1	Title: Safe Zone Level 1 Training Offered by: Center of Diversity and Inclusion Description: The purpose of Safe Zone is to reduce homophobia and heterosexism, thereby making our campus a safer and freer environment for all members of our community regardless of sexual orientation. Safe Zone prepares members of our community, primarily faculty and staff, to serve as a resource on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender issues, and also strives to educate the campus community about the Safe Zone program. Although transgender refers to gender identity and not necessarily sexual orientation, this is also a sexual minority group that is unfairly discriminated against, and therefore is included in the Safe Zone program. Location: D2L Link: https://learn.radford.edu/d2l/home/150998	Anytime Asynchronous D2L	Dr. Manizade amanizade@radford.edu 540-831-5752

3	Title: Mindfulness Meditation for Graduate Students  Offered by: Frank Napolitano, fnapolitano@radford.edu  Description: When was the last time you took some time for yourself, for your own happiness and well-being? Graduate programs seldom encourage students to do this, and as a result, grad students often feel exhausted and overwhelmed. Mindfulness meditation invites us to break the cycle of running from one problem to the next, and it instead invites us to just be where we are without judgment. Why not take 30 minutes to learn about how you can develop a meditation practice that helps you navigate the stresses of graduate school? 5-6	Title: The Magic of Conflict: Conflict Resolution and Mental Health          Offered by: Dr. Alan Forrest          Description: Like it or not, some degree of conflict is part of the human condition, and a part of every setting: graduate school, work, recreation, etc. Effective conflict resolution reduces distraction, increases performance, and gives one the confidence that their concerns will be heard, taken seriously, and fairly addressed. Participants will learn how to prevent or de-escalate unhealthy conflict before it leads to more serious problems. Graduate students will learn how to stop, evaluate, and consider all sides of a conflict before responding. This training also covers key communication skills needed to skillfully address conflict in	Monday, September 11,          and          Wednesday, September 13,            4:00-5:00pm          A 2-part training;          participants commit to attend both sessions. 9	Title: Culturally Responsive Teaching Practices  Offered by: Dr. Darryl Corey  Description: Culturally responsive (CR) teaching is an approach to teaching that uses students' cultural knowledge to empower them intellectually, emotionally, politically, and socially by using their individual, community, and cultural backgrounds when designing instruction. By ensuring that students' cultures and identities are reflected in the classroom, they develop a deeper understanding of the course content. This connection between their own experiences and the educational material enhances the significance of their learning, fostering increased engagement within the classroom community.  In this session, participants will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Gain an understanding of CR teaching. What it is and what are the misconceptions.</li> <li>● Learn about the 3 propositions of CR teaching and why they are important in classrooms.</li> <li>● Examine their own CR dispositions and mindsets.</li> <li>● Have an opportunity to ask questions and engage with others.</li> </ul> Location: Join from PC, Mac, Linux, iOS or Android:  https://radford.zoom.us/j/96828287451  Join from a Telephone:  Dial +1 408 638 0968  Enter Meeting ID 96828287451  International numbers available:  https://radford.zoom.us/u/anKaivK7s  Join from a Room Systems:  96828287451@zoomcrc.com	Wednesday, September 27,  6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.  Zoom	Dr. Darryl Corey  d  corey3@radford.edu
