

How to get around U of R's College Building

For the 2026 WCPA / CSEP conference

Learn more about the land on which the building and the conference are located through three videos or transcripts: <https://www.saskoer.ca/livinglandacknowledgement/>

Our central location is in the Atrium at the Tower doors. You can enter from College avenue, or from the parking lot at the back. Please make sure to check in and pick up your name tag!

The College Building is the oldest of the University of Regina buildings. It was recently renovated. You can read about it here:

<https://www.uregina.ca/alumni-and-friends/giving/facilities/college-campus-and-darke-hall.html>

The Building features a great part of the President's Art Collection, and features the most Indigenous art of any building at the University of Regina. You can read more about the items from the collection on display here:

<https://www2.uregina.ca/president/art/college-avenue-campus/>

The building also includes several open and more secluded areas to chat and catch up with colleagues.

Non-gendered washrooms are available on all floors; specifically they can be found in the hallway across from the security desk, to the left of the gendered washrooms. Wudu facilities are also available there.

There are also washrooms at the end of the hallway, to the east, on all floors.

To get to the rooms for your sessions, simply go to the hallway across from the security desk, turn left at the boardroom (CB 132 and 136), and proceed to the end of the short hallway. Or climb the stairs behind the registration table, or take the elevator behind the security desk to the first floor. Note that nearly all the Society for Environmental Philosophy talks will be in CB 136. Please remember to remain quiet if you are waiting in the lobby between 132 and 136.

To get to the Indigenous philosophies workshop on Friday afternoon, take the elevator behind the tower, across from the security desk.

All meals will be served in CB 139, the multi-purpose room to the west of the building, near CB 132 and 136.

Getting to the building

Around the Building

All floor plans can be found here:
