NJSLS: W2.3, L.2.1, L.2.1.D, L.2.2

Essential Question: Can I write a short story with thoughts, actions and details to tell what is going on in the picture?

Today you will write a short narrative story about what is going on in the silly picture.

Remember your story should have at least 5 sentences:

1. Tell me about the character?
2. What is the character doing?
3. Why is he doing that?
4. How did it end?

Use the google Document to write your story.

Name: _____

You Write the Story

Directions: Look at the picture below. Write a story to tell about what you think is happening in the picture. Give your characters names and use lots of detail.

This image shows a full page of handwriting practice paper. It features ten sets of horizontal guidelines, each consisting of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are evenly spaced across the page to help students learn letter height and placement. The left margin is defined by a thick vertical black line.
