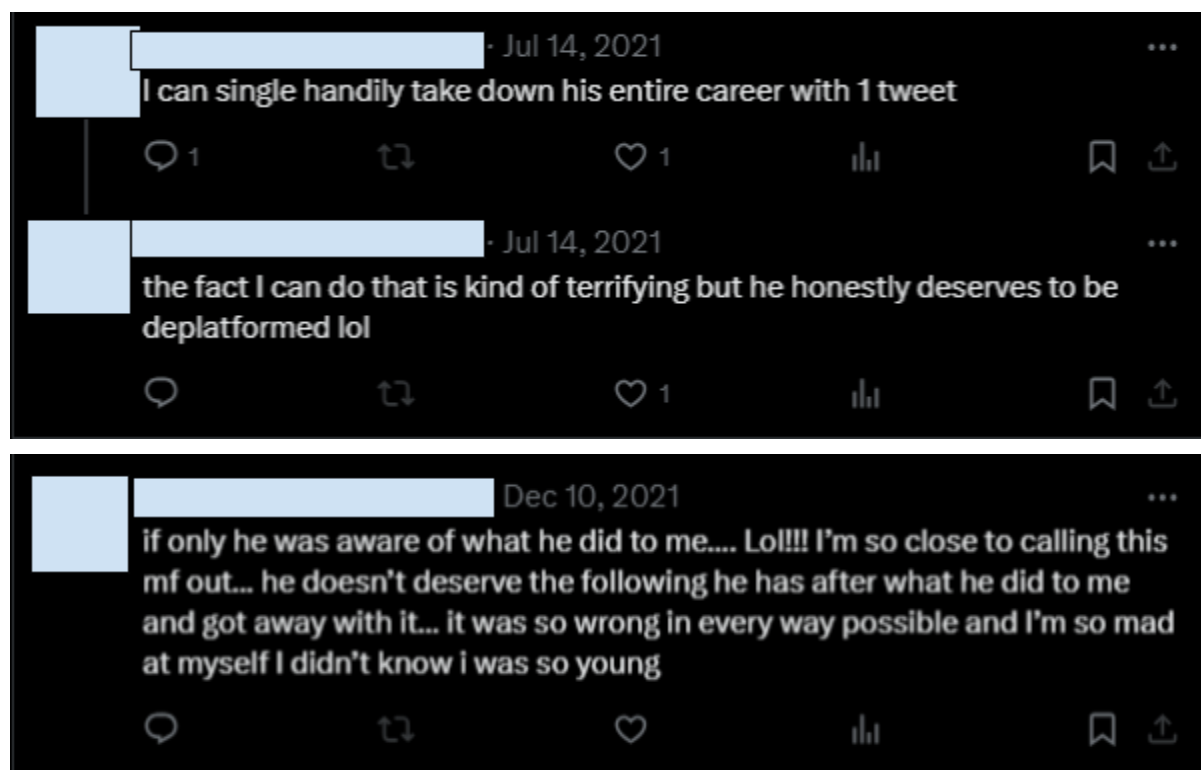

Interestingly Zyph claim's the victim asked him out first, even though in the private QnA video they claim it was a mutual agreement. (Search the video folder for Who Asked Who Out First.mp4)

As the years would go on, I would eventually drift away from Zyphe's community and my role as a staff member. I would occasionally appear in chat and speak to the other members, however anything in regards to the situation would be of no mention. That is until July 12th, 2021 when the victim posted the following tweets on her private account. I have been granted permission to share these tweets.

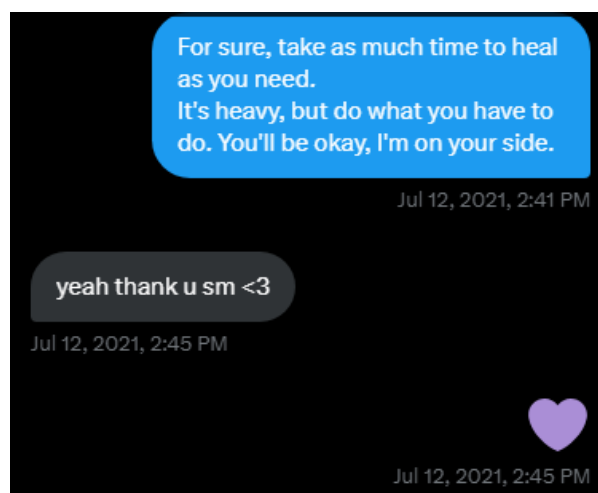

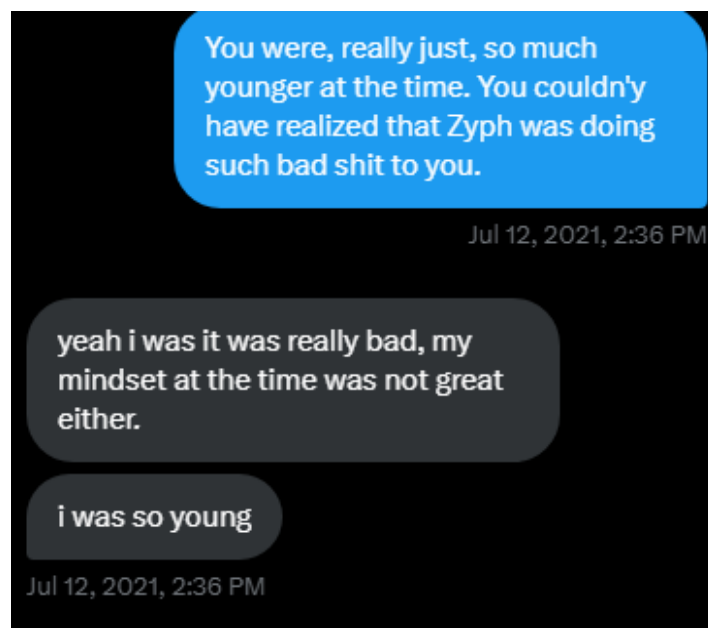

She would continue to occasionally tweet about Zyph afterwards.

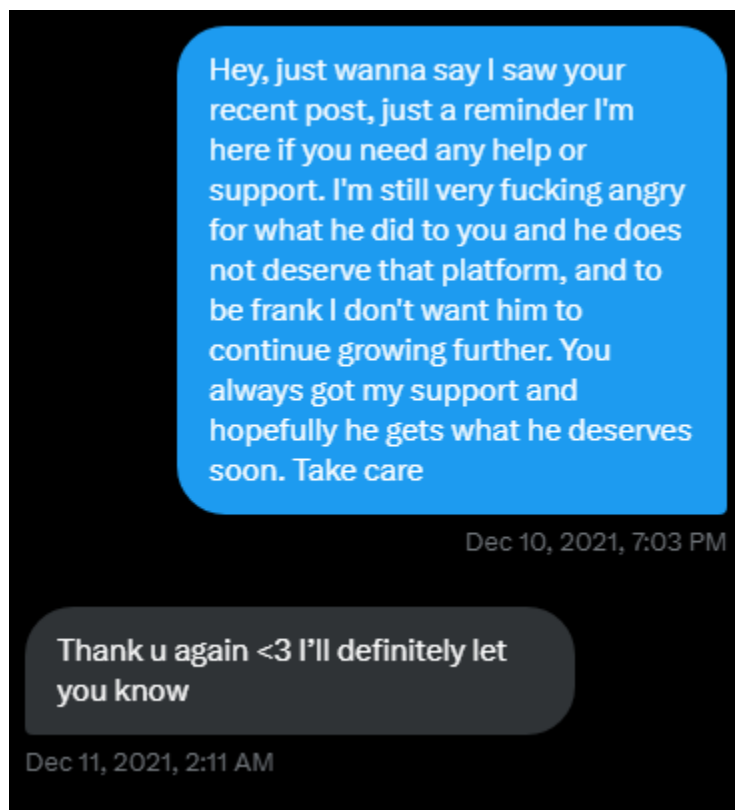

I reached out to the victim in regards to the tweets to support her and to explain to her that I've always known.

After that conversation, I would also DM the victim again on December 10th of that same year.

Over the years, the victim would move on and detach herself from the Minecraft community as much as possible. Zyph would continue to upload, but overtime would become less relevant within the community due to his inactivity. I genuinely believed that the situation would never be brought up again (or at least to my knowledge was never brought up again), until this past week and now, 6 years later.

Confirmation from Others

To help verify some of the information here within the document, I've reached out to people who were there during these events to help verify the existence of things such as The Circle, and the events that occurred from early April of 2019. For privacy reasons, they have all been censored.

The first person is someone who used to be close to the victim's friend, was a part of the April 4th events, and was in The Circle at some point.

The person above was a staff member for Zyph at some point. In the second-to-last screenshot, the person mentions how there used to be a Stardew Valley playthrough with some of The Circle's members. The last screenshot shows Zyph mentioning the Stardew playthrough and the person's part in it. This further adds credibility that the person was there and was in The Circle at some point.

The second person is someone who used to be a server regular and got involved in the events of April 4th. They were a part of the victim friend's allegations group chat and some of the evidence during the April 4th section was provided by them.

Polythesia Yesterday at 6:07 PM

oh really?

do you remember who else was also in the gc?

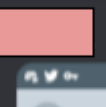

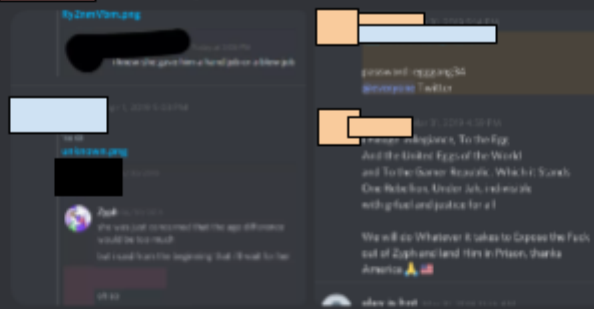

Yesterday at 6:09 PM

uuuhh.. I think it was me, [redacted] and [redacted] there were a couple more cause I think it was 8-10 people at some point but that's who I remember

Yesterday at 2:43 AM

Yesterday at 2:42 AM

The third person is one of the people from the staff team, and they have been within Zyph's server since at least 2017. While they were never a part of The Circle, they were aware of its existence.

The third person is someone who was in The Circle at some point as well and was a longtime member of Zyph's community. This is the same person who had and provided the conversations with the victim's friend as shown around the April 1st section of this document

I just wanted to see if you could confirm any details of like the existence of a group chat named The Circle

And anything else you know about [redacted] what occurred during the first set of allegations, and anything else peculiar about Zyph and [redacted] relationship?

[redacted] Yesterday at 8:54 PM

Yes the circle did exist. I was apart of it for a little bit then left because at the time there was a limit on amount of people you could have to a group and I had to leave so we could get [redacted] cousins in. [redacted] as in [redacted] I don't remember much about her but I do remember she was strongly disgusted by everything involved relating to the relationship. We made the group the circle to have a private talk with her cousins to somewhat expose zyph. Everyone who was a part of it got banned besides me (I eventually was unbanned) and I think mnb was a part of it and wasn't banned as well. I remember getting banned and dm'd [redacted] asking her what was going on and explained the situation and got unbanned. I slowly moved away from the community after that because the heart of the community was banned and it was a community anymore. They were some of my closest friends at the time and I was devastated that this had happened all cause we tried to do what was right. I was only a part of the beginning of the circle and wasn't able to see what went down in the rest of the time of it being a group chat. My memory is a little hazy from that time so there is definitely stuff I missed. I was closer with [redacted] than zyph but I was still close with him being that we were at one point in the same smp and I discovered him at 700 subs. All I remember is they would hang out in Vc all the time and [redacted] would always be excited to see him. I mean what girl wouldn't be excited to see this famous guy you've been watching? Ya know it's just unfortunate that this had to have happened to her when she was expecting to meet her idol.

Polythesia Yesterday at 9:00 PM

Right

Yes

Thank you for the information

For further clarification, I was referring to The Circle as in the friend group chat that people like Zyph, [redacted], [redacted], [redacted], Mnb, and etc., would used to be in.

Did this group chat with the cousins was also called "The Circle"? I do recall that there was a group chat called Egg Rebellion Headquarters (or something of the likes) that featured [redacted] and other server regulars to expose Zyph

And Mnb was a part of it as well, however he was enabling [redacted] and Zyph's relationship despite knowing the truth

[redacted] Yesterday at 10:39 PM

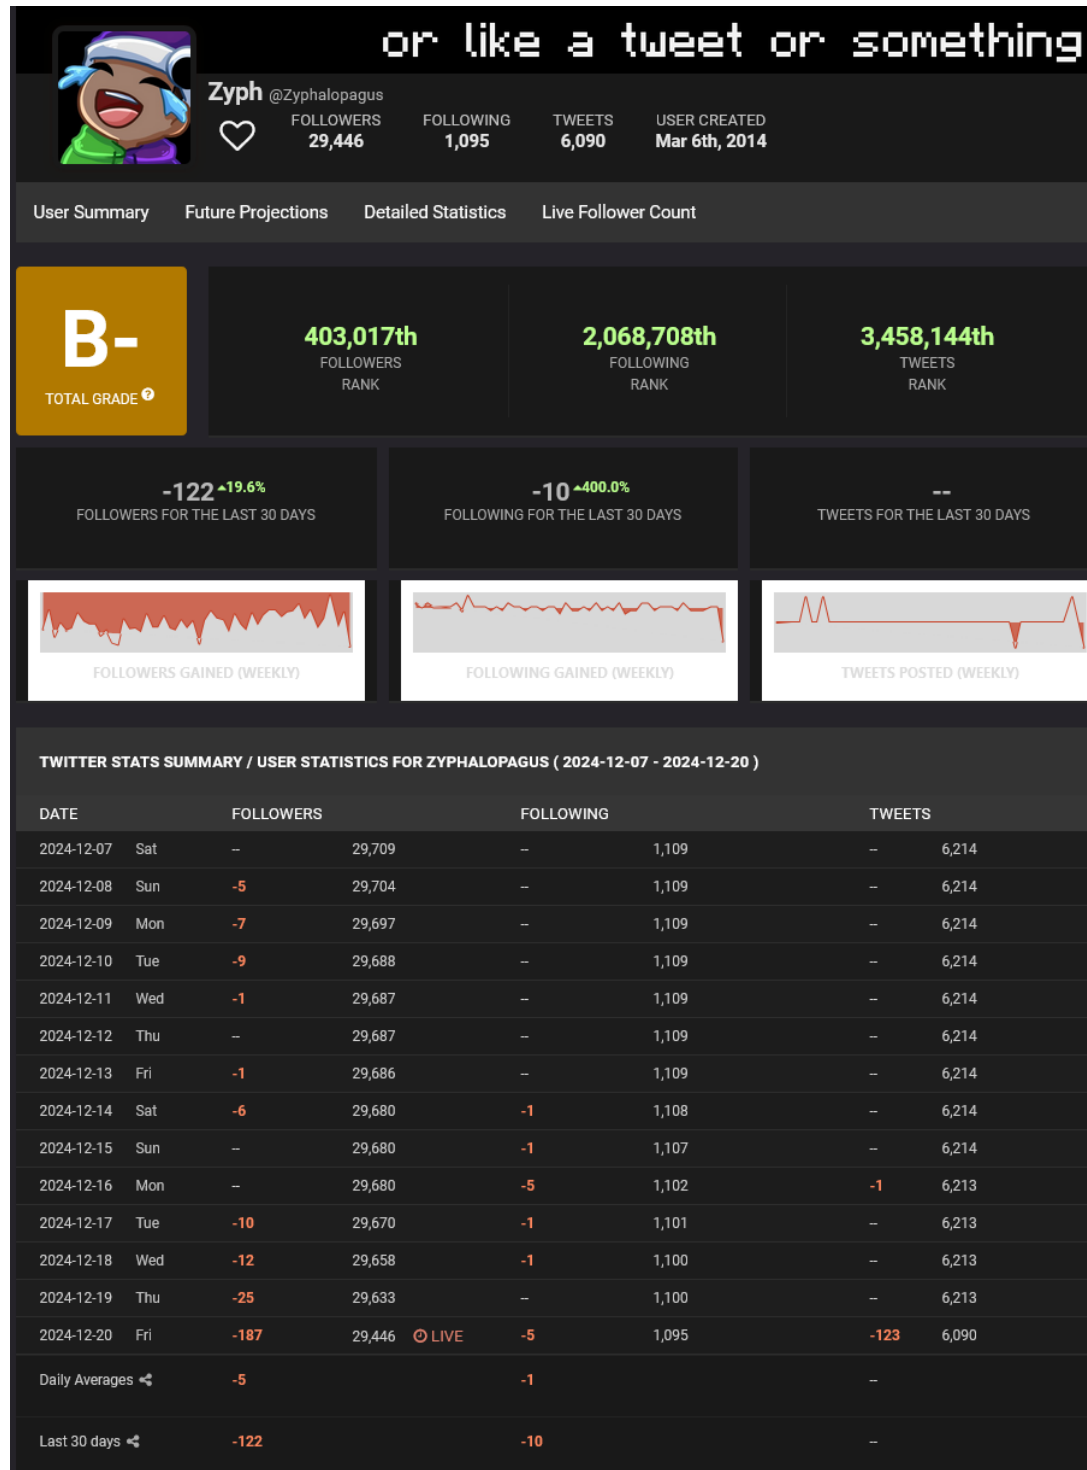

Yes my apologies I got the two confused, It's been a long time since all of this. I'll go into depth on everyone's involvement with the circle and just everything about it. So it really started whenever zyph was consistently streaming he was gaining a decent amount of viewers all the time and I so happened to want to be mod so I was involved in almost every stream of his. Everyone started watching the streams regularly and then he started a discord server where we all started chatting. A few months go by and everyone one by one starts joining the discord and we start talking at this point it's a very small community so everyone knew everyone. One of zyph friends who was in the same smp as me and zyph was an admin his name was [redacted] lowkey was a creep. And was actively talking about sex and a lot of stuff that shouldn't really be talked about. We all started talking so much in general we were like "might as well make a group chat" so everyone got invited to it. We would just talk about dumb stuff. That was until we found out [redacted] and zyph were dating. I didn't know that [redacted] was 13 till later. Everyone just kinda enjoyed each others time in the circle, I routinely got kicked and readdd a lot it was a running joke at this point. Im honestly not sure how [redacted] started drawing the nsfw of zyph but I know it happened and have seen it personally. I remember everyone was a little uneasy about it but we were kids so we just thought it was something normal. For me it wasn't until a few months after they started dating that I found out she was 13 and not 16. I really don't remember if everyone knew at the same time or not but it was definitely a couple months before I found out. From my knowledge [redacted] was one of the ones who was really against. [redacted] was against it as well but [redacted] was super verbal on how gross it is. We would gossip about it for months before something happened.

I didn't really know mnb was for the both of them being together but it makes sense on how they found out and banned everyone

I found chat logs of me and [redacted] talking about the ordeal I can send them if that helps

The day following his response, December 20th, Zyph went through his Discord server, and removed the management or moderation permissions from his admin and mod team, as well as the permissions of community artists and any permissions his friends or collaborators had. He hid channels that had previously been public to every member, as well as enabling slow mode. Invites to the server were disabled and it was locked down temporarily. Discord reverted the server icon to an older one since the server mass lost boosts. The icon had been drawn by the victim which Zyph had used as his Discord icon and it also remains on his YouTube channel.

On December 21st he continued hiding channels on his Discord, and removed message history from the general chat, preventing users from being able to go back and see past incriminating messages. One of the creators of this document was banned from the server after drawing attention to the fact users could easily go back in the general chat and prove Zyph lied about what age he thought the victim was in his statement. Again, Zyph claimed the victim was 17 in 2018, even though it was very clear that is not what was said, and she actually claimed to be 16. Zyph even wishes the victim happy birthday in the general chat, posting an image of her.

Screenshots showing the state of Zyph's server when he attempted to cover up the messages acknowledging the victim's stated age.

After the Documents Release

After the tweet went out, someone that still had moderation permissions on a bot in Zyph's Discord helped us get out the message in the announcement channel. It would be deleted the next day, and two contributors to this document were banned from the server. Zyph lost YouTube rank on the Hypixel server, his Hypixel creator code, and his Lunar cosmetics have been removed from the shop and it appears he is no longer a Lunar Partner. As of December 28th Zyph's merch company has been taken down and only the Facebook page remains. January 19 2025 Zyph removed anyones perms to see any channel and updated his servers name to "archived" and the icon to a lock. To bad we already downloaded all the messages we needed from there

In Conclusion

With the evidence that was available publicly and provided by witnesses of the relationship as it was ongoing, we have come to the conclusion that Zyph(alopagus)/Dylan was well aware of the fact he was romantically involved with a 13 year old after the events of Vidcon 2018, and continued to engage in a relationship with the victim until late summer or early fall of 2019. Zyph was directly involved with covering up the truth of the victim's age publicly, and took action to silence those who brought the claims forward, along with the victim who he likely manipulated into doing so.

The information provided in this document show that Zyph lied in his response about how he believed the victim was 17 at the beginning of their relationship, and that in April 2019, the time in his response he claims to finally learn the truth about the victim's age, that he was personally punishing or banning individuals who were attempting to expose his inappropriate relations with the victim. While the claim's of sexual assault towards the victim are something we cannot verify for multiple reasons, this document also shows that there were relatives of the victim who had gotten into contact with those who were attempting to expose Zyph, that claimed he engaged in sexual relations with the victim. One of the videos provided show proof of this contact from the victim's cousins as it is filmed from inside the victim's home.

While the victim may have been struggling at this point in her life, and had initially lied about her age, there is zero justification for Zyph to have stayed in this relationship after he became aware of the victim's real age, even more so for him to lie about it. Every adult involved in this situation failed to protect an unwell child, and one of them took advantage of her for his own gratification. Those who attempted to take action against Zyph were all minors ranging from the ages of 13 to 16 and were silenced. We are disgusted, not only that this situation happened in the first place, but that it continued for as long as it did and that children were the ones trying to stop it; as well as the fact that zero legal action was able to take place if the claims of assault are genuine.

If you are a minor reading this, we urge you to protect yourself online and reach out to friends or authority figures in your life if you believe you are being set up for grooming by an individual online or in real life. If you are struggling with mental illness or suicidal tendencies we urge you to seek professional help so you do not become open and vulnerable to situations like this. If you are an adult or a content creator and you believe another adult person in your life is having inappropriate relations with a minor, please look into it. Do NOT allow them to escape possible legal action or a chance at professional help for their actions.

Lastly, this is Lela here one more time writing this to finally close this document off. I will leave you off with words from someone close and very dear to me who puts it best, "In the case of pedophilia, it doesn't matter if the minor is encouraging the behavior because they're a minor. As an adult, you should know better."

Please take care of yourselves.
